Mutual Federal Bancorp, Inc. Completes Minority Stock Offering

Chicago, IL, April 4, 2006 - Mutual Federal Bancorp, Inc. (the "Company"), the holding company of Mutual Federal Savings and Loan Association of Chicago (the "Bank"), announced today it completed its minority stock offering. The Company sold 1,091,062 shares, or 30% of its outstanding common stock, at $10.00 per share in a subscription offering, which ended on March 16, 2006, to depositors of the Bank as of June 30, 2004, and the Company's employee stock ownership plan in accordance with subscription rights granted under the Company's Stock Issuance Plan. The Company also issued 2,545,813 shares, or 70% of its outstanding common stock, to Mutual Federal Bancorp, MHC. At closing, the Bank became a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company.

The Company's common stock is expected to begin trading on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board later this week.

Stephen M. Oksas, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, said, "We are overwhelmed by the outstanding support shown by our depositors. We look forward to the enhanced opportunities that we believe the offering will afford us in continuing to serve the needs of our customers and community, and we welcome our new stockholders."

The offering was oversubscribed by eligible account holders of the Bank as of June 30, 2004. Accordingly, eligible account holders had valid orders filled in accordance with the allocation procedures set forth in the Company's Stock Issuance Plan. If you are an eligible account holder and would like to confirm your allocation, please contact the Stock Information Center at (773) 847-8150. The Stock Information Center will be open on Wednesday, April 5th, and Thursday, April 6th, from 9:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m., Chicago time.

Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. acted as financial advisor to the Company in connection with the offering and managed the subscription offering.

Vedder, Price, Kaufman & Kammholz, P.C. acted as special counsel to the Company.
