The Company began operations as a securities broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and became a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") on April 6, 2006. The Company's operations consist primarily of providing financial advisory and wealth management services. The Company earns revenues primarily from commissions and fees earned from the sale of insurance products, mutual funds and investment advisory services. The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Founders Financial, LLC.

Basis of Presentation: The Company's financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Clearing and Custody Agreements: The Company, under Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(ii), is exempt from the reserve and possession or control requirements of Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company does not carry or clear customer accounts. Accordingly, customer transactions are executed and cleared on behalf of the Company by its clearing broker on a fully disclosed basis. The Company's agreements with its clearing broker provides that as clearing broker, that firm will make and keep such records of the transactions effected and cleared in the customer accounts as are customarily made and kept by a clearing broker pursuant to the requirements of Rules 17a-3 and 17a-4 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Act"). It also performs all services customarily incident thereon, including the preparation and distribution of customer's confirmation and statements and maintenance margin requirements under the Act and the rules of the Self Regulatory Organizations of which the Company is a member. The Company also has custodial agreements with brokers to hold customer funds. These accounts are primarily investment advisory accounts. The Company also has direct revenue from mutual funds, insurance, annuities, and 529 plans. The custodial customers and direct revenue qualify for exemption from 15c3-3 under Footnote 74 of SEC Release #34-70073.

Income Taxes: No provision for income taxes is provided since the Company is considered a disregarded entity for federal and state income tax purposes. The member reports the Company's taxable income or loss on its respective income tax return.

The Company has adopted the provisions of FASB ASC 740-10, accounting for uncertainty in income taxes. Under ASC 740-10, the Company is required to evaluate each of its tax positions to determine if they are more likely than not to be sustained if the taxing authority examines the respective positions. A tax position includes entity's status. The Company believes it has no uncertain tax positions.

Estimates: Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were assumed in preparing the financial statements.

Revenue Recognition: On January 1, 2018, the Company adopted ASU 2014-09 Revenue from Contracts with Customers and all subsequent amendments to the ASU (collectively, "ASC 606"), which creates a single framework for recognizing revenue from contracts with customers that fall within its scope.

Revenue from Contracts with Customers:

Significant Judgements

Revenue from contracts with customers includes commission income and fees from commissions. The recognition and measurement of revenue is based on the assessment of individual contract terms. Significant judgement is required to determine whether performance obligations are satisfied at a point in time or over time; how to allocate transaction prices where multiple performance obligations are identified; when to recognize revenue based on the appropriate measure of the Company's progress under the contract; whether revenue should be presented gross or net of certain costs; and whether constraints on variable consideration should be applied due to uncertain future events.

Brokerage Commissions

The Company buys and sells securities on behalf of its customers. Each time a customer enters into a buy or sell transaction, the Company charges a commission. Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on the trade date (the date that the Company fills the trade order by finding and contracting with a counterparty and confirms the trade with the customer). The Company believes that the performance obligation is satisfied on the trade date because that is when the underlying financial instrument or purchaser is identified, the pricing is agreed upon and the risks and rewards of ownership of the securities have been transferred to/from the customer.

The Company earns commissions from variable and life annuities, the commissions are earned upon completion of the contract, which are based on a contractual rate applied to base amount of the contract.

Mutual Funds or pooled investment vehicles (collectively, "funds") have entered into agreements with the Company to distribute/sell its shares to investors. Fees are paid up front and over time (12b-1 fees) on the basis of a contractual rate applied to the monthly or quarterly market value of the fund (that is, net asset value [NAV]), the fund may also pay, upon investor exit from the fund (that is, a contingent deferred sales charge [CDSC]), or as a combination thereof. Revenue is recognized monthly as services are provided.

Advisory Fees

The advisory fees are primarily earned over time as the Company provides contracted quarterly services and are generally assessed based on a tiered scale of the value of assets under management at quarter end.
