(b) The Earnest Money shall be held in escrow by Escrow Agent pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. The Earnest Money will be non-refundable to Purchaser after the expiration of the Investigation Period (as defined herein), unless other provisions of this Agreement require that the Earnest Money be returned to Purchaser. The full amount of the Earnest Money will be applied to the Purchase Price of the Property due at the Closing.

(c) If Purchaser fails to timely deposit any of the Earnest Money, Seller may terminate this Agreement by written notice to Purchaser at any time prior to the deposit of the full amount of the Earnest Money. If this Agreement is so terminated, this Agreement shall be deemed to have terminated as of the date that Earnest Money was originally to have been deposited by Purchaser, and there shall be no remedy hereunder to either Seller or Purchaser other than the termination of this Agreement.

4. Title Insurance. Within 10 days after the Effective Date, Purchaser shall, at Purchaser's sole expense, procure: (i) a title commitment ("Title Commitment") covering the Property, binding the issuer of the Title Commitment (such underwriter shall be referred to herein as the "Title Company"; the underwriter shall be a nationally recognized title insurance issuer selected by Purchaser) to issue an owner's policy of title insurance in the full amount of the Purchase Price; and (ii) true, correct and legible copies of any and all instruments referred to in the Title Commitment as constituting exceptions or restrictions upon the title of Seller. Purchaser shall have 15 days after the receipt of Title Commitment, or any updates or endorsements thereto as permitted herein, to deliver a copy of same to Seller together with such written objections as Purchaser may have to any exceptions to title contained therein. Any such item to which Purchaser does not object, which Purchaser waives as permitted by this Agreement, or which is specified as such, shall be deemed a "Permitted Exception". If there are objections by Purchaser, Seller at its sole and absolute discretion may attempt to satisfy them prior to Closing and to cause the Title Company to revise the Title Commitment to reflect such satisfaction. If Seller delivers written notice ("Seller's Title Notice") to Purchaser on or before the Closing date that Seller is unable or unwilling to satisfy such objections, Purchaser may within five (5) days of receipt of Seller's Title Notice (i) waive such objections and accept such title as Seller is able or willing to convey; or (ii) terminate this Agreement by written notice to Seller. Should Purchaser elect to terminate this Agreement, upon such termination and upon receipt by Escrow Agent of notice of such termination, Escrow Agent shall return the Earnest Money to Purchaser and the parties hereto shall have no further rights or obligations hereunder except as otherwise provided in this Agreement. Permitted Exceptions shall be deemed to include (i) rights or claims of parties in possession not shown by the public records (ii) easements or claims of easement not shown by the public records, (iii) any lien, or right to a lien for services, labor material heretofore or hereafter furnished, imposed by law and not shown by the public records (iv) restrictive covenants of record as to the use and improvement property (v) taxes (including liens for current taxes) and special assessments which are not shown as existing liens by the public records.

5. Survey. A standard survey exception to title in the Title Commitment that may be cured by a current survey shall be deemed a Permitted Exception. Purchaser may at its sole expense, prior to the end of the Investigation Period, obtain a boundary survey of the Property prepared by a Registered Land Surveyor. If Purchaser obtains a survey prior to the end of the Investigation Period, Purchaser shall furnish a copy of said survey to Seller.

6. Investigation Period.

(a) Purchaser shall have a period of 30 days from the Effective Date (the "Investigation Period") within which Purchaser may, at its sole expense, conduct a feasibility study of the Property (including, without limitation, architectural, geotechnical, environmental, marketing, engineering and financial feasibility studies) to determine whether or not the Property is suitable to Purchaser ("Feasibility Study"). If Purchaser decides that the Property is not suitable to Purchaser, it shall deliver written notice of the termination of the Agreement to Seller on or before the end of the Investigation Period. If Purchaser delivers such termination notice to Seller by the end of the Investigation Period, then Escrow Agent shall return the Earnest Money to Purchaser and the parties hereto shall have no further rights or obligations hereunder except as otherwise provided in this Agreement. If Purchaser fails to deliver such termination notice to Seller by the end of the Investigation Period, then Purchaser shall be deemed to have determined that the Property is suitable to Purchaser and shall be obligated to proceed with the Closing.

