1.5 Allocation of Consideration. The Purchase Price and those Assumed Liabilities and other items included in “consideration” for purposes of Code section 1060 (the “Section 1060 Consideration”) shall be allocated among the Purchased Assets based on their fair market values, in compliance with Code section 1060 and the Treasury Regulations thereunder, in accordance with this Section 1.5 (such allocation, the “Allocation”). For purposes of calculating the Section 1060 Consideration, the amounts, as of the Closing Date, of the accounts payable, accrued expenses and other liabilities included in the Assumed Liabilities shall equal the amounts thereof shown on the Final Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement. For purposes of the Allocation, the parties agree that, as of the Closing Date: (a) the aggregate fair market value of the Company’s property, plant and equipment is $250,000; (b) the aggregate fair market value of the items included in the Company’s Net Working Capital shall equal the aggregate amount thereof shown on the Final Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement; and (c) the remainder of the Purchase Price shall be allocated to goodwill. As soon as reasonably practicable after determination of the Final Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement pursuant to Section 1.10(c), the Purchaser shall prepare and deliver to the Company a proposed Allocation (the “Draft Allocation”). The Company may notify the Purchaser in writing of any objections to the Draft Allocation within fifteen (15) days after receipt thereof, which notice shall include reasonable detail of the nature of each disputed item; provided, however, that the basis for dispute shall not include any objection to the methodology used to calculate the Section 1060 Consideration and the fair market values of the Company’s property, plant and equipment and items included in the Company’s Current Assets, as described above. If the Company does not provide such notice within such fifteen (15) day period, the Draft Allocation shall conclusively be deemed the “Final Allocation”, which shall be final and binding upon all parties hereto and shall not be subject to dispute or review. If the Company provides such notice within such fifteen (15) day period to the Draft Allocation, then for a period of up to fifteen (15) days after the Purchaser’s receipt of the objection notice, the Purchaser and the Company shall use good faith commercially reasonable efforts to resolve any dispute, and if all disputed items are so resolved, the Draft Allocation shall be revised to reflect such resolution and shall become the Final Allocation. If the parties are unable to resolve all disputed items within such fifteen (15) day period, they shall submit only those disputed items that have not been resolved by the parties to the Independent Accountants (as defined below) for resolution. The Independent Accountants’ determination as to each disputed item shall be final and binding upon all parties hereto, and the Draft Allocation shall be revised in accordance with the Independent Accountants’ determination and shall become the Final Allocation. The fees and expenses of the Independent Accountants in performing their determination under this Section 1.5 shall be borne one-half (1/2) by the Purchaser and one-half (1/2) by the Company and the Stockholders, jointly and severally. Within fifteen (15) days after the Draft Allocation becomes the Final Allocation, the Purchaser shall prepare and deliver to the Company IRS Form 8594 and any required exhibits thereto, and any similar forms required under applicable state, local or foreign Tax Law, which shall conform with the Final Allocation, and both the Company and the Purchaser shall timely file: (a) such Form 8594 with the IRS in accordance with the requirements of Code section 1060; and (b) such other forms with the applicable Governmental Entity in accordance with the requirements of the applicable Tax Law. Any subsequent adjustment to the consideration paid for the Purchased Assets, including any adjustment to the Purchase Price described in Section 1.10 or Section 7.11, shall be reflected in an amended Final Allocation and amended Form 8594 (and amended applicable state, local or foreign forms) that the Purchaser shall prepare and deliver to the Company. The Company, the Stockholders and the Purchaser shall, and shall cause their respective Affiliates to, report, act and file Tax Returns in all respects and for all purposes consistent with the Final Allocation. The Company, the Stockholders and the Purchasers shall not, and shall cause their respective Affiliates not to, take any position, whether on audit, in Tax Returns or otherwise, that is inconsistent with the Final Allocation unless required to do so by applicable Law.

1.6 The Closing. The closing of the purchase and sale of the Purchased Assets contemplated by this Agreement (the “Closing”) shall take place at the same time at which this Agreement is executed and delivered by the parties. The date on which the Closing takes place is referred to herein as the “Closing Date”.

1.7 Purchase Price; Payments at Closing. The aggregate consideration being paid by the Purchaser to the Company for the Purchased Assets will consist of: (x) assumption by the Purchaser of the Assumed Liabilities on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and (y) payment of the sum of $25,000,000 plus the Equalization Payment, as adjusted pursuant to Section 1.10 (the “Purchase Price”). The Purchase Price shall be paid at the Closing as follows:

(a) to the Senior Lender, on behalf of the Company, any amount necessary to pay off in full all Liabilities relating to the Senior Debt (the “Senior Debt Payoff Amount”);

(b) to the Escrow Agent, $1,600,000 (the “Indemnity Escrow Deposit”), in accordance with Section 1.9(a);

(c) to the Escrow Agent, $800,000 (the “Net Working Capital Escrow Deposit”), in accordance with Section 1.9(b);

(e) the balance to the Company (the “Remaining Purchase Price Amount”).

In order to facilitate the payments contemplated by the foregoing subsections of this Section 1.7, not less than one (1) Business Day nor more than five (5) Business Days prior to the Closing, the Company will prepare and deliver to Purchaser a memorandum setting forth its calculation of the Senior Debt Payoff Amount (if any) and the resulting Remaining Purchase Price Amount, along with wire transfer information for the Senior Lender and the Company.

As soon as reasonably practicable (and in any event within sixty (60) days) after the Closing Date, the Purchaser shall prepare and deliver to the Company and the Stockholders a statement (the “Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement”) setting forth its calculation of the Net Working Capital as of the Closing, which statement shall be prepared: (i) using the Joint Inventory Determinations; (ii) as to the method of valuing Inventory, using the historical cost of each Inventory item on a first-in/first-out basis applied in the same manner as was used in preparation of the 2007 Financial Statements; (iii) consistent with the Company’s past practices (which shall, other than as described in Section 2.4(a)(ii) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, be in accordance with GAAP); and (iv) using the same methodology and manner of calculation as the example calculation set forth in Schedule 1.10(b), and include reasonable support for the calculations made therein. If the Company and the Stockholders disagree with the Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement, the Company and the Stockholders may, within ten (10) Business Days after receipt thereof, notify the Purchaser in writing (the “Net Working Capital Dispute Notice”), which Net Working Capital Dispute Notice shall provide reasonable detail of the nature of each disputed item on the Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement and provide reasonable support for each such position; provided, however, that the only bases for objection shall be: (i) non-compliance with the standards set forth in this Section 1.10(c) for the preparation of the Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement or as set forth in the definition of Net Working Capital; and (ii) computational errors. During such ten (10) Business Day period and any subsequent time period in which the Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement is being disputed as provided in this Section 1.10(c), the Purchaser shall provide the Company and the Stockholders and their representatives with reasonable access, upon reasonable notice and during times mutually and reasonably agreeable to the Purchaser, on the one hand, and the Company and the Stockholders, on the other hand, to the books, records and working papers of the Business related to the calculations underlying the Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement. Unless the Company and the Stockholders deliver a Net Working Capital Dispute Notice within ten (10) Business Days after delivery of the Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement, such Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement shall be conclusively deemed the “Final Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement,” shall be final and binding upon all parties, and shall not be subject to dispute or review. Any items or calculations not disputed by the Company and the Stockholders in the Net Working Capital Dispute Notice shall be conclusively deemed to have been agreed upon by the Company and the Stockholders and shall be final and binding upon all parties and shall not be subject to dispute or review. For a period of fifteen (15) days after receipt by the Purchaser of the Net Working Capital Dispute Notice, the Purchaser, on the one hand, and the Company and the Stockholders, on the other hand, shall use good faith commercially reasonable efforts to resolve the disputed items between themselves and, if the parties are able to resolve all of the disputed items during such time period, the Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement shall be revised to the extent necessary to reflect such resolution, shall be conclusively deemed the “Final Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement,” shall be final and binding upon all parties, and shall not be subject to dispute or review. If the parties are unable to resolve all of the disputed items within such fifteen (15) day period, the parties shall jointly engage a nationally-recognized accounting firm reasonably acceptable to the Purchaser, on the one hand, and the Company and the Stockholders, on the other hand, with no relationship with any of the parties or any of their respective Affiliates (the “Independent Accountants”) and submit the disputed items to the Independent Accountants for resolution. The Independent Accountants shall act as experts and not arbiters and shall determine only those items on the Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement being disputed by the Purchaser, on the one hand, and the Company and the Stockholders, on the other hand, as of the time of engagement of the Independent Accountants. The Purchaser, the Company and the Stockholders shall instruct the Independent Accountants to not assign a dollar amount to any item in dispute greater than the greatest dollar amount for such item assigned by the Purchaser, on the one hand, or the Company and the Stockholders, on the other hand (as applicable), or less than the dollar amount for such item assigned by the Purchaser, on the one hand, or the Company and the Stockholders, on the other hand (as applicable). Promptly, but no later than thirty (30) days after engagement, the Independent Accountants shall deliver a written report to the Purchaser, the Company and the Stockholders as to the resolution of the disputed items, which shall state the resulting determination of the Final Net Working Capital. The Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement as determined by the Independent Accountants shall be conclusively deemed the “Final Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement,” shall be final and binding upon all parties and shall not be subject to dispute or review. The Net Working Capital as of the Closing set forth on the Final Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement is referred to herein as the “Final Net Working Capital.” The fees and expenses of the Independent Accountants incurred in connection with the resolution of disputes pursuant to this Section 1.10(c) shall be borne jointly and severally by the Company and the Stockholders unless the Final Net Working Capital determined by the Independent Accountants is greater by more than one-half of one percent (0.5%) than the Net Working Capital proposed by the Purchaser in the Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement, in which case the fees and expenses of the Independent Accountant incurred in connection with the resolution of disputes pursuant to this Section 1.10(c) shall be borne by the Purchaser.

