2. On page 26 you state that it is unlikely you will be able to obtain an A.M. Best rating for at least three to five years, and until then, you plan on obtaining a rating from Demotech, Inc. Please explain what this entity is, what sorts of ratings it gives and how it will meet your needs. We may have further comment.

General

3. We acknowledge your response to comment 29 of our letter dated June 28, 2006, as well as your inclusion of a balance sheet as of June 30, 2006 and statements of operations and cash flows for the six months ended June 30, 2006. Prior to requesting acceleration of effectiveness, please refer to Items 310(g) and 310(b) of Regulation S-B and amend your filing to include a statement of operations for the three months ended June 30, 2006 and statements of operations and cash flows for the comparable prior year period from April 1, 2005 through June 30, 2005. Additionally, please include an updated consent report from your independent accountants.

Balance Sheet as of June 30, 2006 (Unaudited), page F-2

4. Please revise your balance sheet to correctly reflect the par value of your common stock as $0.0001/share, as indicated on page 45. Please also revise your December 31, 2005 balance sheet accordingly.

Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 3: Long-term debt, page F-9

5. On page 45, you disclose that you issued $5,500 promissory notes both to EMH Advisory Services, Inc. and Akron Associates, both of which you specify as due in full on April 11, 2008. This appears to contradict your note disclosure on page F-9, which specifies the due date for both notes as March 1, 2008. Please clarify this discrepancy for us or revise your disclosure accordingly.

6. On both page 45 and in note 5 to your audited December 31, 2005 financial statements, you disclose that you issued 33,625,000 shares of your common stock on February 2, 2006. However, in note 5 to your unaudited June 30, 2006 financial statements, you disclose that you issued 8,800,000 of your common stock on February 2, 2006 and 24,825,000 shares of your common stock on May 15, 2006. Please clarify this discrepancy for us or revise your filing accordingly.

7. We have considered your response to comment 28. You say that the language used in the purchase orders "will serve to protect the Company's interests." If you retain the language, please also include a legend on the purchase orders that specifically indicates that the representations that the purchaser has: 1) reviewed the prospectus, 2) identified the person(s) who solicited the purchase and 3) that the persons identified were the only persons who solicited the purchase, do not in any way constitute waivers of the investor's rights under the federal securities laws.