(b) Seller hereby grants to Purchaser and Purchaser's employees, consultants, and agents (each a "Purchaser Party") the right and permission from and after the date hereof to enter upon the Property or any part thereof, at all reasonable times and from time to time, for the purpose of completing its Feasibility Study of the Property. Purchaser shall indemnify, defend and hold Seller harmless from and against any and all costs, losses, expenses, liabilities, fines, punitive damages, penalties and damages (including reasonable attorneys' fees, disbursements and costs of defense) incurred by Seller in connection with or arising out of (i) any act or omission to act of any Purchaser Party while on or about the Property notwithstanding Seller's consent to enter upon the Property; and (ii) any personal injury suffered by any Purchaser Party while on or about the Property. The indemnity provided in this Paragraph shall survive the Closing or any earlier termination of this Agreement.

7. Information. Seller specifically disclaims any warranty or representation as to the accuracy or correctness of any information, including but not limited to surveys, topographic maps, environmental reports or surveys, or other information pertaining to the Property (the "Information"), whether such Information is provided by Seller or any broker or agent representing Seller. Purchaser acknowledges that any reliance on and/or use of the Information shall be at Purchaser's risk.

8. Closing. Purchaser shall close on the Property in a single closing (the "Closing"), which shall be held at the offices of the Escrow Agent or at another mutually agreeable location on or before 45 days from the expiration of the Investigation Period (the "Closing Date").

Seller will pay only the cost to clear any title defects that it agrees to cure as described in Section 4 above, unpaid real estate taxes for prior years and will pay its own attorney's fees. All real estate taxes allocated to the Property for the current tax year shall be the sole responsibility of Purchaser and there shall be no prorating of taxes for the current tax year to Seller either at or after the Closing.

11. As Is Where Is. Purchaser acknowledges that Purchaser will have the opportunity to independently and personally inspect the Property and to cause to be conducted (at Purchaser's sole cost and expense) such appraisals, environmental site assessments, tests, analysis and other investigations as Purchaser deems necessary or appropriate, during the Investigation Period and that Purchaser has entered into this Agreement based upon its ability to make such examination and inspection. The Property shall be accepted by Purchaser at Closing in its then-present condition, "AS IS, WITH ALL FAULTS AND DEFECTS, LATENT OR APPARENT, AND, AND WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY WHATSOEVER, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED". Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that Seller has not made, does not make and specifically negates and disclaims any representations, warranties, promises, covenants, agreements or guaranties of any kind or character whatsoever, whether express or implied, oral or written, past, present or future, of, as to, concerning or with respect to (i) the value, nature, quality or physical condition of the Property, including, without limitation, the water, soil and geology, (ii) the income to be derived from the Property, (iii) the compliance of or by the Property or its operation with any laws, rules, ordinances or regulations of any applicable governmental authority or body, (iv) the habitability, merchantability, marketability, profitability or fitness for a particular purpose of the Property, (v) the manner or quality of the construction or materials, if any, incorporated into the Property, (vi) the manner, quality, state of repair or lack of repair of the Property, or (vii) the correctness or accuracy of the Information or of the ability of Purchaser to rely upon or use the Information. Seller has not made, does not make and specifically disclaims any representations regarding compliance with any environmental protection, pollution or land uses laws, rules, regulations, orders or requirements, including the existence in or on the Property of hazardous substances. Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that having been given the opportunity to inspect the Property and to cause such testing and analysis as Purchaser deems necessary or appropriate, Purchaser is relying solely on its own investigation of the Property and not on any information or Information provided or to be provided by Seller, and at the Closing agrees to accept the Property and waive all objections or claims against Seller (including, but not limited to, any right or claim of contribution) arising from or related to the matters set forth above in items (i) through (vii) of this Section or as to any hazardous substances on the Property. Purchaser expressly acknowledges that Purchaser has not relied on any warranties, promises, understandings or representations, express or implied, oral or written, of Seller and/or any Seller Party, relating to the Property which are not contained in this Agreement. Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that any information provided or to be provided with respect to the Property was obtained from a variety of sources and that Seller has not made any independent investigation or verification of such information and makes no representations as to the accuracy or completeness of such information. Seller is not liable or bound in any manner by any verbal or written statements, representations or information pertaining to the Property, or the operation thereof, furnished by any real estate broker, agent, employee, servant or other person, except as otherwise provided herein. THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION ARE A MATERIAL PART OF THE CONSIDERATION FOR SELLER'S ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT, AND SHALL SURVIVE CLOSING.