(d) Post-Closing Net Working Capital Adjustment. In addition to the Purchase Price adjustment relating to Net Working Capital occurring at Closing pursuant to Section 1.10(b), the Purchase Price shall be further adjusted, dollar for dollar, up or down, as appropriate, by an amount (the “Net Working Capital Adjustment Amount”) equal to the Final Net Working Capital minus the Estimated Net Working Capital, which amount may be positive or negative, subject to the following sentences of this Section 1.10(d). If the Net Working Capital Adjustment Amount is a negative number, there shall be a downward Net Working Capital adjustment equal in amount to the absolute value of the Net Working Capital Adjustment Amount (a “Downward Net Working Capital Adjustment”) and such Downward Net Working Capital Adjustment shall be satisfied, within five (5) Business Days after determination of the Final Net Working Capital, as follows: (i) first, by release to the Purchaser of Net Working Capital

Escrow Funds; and (ii) second, to the extent that there are not sufficient Net Working Capital Escrow Funds in the Net Working Capital Escrow Account to satisfy such obligation in full, the Company and the Stockholders shall jointly and severally pay the unsatisfied amount to the Purchaser by wire transfer of immediately available funds. If the Net Working Capital Adjustment Amount is a positive number, there shall be an upward Net Working Capital adjustment equal in amount to the absolute value of the Net Working Capital Adjustment Amount (an “Upward Net Working Capital Adjustment”) and such Upward Net Working Capital Adjustment shall be satisfied, within five (5) Business Days after determination of the Final Net Working Capital, by payment by the Purchaser to the Company of the Upward Working Capital Adjustment amount, by wire transfer of immediately available funds. If any payment required under this Section 1.10(d) is not made in full within five (5) Business Days after determination of the Final Net Working Capital, such payment will thereafter bear simple interest at a rate equal to the prime rate in effect from time to time (as published in the Wall Street Journal) plus two (2) percentage points, until paid in full.

(e) Definitions. As used in this Section 1.10: (i) “Net Working Capital” means the Current Assets minus Current Liabilities; (ii) “Current Assets” means, solely to the extent included in the Purchased Assets, any cash in the Assumed Bank Accounts as of the Closing, short-term investments, accounts receivable, accounts receivable accrued, inventory, deposits (including lease deposits), retainers, work in process, prepaid expenses and other current assets of the Company, in each case as determined consistent with the Company’s past practices (which shall, other than as described in Section 2.4(a)(ii) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, be in accordance with GAAP) (excluding: (A) any effects from purchase accounting; and (B) any receivables from the Stockholders or any other related parties); and (iii) “Current Liabilities” means, solely to the extent included in the Assumed Liabilities, all accounts payable, accrued expenses and other current liabilities of the Company, in each case as determined consistent with the Company’s past practices (which shall, other than as described in Section 2.4(a)(ii) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, be in accordance with GAAP) (excluding: (A) any effects from purchase accounting; and (B) any Liabilities of the Company that are satisfied in full at Closing pursuant to Section 1.7).

(e) Clarification. For the avoidance of doubt, the parties agree and acknowledge that any Net Working Capital adjustment pursuant to this Section 1.10 will not preclude the Purchaser Indemnified Parties from recovering any indemnifiable Losses in accordance with Article VII arising out of any breach of the Stockholders’ representations and warranties set forth in Section 2.4, but the Purchaser shall not be entitled to recover twice for the same matter.

1.11 Bulk Sales Laws. The Company, the Stockholders and the Purchaser hereby waive, to the fullest extent allowable under applicable law, compliance with the requirements of the bulk sales or bulk transfer laws of any jurisdiction which may be applicable to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

ARTICLE II

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES CONCERNING THE COMPANY

The Company and the Stockholders each hereby jointly and severally represent and warrant to the Purchaser as follows:

2.1 Existence; Good Standing; Authority; Enforceability. The Company is a corporation duly incorporated, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Louisiana and has all required power and authority to own and operate its properties and to conduct its business, as presently conducted and presently planned by the Company to be conducted. The Company is duly licensed or qualified to do business as a foreign corporation and is in good standing in each jurisdiction listed on

Section 2.1(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, which constitute all jurisdictions in which such license or qualification is necessary under the applicable Law as a result of the conduct of the Company's Business by the Company, except where the failure to be so licensed or qualified or to be in good standing would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect. The Company has the required corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and the other documents contemplated hereby (collectively, the "Transaction Documents"), to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents by the Company, the performance by the Company of its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all required corporate action on the part of the Company (including approval by the Company's board of directors and stockholders), and no other corporate authorization or proceedings on the part of the Company (including approval by the Company's board of directors and stockholders) are required therefor. This Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which the Company is a party, have each been duly executed and delivered by the Company and, assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement and such other Transaction Documents by the Purchaser and the Stockholders (as applicable), this Agreement and, except as set forth on Section 2.1(b) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, such other Transaction Documents constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with their terms, except for the Equitable Exceptions. Correct and complete copies of the Company's Organizational Documents and minutes reflecting all meetings and consents in lieu of meetings of the Company's board of directors, any committees thereof, and the Company's stockholders have been supplied by the Company to the Purchaser. The books of account, stock records, minute books and other records of the Company are accurate, up to date and complete, and have been maintained in all material respects in accordance with prudent business practices and all applicable Laws. The Company is not in default under or in violation of any provision of its Organizational Documents or any resolution adopted by the Company's board of directors, any committee thereof, or its stockholders.

2.2 Capitalization; Subsidiaries.

All of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable, and none of them were issued in violation of any pre-emptive rights, rights of first offer or first refusal or similar rights, or in violation of the Securities Act or any other applicable securities Law. There are no outstanding options, warrants, Contracts or other rights of any kind, whether written or oral, to acquire (including securities exercisable or exchangeable for or convertible into) any shares of any class of capital stock of the Company (or securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for any such shares). There are no Contracts to which the Company or any other Person is a party with respect to: (i) voting of any shares of capital stock of the Company (including any proxy or director nomination rights); or (ii) transfer of any shares of capital stock of the Company (including any right of first refusal, drag-along, tag-along and pre-emptive rights). There are no stock option, stock incentive or other plans, programs, arrangements or Contracts (whether written or oral) providing for the issuance or grant of options to purchase or acquire shares of capital stock of the Company, restricted stock, stock appreciation rights, phantom stock or any other interest or right in respect of or concerning any capital stock of the Company. The Company has no obligation (contingent or otherwise) to purchase, redeem, retire, call or otherwise acquire any shares of its capital stock or any interest or right in respect of or concerning any capital stock of the Company.

(b) The Company does not own or control, directly or indirectly, any capital stock or other equity interest in any other Person. The Company is not a successor in interest to any other Person, whether by merger, consolidation or other business combination, reorganization, acquisition of assets or otherwise.

