Item 1. Description of Registrant's Securities to be Registered

Common Stock

Our amended Articles of Incorporation authorize the issuance of 150,000,000 shares of common stock with no par value. Each record holder of common stock is entitled to one vote for each share held in all matters properly submitted to the stockholders for their vote. Cumulative voting for the election of directors is not permitted by the By-Laws of Eworld Interactive, Inc.

Subject to preferences that may be applicable to any outstanding preferred stock, the holders of common stock are entitled to receive ratably dividends, if any, as may be declared from time to time by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available for that purpose. In the event of our liquidation, dissolution, or winding up, the holders of common stock are entitled to share ratably in all assets remaining after payment of liabilities, subject to prior distribution rights of preferred stock, if any, then outstanding. The common stock has no preemptive or conversion rights or other subscription rights. There are no redemption or sinking fund provisions applicable to the common stock.

To the extent that additional shares of Eworld Interactive's common stock are issued, the relative interest of then existing stockholders may be diluted.