12. Purchaser's Release of Seller.

(a) Seller Released from Liability. Purchaser for itself and its respective directors, officers, shareholders, partners, affiliates, employees, agents, attorneys, representatives, heirs, successors and assigns ("Purchaser Party" or "Purchaser Parties"), hereby waives, releases and discharges Seller and all affiliates of Seller and their respective directors, officers, shareholders, employees, agents, attorneys, representatives, heirs, successors and assigns ("Seller Party" or "Seller Parties") from all actions, claims, causes of action, suits, proceedings, demands, damages, costs, expenses, liabilities and affirmative defenses of any kind or nature whatsoever, whether known or unknown, against any or all of the Seller Parties arising from, relating or with respect to or involving in any way, directly or indirectly, any act, statement, omission or conduct, regarding the condition (including the presence in the soil, air, structures and surface and subsurface waters) of materials or substances that have been or may in the future be determined to be toxic, hazardous, undesirable or subject to regulation and that may need to be specially treated, handled and/or removed from the Property under current or future federal, state and local laws, rules, regulations or guidelines, including, without limitation, naturally occurring gases, fungi, mycotoxins and pathogens such as carbon dioxide, radon and mold, valuation, salability or utility of the Property, or its suitability for any purpose whatsoever. Without limitation, Purchaser, for itself and all other Purchaser Parties, specifically releases Seller from any claims it, any other Seller Party or their respective successors and assigns may have against Seller now or in the future under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601 et seq., as amended; the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 6901 et seq., as amended; and any other analogous state or federal statute; and common law arising from the environmental conditions of the Property or the presence of hazardous substances, solid wastes or any other pollutants or contamination the Property. Purchaser hereby agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Seller and any Seller Party harmless from any and all costs, losses, expenses, liabilities, fines, punitive damages, penalties and damages (including reasonable attorneys' fees, disbursements and costs of defense) incurred by Seller or any Seller Party in connection with or arising out of or in connection with acts or omissions of the Purchaser or any Purchaser Party in connection with (i) the operation of the Property or (ii) the condition of the Property from and after the Closing. The indemnities described herein specifically include but are not limited to claims or causes of action from which Seller has been released by Purchaser in Section 11(a) above. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive Closing.

13. Default. If Purchaser fails to perform its obligation to purchase Property as provided herein within the time period enumerated, the Earnest Money shall be paid over to Seller and forfeited to Seller as liquidated damages. Both parties agree that such sum is a fair and reasonable figure and that actual damages would be too difficult to ascertain. Upon the forfeiture of said sum, all rights and obligations of the parties shall cease and be of no further force and effect, except with respect to Purchaser's obligations pursuant to Section 6(b), which the parties specifically agree will survive such termination.

If Seller fails to perform its obligation to sell the Property the Escrow Agent shall return the Earnest Money to Purchaser and, unless such failure is required by, or reasonably based upon, a temporary restraining order, injunction, automatic stay or other order of a state or federal court or administrative agency or is otherwise beyond Seller's control, which return of Earnest Money shall be Purchaser's sole and exclusive remedy. Both parties agree that the return of the Earnest Money is a fair and reasonable action and that actual damages would be too difficult to ascertain. Upon the return of Earnest Money, all rights and obligations of the parties shall cease and be of no further force and effect, except with respect to Purchaser's obligations pursuant to Section 6(b), which the parties specifically agree will survive such termination.

Under no circumstances may a party pursue a claim for consequential damages as a result of a post closing default.