2.3 No Conflict; Consents and Approvals.

(a) Neither the execution, delivery and performance by the Company and the Stockholders of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which they are a party, nor the consummation by the Company and the Stockholders of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby in accordance with the provisions hereof and thereof does or will: (i) conflict with, violate or result in a breach of any of the Organizational Documents of the Company; (ii) materially violate, materially conflict with, result in a material breach of any provision of, constitute a default (or an event which, with or without the giving of notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute a default) under, result in a loss of any material right or material benefit under, require the consent of the other party or parties thereto under, result in the termination of, accelerate the performance required by, or (except as set forth in Section 2.3(b) of the Company Disclosure Schedule) result in the other party or parties thereto having a right of termination, amendment, modification, cancellation or acceleration under, any Contract to which the Company is a party or to which any of its property is subject; (iii) materially violate any Law or Order applicable to the Company or any of its assets or properties; (iv) result in the creation or imposition of any Lien upon any of the assets or properties of the Company or upon any of the shares of Company capital stock; (v) result in the vesting of, the payment of, or the creation of any obligation, whether absolute or contingent, to vest or pay, on behalf of the Company, any equity or equity-related grant, bonus, severance, termination, "golden parachute" or other similar payment (including any "double-trigger" rights), whether pursuant to a Contract or under applicable Law, with respect to any current or former employee, officer or director of the Company or any other Person; (vi) give any Governmental Entity the right to revoke, suspend, modify or terminate any Company Permit; or (vii) give any Governmental Entity or other Person the right to challenge any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) Except as set forth on Section 2.3(b) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, the execution, delivery and performance by the Company and the Stockholders of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which they are a party, and the consummation by the Company and the Stockholders of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby in accordance with the provisions hereof and thereof will not: (i) require any consent, waiver, approval, authorization, order or permit of, declaration, filing or registration with, other action by, or notification to, any Governmental Entity; or (ii) require the consent, waiver, approval, authorization, notification or action of, by or to (as applicable) any other Person pursuant to any Contract to which the Company is a party or to which any of its property is subject. The Company has, on or prior to the Closing, given all notices, made all filings and obtained all consents set forth on Schedule 1.8(a)(v).

2.4 Financial Statements; Undisclosed Liabilities; Accounts Receivable; Inventory; Financial Controls.

(a) Attached as Section 2.4(a)(i) of the Company Disclosure Schedule are correct and complete copies of: (i) the unaudited balance sheet of the Company as of December 31, 2006 and related unaudited statements of income, shareholders' equity and cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2006 (the "2006 Financial Statements"); and (ii) the unaudited balance sheet of the Company as of December 31, 2007 and the related unaudited statements of income, shareholders' equity and cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2007 (the “2007 Financial Statements” and, collectively with the 2006 Financial Statements, the “Financial Statements”). Except as set forth on Section 2.4(a)(ii) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, the Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP consistently applied throughout the periods indicated therein, have been prepared in accordance with the books and records of the Company, and present fairly, in all material respects, the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows of the Company as of the respective dates and during the respective periods indicated therein. The Company is not a party to, and it does not otherwise have any Liabilities under, any off-balance sheet arrangements.

(b) Except for: (i) Liabilities set forth on the 2007 Financial Statements; (ii) Liabilities incurred after December 31, 2007 in the ordinary course of business (none of which results from or relates to any breach of contract, breach of warranty, tort, infringement or violation of Law), which are not material, either individually or in the aggregate; and (iii) Liabilities set forth on Section 2.4(b) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, the Company has no material Liabilities.

(c) Except: (i) for trade payables incurred in the ordinary course of business and either set forth on the 2007 Financial Statements or incurred since the date of the 2007 Financial Statements (none of which results from or relates to any breach of contract, breach of warranty, tort, infringement or violation of law); and (ii) as set forth on Section 2.4(c) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, the Company has no Indebtedness.

(d) All of the Acquired Accounts Receivable: (i) represent valid obligations of customers of the Company arising from bona fide transactions entered into in the ordinary course of business; and (ii) are current and collectible in full, without any counterclaim or set off, when due (and in no event later than ninety (90) days after the Closing Date), subject to any allowance for doubtful accounts set forth in the 2007 Financial Statements. Except as set forth on Section 2.4(d)(i) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, no Person has any Lien on any of the Acquired Accounts Receivable or any part thereof, and no Contract concerning any deduction, free goods, discount or other deferred price or quantity adjustment has been made with respect to any such Acquired Accounts Receivable. Except as set forth on Section 2.4(d)(ii) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, no accounts payable of the Company have been outstanding for more than ninety (90) days.

(e) The Company has not modified the terms of, discounted, set off or accelerated the collection of any of the accounts receivable of the Company within the one (1) year period prior to the date of this Agreement. Except as set forth on Section 2.4(e) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, the Company has not delayed any of the payment terms or otherwise paid any of the accounts payable of the Company outside the ordinary course of the Company’s business consistent with past practice within the one (1) year period prior to the date of this Agreement.

(f) All of the inventory of the Company (“Inventory”) other than the Non-Conforming Inventory is of a quality and quantity usable and, with respect to finished goods, saleable in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices, subject to reserves for slow moving, obsolete or below standard quality items that have been, except as set forth on Section 2.4(a)(ii) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, established in accordance with GAAP. The aggregate value of the Inventory as reflected in the balance sheet included in the 2007 Financial Statements, as adjusted through the date of this Agreement, has been written down on the books of account of the Company to realizable market value or adequate reserves have been provided therein in accordance, except as set forth on Section 2.4(a)(ii) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, with GAAP. Section 2.4(f)(i) of the Company Disclosure Schedule lists all of the Inventory as of the Closing Date and, with respect to Inventory owned by or held for the account of a customer, identifies such customer and Inventory in reasonable detail, and specifies the location of such Inventory. Schedule 1.10(a) specifically identifies all items of Inventory that are slow moving, obsolete or of below standard quality. Except: (i) for Inventory in transit in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices; and (ii) as set forth on Section 2.4(f)(iii) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, all Inventory is located at the Company's Marrero, LA facility.

(g) The Company maintains books and records that, in all material respects, accurately and completely reflect its assets and liabilities. To the Company's Knowledge, the Company maintains internal accounting controls that are sufficient to provide reasonable assurance that: (i) transactions are executed only in accordance with management's authorization; (ii) except as set forth on Section 2.4(a)(ii) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of the financial statements of the Company in accordance with GAAP and to maintain accountability for the assets and liabilities of the Company; (iii) receipts and expenditures of the Company are executed only in accordance with management's authorization; (iv) unauthorized acquisition, disposition or use of assets is prevented or timely detected; and (v) accounts, notes and other receivables are recorded accurately, and proper and adequate procedures are implemented to effect the collection thereof on a current and timely basis. To the Company's Knowledge, except as set forth on Section 2.4(g) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, there are no weaknesses in the design or operation of such internal accounting controls that could materially adversely affect the ability of the Company to initiate, record, process and report financial data.

2.5 Absence of Certain Changes. Since December 31, 2007, there has not been any event or change in the Company's Business which has had or could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, except as set forth in Section 2.5 of the Company Disclosure Schedule, since December 31, 2007, the Company has conducted its business and affairs only in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, and the Company has not:

(a) entered into, amended, modified, waived any rights under, or terminated any Material Contract;

(b) made any capital expenditure(s) or entered into any commitment therefor that involve more than $25,000 individually or $50,000 in the aggregate;

(c) issued any capital stock of the Company or any security that is convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for any capital stock of the Company, redeemed or otherwise acquired any capital stock of the Company, declared or paid any dividend or made any distribution or payment in respect of any capital stock of the Company, split, combined or reclassified any capital stock of the Company, or amended any of its Organizational Documents;

(e) entered into, amended, modified, waived or terminated any Company Benefit Plan or entered into any collective bargaining agreement;

(f) made any loan or advance to any Person, other than: (i) the extension of trade credit to customers of the Company in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice; and (ii) advances to employees, officers and directors of the Company to cover reimbursable travel and similar business expenses in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice and not exceeding $5,000 with respect to any single Person and $10,000 in the aggregate;

(g) entered into any transaction that would be required to be disclosed under Section 2.21 (Related Party Transactions);

(h) sustained any material damage to or destruction or loss of any material property owned or used by the Company, whether or not covered by insurance, or waived or released any right of material value;

(i) incurred any Indebtedness or redeemed, retired or prepaid any Indebtedness, in each case other than trade payables incurred and paid in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice;

(j) guaranteed any obligation of any other Person;

(k) sold, encumbered or otherwise transferred any tangible or intangible assets outside the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice;

(l) made any change in the accounting methods, practices or principles used by the Company (including methods for calculating any bad debt, contingency or other reserve for accounting, financial reporting or Tax purposes), other than changes that were required by GAAP or applicable Law;

(m) acquired or agreed to acquire by merging or consolidating with, or by way of any other business combination, or by purchasing or exchanging any material portion of the capital stock, other equity interests or assets of, or by any other manner, any other Person;

(n) commenced any Proceeding against any other Person or received written notice of the commencement of any Proceeding against the Company, or settled or compromised any Proceeding; or

(o) committed or agreed to any of the foregoing.

