Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Shareholder and the Board of Directors of Investec Securities (US) LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Investec Securities (US) LLC, (the Company) as of March 31, 2023 and the related notes (the “financial statement”). In our opinion, the financial statement presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company at March 31, 2023, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company’s financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

We have served as the Company’s auditor since 2007.

Investec Securities (US) LLC

Notes to Financial Statements

March 31, 2023

1. Organization and Nature of Business

Investec Securities (US) LLC (the “Company”) is a wholly owned subsidiary of Investec USA Holdings Corp. (“Holdings”), the ultimate parent of which is Investec plc, a London Stock Exchange listed company. The Company is a registered broker-dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “SEA”) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”). The Company distributes affiliate research and serves as an intermediary on behalf of overseas affiliates (the “Overseas Affiliates”) in accordance with SEA Rule 15a-6. Under this rule, the Company intermediates foreign equity transactions, as well as it acts as a placement agent for foreign securities offerings in the United States; for all such transactions and offerings, the executing broker is one of the Overseas Affiliates. The Company operates in a single business segment, the institutional securities business.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, which require management to make judgments and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consists of cash and highly liquid investments with maturities of 90 days or less. The Company had no cash equivalents at March 31, 2023.

Commitments and Contingencies

The Company has not made any commitments, and it is not aware of any contingencies, that would require disclosure in the Notes to Financial Statements.

Income Taxes

The Company is a single-member limited liability company and is not subject to federal and state income taxes; its income and deductions are included with those of the Holdings. The Company’s operating results are included in the federal, state and local income tax returns filed by Holdings. Holdings’ federal and state and local returns are subject to examination by the respective tax authorities for years ended March 31, 2020 through 2022.

3. Credit Risk

The Company maintains its Cash and cash equivalents in bank accounts. Balances in such accounts, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company's customers and counterparties are in the financial services industry. Changes in the industry's regulatory framework relevant to the Company, and to its business environment, could have a material effect on the Company and its operations.

4. Related-Party Transactions

The Company shares office space, equipment and other related support with Holdings. Under an administrative services agreement (the "ASA") with Holdings, certain overhead and operating expenses, including employee salaries and related costs, insurance and other expenses are allocated to the Company based on formulae applied to these expenses. In addition, Holdings is the Company's payment agent for essentially all of the Company's vendor invoices.

Receivable or payable balances are settled between the Company and Holdings throughout the year on at least a quarterly basis. At March 31, 2023, the Company owed Holdings, net, $285,014 related to the items described above.

Pursuant to service agreements, the Company charges certain Overseas Affiliates for services rendered, including operating as an intermediary broker-dealer for the Overseas Affiliates pursuant to SEC Rule 15a-6. Receivable or payable balances are settled between the Company and the Overseas Affiliates throughout the year on at least a quarterly basis. At March 31, 2023, the Overseas Affiliates owed the Company $71,844 related to the items described above and was included in Due from Affiliates. The Overseas Affiliates have settled $71,844 subsequent to 3/31/2023 and prior to June 12, 2023.

5. Regulatory Requirements

The Company, a registered broker-dealer, is subject to the Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 under the SEA (the "Rule"), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital. The Company utilizes the alternative method available under the Rule and is required to have net capital equal to the greater of $250,000 or 2 percent of its customer-related receivables from the reserve calculation of Rule 15c3-3. Since the Company claims an exemption from Rule 15c3-3, its minimum net capital is $250,000.

At March 31, 2023, the Company had net capital of $5,660,180 which was $5,410,180 in excess of the required minimum net capital.

Various regulations may limit advances, dividends, and capital withdrawals in order to maintain required minimum net capital or for other reasons.

7. Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated all subsequent events through June 12, 2023, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
