Royal Wolf completes acquisition of Rockhampton Container Sales in North Queensland

Royal Wolf Holdings (ASX:RWH) is pleased to announce that it has today completed the acquisition of the assets and businesses of Tassay Pty Ltd trading as Rockhampton Container Sales (RCS), based in Rockhampton, Queensland.

RCS commenced operation in 2006 and provides containers for hire and sale to customers across Central Queensland operating in the mining, construction, transport and agricultural sectors, with an on lease fleet slightly in excess of 200 containers.

RCS is strategically located adjacent to Gladstone where $50 billion is being spent by major resource companies on LNG, coal and aluminium related projects, whilst Rockhampton acts as a hub for the central Queensland region servicing a growing catchment area.

The acquisition of this regional business will extend Royal Wolf's existing Queensland network of Customer Service Centres into this dynamic region and by introducing the existing RCS customer base to Royal Wolf's customer service and product range will provide the opportunity to expand our activities into the Gladstone precinct.

About Royal Wolf