2.6 Material Contracts. Section 2.6 of the Company Disclosure Schedule sets forth a correct and complete list of all Contracts that are material to the Company's Business, as it is presently conducted and proposed by the Company to be conducted (collectively, the "Material Contracts"). Without in any way limiting the generality of such term, the Material Contracts include:

(a) any Contract under which the Company: (i) sold or purchased products or services pursuant to which the aggregate of payments due to or from the Company, respectively, in the one (1) year period ending on the date of this Agreement, was equal to or exceeded $100,000; or (ii) anticipates selling or purchasing products or services during the one (1) year period after the date of this Agreement in which the aggregate payments due to or from the Company, respectively, for such products or services are expected to equal or exceed $100,000;

(b) any Contract with any current or former employee, officer or director of, or consultant or independent contractor to, the Company, including Contracts concerning severance and similar matters;

(c) any Contract under which the Company has agreed to indemnify any other Person or directly or indirectly guaranteed or otherwise agreed to be responsible for any Liabilities of any other Person;

(d) any Contract that contains a covenant not to compete or any other Contract limiting or restricting the ability of the Company to enter into or engage in any market or line of business, to operate in any area or territory, or to solicit or hire employees or other Persons;

(e) any Contract under which the Company is the beneficiary of any non-competition, non-solicitation or similar rights;

(f) any Contract which cannot be terminated without penalty or payment within ninety (90) days by the Company;

(g) any Contract involving or resulting in a commitment of Company to make a capital expenditure or to purchase a capital asset involving at least $25,000;

(h) any lease or similar agreement pursuant to which: (i) the Company is the lessee of, or holds or uses, any machinery, equipment, vehicle or other tangible personal property owned by any third Person for annual rent or similar payments in excess of $25,000; or (ii) the Company is the lessee of, or holds or uses, any real property owned by any third Person;

(i) any license agreement or other Contract relating to Business Intellectual Property;

(j) any Contract establishing a partnership or joint venture or other cooperative undertaking;

(k) any asset purchase agreements, stock purchase agreements, and other equity financing, acquisition or divestiture agreements and similar Contracts, including any Contracts relating to the sale, lease or disposal of any material properties or assets of the Company;

(l) any Contract relating to Indebtedness;

(m) any Contract which is not made in the ordinary course of business; and

(n) all Contracts to enter into any of the foregoing.

Each of the Material Contracts has been duly authorized and executed by the Company and, to the Company's Knowledge, the other party thereto, is in full force and effect and represents a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Company, enforceable in accordance with its terms against the Company and, to the Company's Knowledge, the other parties thereto. The Company is not in breach of, or default under, any Material Contract and, to the Company's Knowledge, no other party to any Material Contract is in breach thereof or default thereunder. No event has occurred or condition exists which, with or without the giving of notice or the lapse of time, or both, would constitute a breach or default by the Company or, to the Company's Knowledge, the other parties thereto, under any Material Contract. The Company has not received any notice alleging that it has breached or violated, or is in default under, any of the Material Contracts. Correct and complete copies of each Material Contract have been supplied by the Company to the Purchaser.

2.7 Litigation. There are no Proceedings pending or, to the Knowledge of the Company, threatened against the Company or any of its properties or any of its officers or directors (in their capacities as such) and, to the Knowledge of the Company, there are no existing facts or circumstances that could reasonably be expected to result in any such Proceeding. The Company is not currently and has never been subject to any Order. During the five (5) year period prior to the date of this Agreement, there has not been, and there are not currently, any internal investigations or inquiries conducted by or with respect to the Company or any of its employees, officers or directors, or any third-party or Governmental Entity at the request of any of the foregoing, concerning any financial, accounting, Tax, conflict of interest, self-dealing, fraudulent or deceptive conduct or other misfeasance or malfeasance issues.

2.8 Taxes.

(a) All Tax Returns required to be filed with any Governmental Entity by the Company or with respect to the Business or the Purchased Assets have been timely filed and were correct and complete in all material respects. All Taxes due and payable by the Company or with respect to the Business or the Purchased Assets (whether or not shown on any Tax Return) have been timely paid in full. The Company is not currently the beneficiary of, and has not applied for, any extension of time within which to file any Tax Return. No claim has ever been made by any Governmental Entity in a jurisdiction: (i) in which the Company does not file Tax Returns that the Company or a Stockholder (with respect to the Company) is or may be subject to Tax or required to file Tax Returns in that jurisdiction; (ii) where the Company or any Stockholder (with respect to the Company) files Tax Returns but does not compute its Tax on the basis of its net income attributable to such jurisdiction, that it is or may be subject to tax on the basis of its net income attributable to such jurisdiction; or (iii) in which the Company files Tax Returns but a Stockholder (with respect to the Company) does not file Tax Returns that such Stockholder is or may be subject to Tax or required to file Tax Returns with respect to the Company in that jurisdiction, and, to the Company's Knowledge, there is no valid basis on which a Governmental Entity could assert such a claim. To the Company's Knowledge, the Company does not conduct business in any jurisdiction in a manner that could reasonably result in a requirement to file a Tax Return in that jurisdiction of a type that the Company has not filed previously, or to pay Taxes to that jurisdiction on a basis different from the basis, if any, on which it previously paid Taxes to that jurisdiction.

(b) The Company has withheld and paid all Taxes required to have been withheld and paid by the Company in connection with any amounts paid or owing, or any income or gain allocated, to any current or former employee, independent contractor, creditor, stockholder or other Person, and has timely and properly completed and filed the Forms W-2 and 1099, Schedules K-1 (or comparable schedules under state, local or foreign Tax Law) or other Returns or reports required with respect thereto.

(c) No dispute concerning any Tax Liability of the Company or with respect to the Business or the Purchased Assets is pending or, to the Company's Knowledge, threatened. With respect to Taxes for which the statute of limitations remains open, the Company has not received from any Governmental Entity: (i) any notice indicating an intent to open a Tax audit or other review; (ii) any request for information related to Tax matters; or (iii) any notice of deficiency or proposed adjustment for any amount of Tax proposed, asserted or assessed against the Company or with respect to the Business or the assets or properties of the Company. The Company has not waived any statute of limitations in respect of Taxes or agreed to any extension of time with respect to a Tax assessment or deficiency of a Tax.

(d) The Company has supplied to the Purchaser: (i) a complete and correct list of all Tax Returns filed with respect to the Company for Taxable periods for which the statute of limitations remains open, indicating any of such Tax Returns that have been audited or are currently being audited; and (ii) complete and accurate copies of all material Tax Returns of the Company, and of all examination reports and statements of deficiencies payable by, assessed against or agreed to by the Company with respect to such Tax Returns, for all Tax periods as to which the statute of limitations remains open.

(e) The Company has never obtained from a Governmental Entity any ruling with respect to Taxes. There is no pending request by the Company for a ruling by a Governmental Entity with respect to Taxes.

(f) The Company has no Liability for the Taxes of any other Person, whether as a transferee or successor, under any provision of any Law, by Contract or otherwise.

(g) None of the Assumed Liabilities, individually or in the aggregate, could obligate the Company to make a payment that would not be deductible by reason of Code section 280G or would be subject to Code section 4999.

(h) There are no Liens on any of the Company's assets that arose in connection with any failure (or alleged failure) to pay any Tax.

(i) No Company Benefit Plan is, and the Company is not otherwise party to any Contract or other plan or arrangement that is, a "nonqualified deferred compensation plan" subject to Code section 409A. The Company has no actual or potential Liability to reimburse or otherwise "gross-up" any Person for any interest or additional tax imposed pursuant to Code section 409A(a)(1)(B).

2.9 Employee Benefit Plans.

(a) Correct and complete copies of all documents comprising Company Benefit Plans, including all plan documents, trusts and summary plan descriptions, as applicable, and the most recent annual report on IRS Form 5500, if applicable, have been supplied by the Company to the Purchaser and are listed in Section 2.9(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule.

(b) All Company Benefit Plans are valid and binding and in full force and effect and there are no material defaults thereunder. Each Company Benefit Plan complies in all material respects with all applicable provisions of ERISA, the Code and other applicable Law. (b) The Purchaser has all required corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which the Purchaser is a party, to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. The execution and delivery by the Purchaser of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which the Purchaser is a party, the performance by the Purchaser of its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all required corporate action on the part of the Purchaser, and no other corporate authorization or proceedings on the part of the Purchaser are required therefor.

(c) This Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which the Purchaser is a party have each been duly executed and delivered by the Purchaser and, assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement and such other Transaction Documents by the Company and the Stockholders (as applicable), constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of the Purchaser, enforceable against the Purchaser in accordance with their terms, except for the Equitable Exceptions.

4.2 No Conflict; Consents and Approvals.

(a) Neither the execution, delivery and performance by the Purchaser of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which the Purchaser is a party, nor the consummation by the Purchaser of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby in accordance with the provisions hereof and thereof does or will: (i) conflict with, violate or result in a breach of any of the Organizational Documents of the Purchaser; (ii) violate, conflict with, result in a breach of any provision of, constitute a default (or an event which, with or without the giving of notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute a default) under, result in a loss of any material right or material benefit under, result in the termination of, accelerate the performance required by, require the consent of the other party or parties thereto under, or result in the other party or parties thereto having a right of termination, amendment, modification, cancellation or acceleration under, any Contract to which the Purchaser is a party or to which any of its property is subject; (iii) violate any Law or Order applicable to the Purchaser or any of its assets or properties; (iv) result in the creation or imposition of any Lien upon any of the assets or properties of the Purchaser; or (v) give any Governmental Entity or other Person the right to challenge any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, except, in each case, as would not, either individually or in the aggregate, adversely affect the ability of the Purchaser to perform its obligations under this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which the Purchaser is a party and consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby.

(b) The execution, delivery and performance by the Purchaser of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which the Purchaser is a party, and the consummation by the Purchaser of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby in accordance with the provisions hereof and thereof will not: (i) require any consent, waiver, approval, authorization, order or permit of, declaration, filing or registration with, other action by, or notification to, any Governmental Entity; or (ii) require the consent, waiver, approval, authorization, notification or action of, by or to (as applicable) any other Person pursuant to any Contract to which the Purchaser is a party or to which any of its property or assets are subject that have not been obtained or made by the Purchaser on or prior to the Closing, except where failure to obtain such consent, waiver, approval, authorization, order, permit or action, or to make such declaration, filing, registration or notification, would not, either individually or in the aggregate, adversely affect the ability of the Purchaser to perform its obligations under this Agreement or the other Transaction Documents to which the Purchaser is a party or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby.

4.3 Brokers. The Purchaser is not party to any Contract pursuant to which any broker, finder, investment banker or other Person is or will become entitled to any brokerage, finder's or other fee or commission in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby for which the Company or either of the Stockholders may become liable.

ARTICLE V COVENANTS

5.1 Confidentiality. Prior to the Closing, the Purchaser and the Stockholders shall mutually agree on a joint initial press release concerning this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, which shall be disseminated at such time and in such manner as is agreed upon by the Purchaser and the Stockholders. After such initial press release is disseminated, each party may issue further press releases and similar announcements without the consent of the other parties, provided that each such press release or similar announcement contains, with respect to information concerning this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, solely the information that is contained in such initial press release. Except as provided above in this Section 5.1, the parties will, and will cause each of their respective officers, directors, employee, agents and representatives to, maintain this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents in confidence, keeping the existence hereof and thereof and all terms and conditions set forth herein and therein confidential, and will not, and will cause each of their respective officers, directors, employee, agents and representatives to not, issue or cause the publication of any press release or other public announcement with respect to this Agreement, the other Transaction Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby without the prior consent of the Purchaser and the Stockholders; provided, however, that the Purchaser, the Company and the Stockholders may make such disclosures concerning this Agreement, the other Transaction Documents and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby as are required under applicable Law and securities exchange listing requirements, in each case as long as the disclosing party: (a) provides reasonable advance notice of such requirement to the non-disclosing parties so that the non-disclosing parties may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy; (b) reasonably cooperates with the non-disclosing party to obtain an appropriate protective order or other reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded to such information, and (c) discloses only such information as the disclosing party is advised by legal counsel that such disclosing party is legally required to disclose.

5.2 Non-Competition, Non-Solicitation, Non-Disparagement and Confidentiality. In consideration of the Purchase Price being paid by the Purchaser to the Company pursuant to this Agreement (which each Stockholder agrees and acknowledges constitutes adequate and sufficient consideration), each Stockholder covenants and agrees as follows:

(a) Non-Competition. Such Stockholder will not, at any time during the two (2) year period after the Closing, directly or indirectly, own, operate, manage, control, participate in, be employed by, consult with, advise or engage in services for any Person engaged in a Relevant Business; provided, however, that this Section 5.2(a) shall not prohibit any Stockholder from: (i) being a passive owner of not more than one percent (1%) of the outstanding capital stock of a Person which is publicly-traded, as long as the Stockholder has no active participation in such Person's business; (ii) owning the RG Parent units being purchased by such Stockholder pursuant to the Subscription Agreement; or (iii) taking actions in connection with the sale of Non-Conforming Inventory Items pursuant to Section 5.12, as long as such actions do not conflict with such Stockholder's obligations to the Purchaser, with it being agreed and acknowledged that sale of Purchaser items shall have priority over sale of Non-Conforming Inventory Items;

(b) Non-Solicitation. Such Stockholder will not, at any time during the two (2) year period after the Closing, directly or indirectly: (i) induce or attempt to induce any Person who is a director, officer, employee or consultant of the Business division of the Purchaser to leave the employ of or terminate or breach their respective Contracts or relationships with the Purchaser, or in any other way deliberately interfere with the relationship between the Purchaser and any such Person; (ii) solicit the employment of, or hire or otherwise engage, any Person who is or was a director, officer, employee or consultant of the Business division of the Purchaser within the six (6) month period preceding such solicitation, hire or engagement; or (iii) induce or attempt to induce any customer, supplier, distributor or other business relation of or to the Business division of the Purchaser or any other division of the Purchaser engaged in a Relevant Business, to cease doing business with the Purchaser, to reduce or otherwise adversely change its business with the Purchaser, or in any other way deliberately interfere with the relationship between the Purchaser and any such customer, supplier, distributor or other business relation; provided, however, that no general advertisement or general solicitation not targeted to the Purchaser's directors, officers, employees or consultants shall be deemed to be a solicitation thereof in violation of Section 5.2(b)(ii).

(c) Non Disparagement. Except as required in connection with any legal dispute between the parties or by Order or Governmental Entity with jurisdiction, such Stockholder will not, at any time after the Closing, directly or indirectly make any written or oral statement concerning the Purchaser, any of the Purchaser Affiliates, Credit Suisse, DLJ Merchant Banking Partners, the Business or any of the current or former directors, officers, stockholders and employees of the Purchaser, any of the Purchaser Affiliates, Credit Suisse, DLJ Merchant Banking Partners, or the Business that is reasonably likely to be harmful to the Purchaser, such Purchaser Affiliate, Credit Suisse, DLJ Merchant Banking Partners, the Business or the business or personal reputation of any such person.

(d) Confidentiality. Except and solely to the extent otherwise required by applicable Law or legal process, such Stockholder will not, at any time after the Closing, disclose to any Person or use for any purpose other than exercising his rights and performing his obligations under this Agreement, any Business Confidential Information.

(e) Relevant Business Definition. For purposes of this Section 5.2, the term "Relevant Business" means the manufacturing, distribution or sales of tubular products designed to carry fluids (including hydraulics), gasses (including pneumatics) or electrical media (including wire and fiber optics) in: (i) any of the parishes in the State of Louisiana listed in Section 5.2 of the Company Disclosure Schedule; (ii) any of the other states in the United States of America; and (iii) all non-United States jurisdictions.

Each Stockholder agrees and acknowledges that the covenants of such Stockholder set forth in this Section 5.2: (x) are reasonable in geographic and temporal scope and in all other respects; (y) are fair to such Stockholder in all respects, there is no disparity in the bargaining power of such Stockholder, on the one hand, and the Purchaser, on the other hand, and the Purchaser does not have control over such Stockholder; and (z) have been made in order to induce the Purchaser to enter into this Agreement and consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and the Purchaser would not have entered into this Agreement or consummated the transactions contemplated hereby, but for the covenants of such Stockholder contained in this Section 5.2. If, at any time of enforcement of any of the provisions of this Section 5.2, a court determines that the duration, scope or area restrictions stated herein are not enforceable under applicable Law, the parties agree that the maximum duration, scope or area (as applicable) permitted by applicable Law shall be substituted for the duration, area or scope (as applicable) stated herein and the court shall be authorized by the parties to revise the restrictions contained herein to cover such maximum duration, area or scope (as applicable).

5.3 Employee Matters.

(a) Effective as of the Closing, each of the employees of the Company set forth on Schedule 5.3(a)(i) (the "Offered Employees") shall cease to be employees of the Company. Except as set forth on Schedule 5.3(a)(ii), the Purchaser shall, prior to the Closing, offer employment, effective and conditioned upon occurrence of the Closing, to each of the Offered Employees: (i) at the same salary or wage rates as were provided by the Company to the Offered Employees as of immediately prior to the Closing; and (ii) with employee benefit levels that are, in the aggregate, substantially similar to the employee benefit levels that were provided by the Company to the Offered Employees as of immediately prior to the Closing; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to any equity or equity related plans of the Purchaser or any of its Affiliates.

(b) The Purchaser shall cause all Offered Employees that accept the Purchaser's offer of employment ("Hired Employees") to either: (i) continue to be covered by the applicable Assumed Company Benefit Plans; or (ii) be transitioned to employee benefits plans of the Purchaser (subject to the terms and conditions of such Purchaser employee benefit plans), as determined by the Purchaser in its sole discretion. The Company shall (and the Stockholders shall cause the Company to) terminate the active participation of the Offered Employees in the Company Benefit Plans (other than the Assumed Company Benefit Plans) in compliance with applicable Law and the terms and conditions of such Company Benefit Plans, the costs and expenses of which shall be borne solely by the Company and the Stockholders and constitute Excluded Liabilities hereunder.

(c) Nothing in this Section 5.3 shall entitle any Hired Employee to remain in the employment of the Purchaser, affect the right of the Purchaser to terminate the employment of any Hired Employee at any time, or affect the right of the Purchaser to establish, modify or terminate any of the Assumed Company Benefit Plans or any of Purchaser's employee benefit plans applicable to any Hired Employee at any time. This Section 5.3 shall operate exclusively for the benefit of the Purchaser, the Company and the Stockholders and not for the benefit of any other Person, including any of the Offered Employees, any of the Hired Employees or any other employee, consultant, former employee or independent contractor who performs or has performed services in connection with the operation of the Company's Business, which Persons shall have no rights under this Agreement.

5.4 Treatment of Non-Assigned Assets. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement but without limiting any of the Purchaser's rights in respect of Section 2.3, to the extent that the assignment or transfer of any of the Purchased Assets to the Purchaser hereunder is prohibited by any applicable Law or would require any consent or approval under such Purchased Asset that, on or prior to the Closing Date, has not been obtained, as the case may be, this Agreement shall not constitute an assignment or transfer thereof if assignment or transfer thereof would constitute a violation or breach of applicable Law or the terms and conditions of such Purchased Asset. From and after the Closing: (a) the Company shall, and the Stockholders shall cause the Company to, at the sole expense of the Stockholders, use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with such applicable Law or to obtain such consents or approvals (as applicable) in as expedient a manner as is reasonable possible; and (b) once any such applicable Law is complied with or if any such consent or approval is obtained, the Company shall, and the Stockholders shall cause the Company to, at the sole expense of the Stockholders, assign or transfer the applicable Purchased Asset to the Purchaser. While any such compliance, consent or approval is pending, the Stockholders shall provide regular (and in any event not less frequently than monthly) written updates to the Purchaser describing in reasonable detail the status of the compliance, consent or approval process and, at the Purchaser's option, will cause the Company to cooperate with the Purchaser in any reasonable arrangement designed to provide the Purchaser with all of the benefits of, and to have the Purchaser assume the burdens, liabilities, obligations and expenses under (except to the extent that any such burdens, liabilities, obligations and expenses constitute Excluded Liabilities), the applicable Purchased Assets.

5.5 Dissolution of the Company. While there are any outstanding affirmative obligations of the Company under this Agreement, the Company shall not dissolve and the Stockholders shall cause the Company to not be dissolved without the prior written consent of the Purchaser.

5.6 Maintenance of Records. For a period of at least seven (7) years after the Closing Date, the Purchaser shall, and the Stockholders shall, and shall cause the Company to, each maintain their respective books and records in existence as of the Closing Date relating to the Purchased Assets and the Business. From and after the Closing Date, upon reasonable written notice, the Purchaser, the Company and the Stockholders shall each furnish to the other and their respective representatives, employees, counsel and accountants access, during normal business hours and upon reasonable advance notice, such books and records relating to periods prior to the Closing Date, and shall permit such Persons to examine and copy, at the sole cost and expense of the party providing access, such books and records to the extent reasonably requested by the other party as is reasonably necessary for financial reporting, accounting and tax matters, the preparation and filing of any returns, reports or forms or the defense of any claim or assessment. The parties agree to cooperate so that such access does not unreasonably disrupt the normal operations of the Purchaser, the Company or the Stockholders, as applicable. The party providing information and access under this Section 5.6 (the “Providing Party”) may condition its obligations under this Section 5.6 on receipt by the Providing Party from the party requesting information and access under this Section 5.6 (the “Receiving Party”) of an agreement containing reasonable restrictions on the use and disclosure by the Receiving Party of information learned or provided as a result of such provision of information and access.

5.7 Removal of Excluded Assets. The Stockholders shall, and shall cause the Company to, remove all Excluded Assets from the Company’s facilities promptly upon request by the Purchaser. Such removal shall be done in such manner as to avoid any damage to any such facilities and any disruption of the business operations to be conducted by the Purchaser after the Closing. If the Stockholders fail to cause the Excluded Assets to be removed from the Company’s facilities as required by this Section 5.7, the Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to: (a) remove the Excluded Assets, at the Stockholders’ sole cost and expense, from the Company’s facilities; (b) store the Excluded Assets and to charge the Stockholders all storage costs associated therewith; and (c) exercise any other right or remedy conferred by this Agreement or otherwise available at law or in equity relating to such failure. The Stockholders shall promptly reimburse the Purchaser for all costs and expenses incurred by the Purchaser in connection with any Excluded Assets not removed or caused to be removed by the Stockholders as required under this Section 5.7.

5.8 Power of Attorney; Right of Endorsement. Effective as of the Closing, the Company hereby constitutes and appoints the Purchaser and its successors and assigns the true and lawful attorney of the Company with full power of substitution, in the name of Purchaser or the name of the Company: (a) to endorse for the Company, without recourse (as such concept is contemplated for Uniform Commercial Code purposes), any and all checks, notes and other instruments in connection with the Business or attributable to the Purchased Assets; (b) to negotiate, execute and deliver consents and approvals for the transfer of Purchased Assets requiring such consents and approvals, but which consents and approvals have not been obtained as of the Closing; and (c) to institute and prosecute all Proceedings which the Purchaser may deem proper in order to collect, assert or enforce any claim, right or title in or to the Purchased Assets in favor of the Purchaser. The Company agrees that the foregoing powers are coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable by the Company directly or indirectly by the dissolution of the Company or in any other manner. Nothing in this Section 5.8 is intended to, nor shall this Section 5.8 be interpreted to, modify the respective rights, powers and obligations of the Purchaser, the Company and the Stockholders under any of the other provisions of this Agreement.

5.9 Acquired Accounts Receivable. During the one (1) year period after the Closing Date, the Purchaser shall use commercially reasonable efforts to collect the Acquired Accounts Receivable. As soon as reasonably practicable after the date that is one hundred eighty (180) days after the Closing Date (the “A/R Collections Measurement Date”), the Purchaser shall prepare and supply to the Company and the Stockholders a reasonably detailed summary of the collections status of the Acquired Accounts

Receivable as of the A/R Collections Measurement Date (the “A/R Collections Summary”), which shall specify the amount (if any) by which: (a) the aggregate face amount of the Acquired Accounts Receivable set forth in the Final Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement; exceeds (b) the aggregate amount that was actually collected by the Purchaser with respect to the Acquired Accounts Receivable as of the A/R Collections Measurement Date, less any reserves for doubtful accounts concerning such Acquired Accounts Receivable set forth on the Final Post-Closing Net Working Capital Statement (any such excess amount, the “A/R Settlement Amount”). Any A/R Settlement Amount shall be paid, at the election of the Purchaser, either by wire transfer to the Purchaser by the Company and the Stockholders (jointly and severally) or by release to the Purchaser of Indemnity Escrow Funds from the Indemnity Escrow Account, in each case within five (5) Business Days after receipt by the Company and the Stockholders of the A/R Collections Summary. If, at any time after the A/R Settlement Amount is paid to the Purchaser by the Company or the Stockholders, the Purchaser receives cash payment for any of the Acquired Accounts Receivable with respect to which the A/R Settlement Amount was paid, the Purchaser shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after receipt, pay over such amount to the Company, by check or wire transfer of immediately available funds. For purposes of this Section 5.9, if more than one invoice is outstanding for a customer, the “first in, first out” principle will be applied in determining the invoice to which a payment received by the Purchaser from that customer relates unless: (a) the payment by its terms specifies or clearly indicates the invoice to which it relates (in which case it will be applied as specified or indicated); or (b) an invoice is being disputed by the account debtor (in which case it will be applied to the non-disputed invoice(s) of that account debtor). Any A/R Settlement Amount payment made pursuant to this Section 5.9 shall be treated as a reduction in the Purchase Price paid by the Purchaser for the Purchased Assets, unless otherwise required by applicable Law.

5.10 Transition Assistance. From and after the Closing: (a) the Company shall, and the Stockholders shall cause to the Company to, promptly forward to the Purchaser copies of any communications or other information received by Company or the Stockholders in respect of any Purchased Assets (including the Acquired Accounts Receivable) or Assumed Liabilities (including the Assumed Accounts Payable and other Current Liabilities); (b) any amounts received by the Company or the Stockholders in respect of any Purchased Assets (including the Acquired Accounts Receivable) shall be held in trust for the Purchaser and be promptly (and in any event within five (5) Business Days after receipt) paid over by the Company or the Stockholders, as applicable, to the Purchaser; (c) the Company shall, and the Stockholders shall cause the Company to, as soon as reasonably practicable after receipt, forward to the Purchaser any telephone calls, orders, notices, requests, inquiries and other communications relating to the Business that the Company or the Stockholders receive; and (d) the Company shall, and the Stockholders shall cause the Company to, otherwise cooperate in an orderly transfer of the Business to the Purchaser.

5.11 Additional Named Insured. For a two (2) year period after the Closing Date, the Purchaser shall cause the Company to be included as an additional named insured on the liability insurance policies of the Purchaser with respect to the Business, which shall include coverage for any products liability or completed operations occurring after the Closing.

5.12 Non-Conforming Inventory Payments. If, at any time after the Closing, the Company obtains any buyer(s) for any of the Non-Conforming Inventory Items (each, an “Ultimate Buyer”), the Company shall sell such Non-Conforming Inventory Item(s) to the Purchaser for an amount equal to the price to be paid by the Ultimate Buyer, and the Purchaser shall sell such items to the Ultimate Buyer. The Purchaser shall, promptly after its receipt thereof, remit to the Company the cash proceeds of such sale, less the amount of any costs and expenses reasonably incurred by the Purchaser in connection with such sale.

5.13 Advisor Expenses and Bonus Payments. The Company shall (and the Stockholders shall cause the Company to), within thirty (30) days after the Closing, satisfy in full out of the Remaining Purchase Price Amount any and all Liabilities of the Company or the Stockholders: (a) to the legal counsel, accountants and other professional advisors to the Company and the Sellers as of the Closing; and (b) to any employees, officers and directors of the Company that are entitled to receive bonuses or other payments from the Company in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement

If any Purchaser Indemnified Party or Stockholder Indemnified Party, as applicable (the “Indemnified Party”), learns of any matter that it believes will entitle the Indemnified Party to indemnification from the other party (the “Indemnifying Party”) under this Article VII, the Indemnified Party shall provide to Indemnifying Party notice describing the matter in reasonable detail, including the nature of the claim, the basis for the indemnification obligation, to the extent reasonably estimable, the estimated Losses resulting therefrom, and reasonable supporting documentation (a “Notice of Claim”). The Indemnifying Party shall have ten (10) Business Days after its receipt of the Notice of Claim to respond to the claim(s) described therein in a written notice to the Indemnified Party (a “Dispute Notice”) setting forth, in reasonable detail, the Indemnifying Party’s objection(s) to the claim(s), its bases for such objection(s) and reasonable documentation supporting its objection(s). If the Indemnifying Party fails to provide a Dispute Notice with such time period, the Indemnifying Party will be deemed to have conceded the claim(s) set forth in the Notice of Claim. If the Indemnifying Party provides a Dispute Notice within such time period, the Indemnified Party and the Indemnifying Party shall negotiate in good faith resolution of the disputed claim(s) for a period of not less than twenty (20) Business Days after the response is provided. If the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party are unable to resolve any such claim(s) within such time period, the Indemnified Party shall be entitled to pursue any legal remedies available to the Indemnified Party against the Indemnifying Party with respect to the unresolved claim(s), subject to Stockholder Indemnity Deductible, the Stockholder Indemnity Cap, the Purchaser Indemnity Deductible, the Purchaser Indemnity Cap and the other provisions of this Article VII, in each case to the extent applicable.

7.5 Third Party Claims.

(a) Notice. With respect to any matter for which an Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification from an Indemnifying Party under this Article VII that relates to a Claim or Proceeding by a third party (a “Third Party Claim”), the Indemnified Party shall promptly provide to the Indemnifying Party a Notice of Claim relating to such Third Party Claim. The Indemnifying Party shall not be required to provide indemnification under this Article VII with respect to a Third Party Claim solely to the extent that the Indemnified Party’s failure to provide or delay in providing a Notice of Claim materially prejudices the Indemnifying Party’s ability to contest or resolve the matters underlying such Third Party Claim.

(b) Assumption of the Defense. The Indemnifying Party shall have thirty (30) days after receipt from the Indemnified Party of the Notice of Claim for a Third Party Claim to provide notice to the Indemnified Party of its election to assume, using legal counsel selected by it and reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party, the defense of the Third Party Claim at its own expense; provided, however, that if the Indemnifying Party’s assumption of the defense of any Third Party Claim would result in a conflict of interest arising out of the joint representation by legal counsel selected by the Indemnifying Party of the interests of both the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party, the Indemnifying Party shall be entitled to engage separate legal counsel to represent the Indemnified Party (at the Indemnifying Party's sole cost and expense) and, if the Indemnifying Party fails to do so during the thirty (30) day period referred to above, the Indemnifying Party shall not be entitled to assume the Indemnified Party's defense of such Third Party Claim. An Indemnifying Party's election to assume the defense of any Third Party Claim shall constitute an irrevocable admission that any Losses resulting therefrom are indemnifiable Losses for which the Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification from the Indemnifying Party under this Article VII. Notwithstanding the above, any subsequent material amendment or expansion of a Third Party Claim by the claimant in the Third Party Claim shall be deemed and treated as a separate Third Party Claim under this Section 7.5. If the Indemnifying Party assumes the defense of a Third Party Claim, it shall thereafter promptly inform the Indemnified Party of all material developments related thereto and copy the Indemnified Party on all pleadings, filings and other correspondence relating thereto. With respect to any Third Party Claim for which the Indemnifying Party has assumed the defense in accordance with this Section 7.5(b): (i) the Indemnified Party shall have the right, but not the obligation, to participate in the defense of such Third Party Claim through legal counsel selected by it, but the costs and expenses of such legal counsel shall be borne solely by the Indemnified Party; and (ii) the Indemnified Party shall, during normal business hours and upon reasonable advance notice, at the cost and expense of the Indemnifying Party, cooperate in all reasonable ways with, make its relevant files and records reasonably available for inspection and copying by, make its employees reasonably available to, and otherwise render reasonable assistance to, the Indemnifying Party in connection with the Third Party Claim.

(c) Defense of Third Party Claim by the Indemnified Party. If the Indemnified Party does not receive notice from the Indemnifying Party in which it elects to assume the defense of a Third Party Claim within the thirty (30) day time period set forth in Section 7.5(b) or if, at any time after the Indemnifying Party has assumed the defense of a Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party fails to perform or unreasonably delays in performing its obligations to assume or pursue the defense of any such Third Party Claim, the Indemnified Party shall be entitled to fully assume, commence and pursue its defense of such Third Party Claim and shall thereafter promptly inform the Indemnifying Party of all material developments related thereto and copy the Indemnifying Party on all pleadings, filings and other correspondence relating thereto.

(d) Settlement. If the Indemnifying Party (having assumed the defense of a Third Party Claim in accordance with Section 7.5(b)) or the Indemnified Party (having proceeded with its own defense of a Third Party Claim in accordance with Section 7.5(c)) proposes to settle or compromise such Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party or the Indemnified Party (as applicable) shall provide notice to that effect (together with a statement describing in reasonable detail the terms and conditions of such settlement or compromise and including a copy of the settlement agreement) to the Indemnified Party or the Indemnifying Party (as applicable), which shall be provided a reasonable time prior to the proposed time for effecting such settlement or compromise, and the Indemnifying Party or the Indemnified Party (as applicable) may not effect any such settlement or compromise without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party or the Indemnifying Party, such consent to not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned.

7.6 Method of Satisfaction of Indemnification Claim Amounts.

(a) Satisfaction of Purchaser Indemnification Claim Amounts. Any amount that is required to be paid to one or more Purchaser Indemnified Parties under this Article VII (a "Stockholder Indemnification Payment Amount"):

(i) by the Company or any of the Stockholders under Section 7.2(a), shall be satisfied: (A) first, by collection by the Purchaser of proceeds from any insurance policies providing coverage with respect to the matter(s) that are the subject of the related indemnification claim, solely to the extent that the applicable insurance carrier: (1) does not deny coverage under such insurance policies with respect to such matter(s), and (2) actually pays such insurance proceeds to the Purchaser within forty-five (45) days after the claim is made (the parties agreeing and acknowledging that the Stockholders shall be responsible for the amount of any costs and expenses reasonably incurred by the Purchaser in connection with making such insurance claim(s)) (“Collectible Insurance”); (B) second, by transfer to the Purchaser of any Indemnity Escrow Funds that are then in the Indemnity Escrow Account; and (C) third, to the extent that there are not then sufficient Indemnity Escrow Funds in the Indemnity Escrow Account to satisfy such full Stockholder Indemnification Payment Amount, by wire transfer of immediately available funds of the unsatisfied part of the Stockholder Indemnification Payment Amount by the Company and the Stockholders, jointly and severally, to the Purchaser’s account, which, in the case of the foregoing clauses (B) and (C), shall be effected not later than five (5) Business Days after determination of the Stockholder Indemnification Payment Amount pursuant to this Article VII; and

(ii) by an individual Stockholder under Section 7.2(b), shall be satisfied: (A) first, by transfer to the Purchaser of any Indemnity Escrow Funds that are then in the Indemnity Escrow Account; and (B) second, to the extent that there are not then sufficient Indemnity Escrow Funds in the Indemnity Escrow Account to satisfy such full Stockholder Indemnification Payment Amount, by wire transfer of immediately available funds of the unsatisfied part of the Stockholder Indemnification Payment Amount by the applicable Stockholder to the Purchaser’s account, which shall be effected not later than five (5) Business Days after determination of the Stockholder Indemnification Payment Amount pursuant to this Article VII.

(b) Satisfaction of Stockholders’ Indemnification Claim Amounts. Any amounts that are required to be paid by the Purchaser to one or more Stockholder Indemnified Parties under this Article VII (each, a “Purchaser Indemnification Payment Amount”) shall be satisfied in cash, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the Company’s account, which shall be effected not later than five (5) Business Days after determination of the Purchaser Indemnification Payment Amount pursuant to this Article VII.

7.7 Materiality and Material Adverse Effect Qualifiers. All materiality qualifications contained in the representations and warranties of the parties set forth in this Agreement (however they may be phrased and including the term “Material Adverse Effect”) shall be taken into account for purposes of this Article VII solely for purposes of determining whether a breach of such representation and warranty has occurred and, if such breach has occurred, all such materiality qualifications shall be ignored and not given any effect for purposes of determining the amount of Losses arising out of or relating to such breach of such representation and warranty under this Article VII.

7.8 Recovery from Third Parties. In the event that an Indemnifying Party makes a payment under this Article VII to an Indemnified Party with respect to a Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party shall be entitled (but not be required) to seek contribution or indemnity from any applicable third parties (other than Purchaser Indemnified Parties or Stockholder Indemnified Parties) with respect to the amount paid by the Indemnifying Party to the Indemnified Party; provided, however, that the parties agree and acknowledge that no Purchaser Indemnified Party shall be required to delay or forego making any indemnification claim hereunder or receiving any Indemnity Escrow Funds or any cash payment directly from the Company or the Stockholders, and neither the Company nor any of the Stockholders shall delay or fail to authorize release of Indemnity Escrow Funds to the Purchaser or make any such payment, in each case pending the results of any contribution or indemnity claim. In the event that an Indemnified Party receives a payment under this Article VII from an Indemnifying Party with respect to an indemnification claim and the Indemnified Party subsequently receives a payment from a third party (including an insurance carrier) that is clearly identifiable as being compensation for the matters underlying such indemnification claim (a “Third Party Payment”), then the Indemnified Party shall promptly pay to the Indemnifying Party the lesser of: (a) the amount of the Third Party Payment (less the amount of any costs and expenses reasonably incurred by the Indemnified Party in connection with obtaining such Third Party Payment, to the extent not already paid by the Indemnifying Party); or (b) the amount paid by the Indemnifying Party to the Indemnified Party with respect to such indemnification claim. The parties agree and acknowledge that this Section 7.8 shall not constitute a release of any claims or rights of contribution or indemnity against any of the Purchaser Indemnified Parties.

7.9 Insurance.

(a) Each Indemnified Party shall be required to use commercially reasonable efforts to pursue reasonable claims with respect to any matters underlying an indemnification claim being made hereunder by such Indemnified Party against an Indemnifying Party under any insurance policies of such Indemnified Party for which there is a reasonable basis for asserting coverage with respect to such matters, which shall be at the sole cost and expense of the Indemnifying Party. If the Indemnified Party is required to incur any attorneys’ fees or other costs or expenses in connection with its pursuit of any such insurance claim, the Indemnifying Party shall advance to the Indemnified Party, in cash as incurred, the full amount of such costs and expenses as a condition precedent to the Indemnified Party’s obligation under this Section 7.9(a) to commence or continue such insurance claim. No Indemnified Party shall have any Liability to any Indemnifying Party arising out of or relating to any insurance proceeds not having been obtained from any insurance carrier in connection with any insurance claim made by such Indemnified Party under this Section 7.9(a) as long as such Indemnified Party complied with its obligations under this Section 7.9(a) with respect to such insurance claim. As long as a Purchaser Indemnified Party has complied with its obligations under this Section 7.9(a) and acted in a commercially reasonable manner in connection with pursuing any insurance claim pursuant to this Section 7.9(a), any out-of-pocket damages, fees, expenses and other losses incurred by such Purchaser Indemnified Party in connection with its pursuit of such insurance claim shall constitute Excluded Liabilities hereunder.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Article VII: (a) no Purchaser Indemnified Party shall be obligated take any action with respect to insurance coverage that may apply to matter(s) underlying an indemnification claim (other than with respect to Collectible Insurance as described in Section 7.6(a) and as provided in Section 7.9(a)); and (b) no Purchaser Indemnified Party shall be required to delay or forego making any indemnification claim hereunder or receiving Indemnity Escrow Funds or cash payment directly from the Stockholders, and the Stockholders shall not delay or fail to authorize release of Indemnity Escrow Funds to the Purchaser or make any such payment, in each case pending the results of any insurance claim.

7.10 Knowledge and Investigation. No information or knowledge acquired, or investigations conducted, by any Indemnified Party or any of its representatives shall in any way limit, constitute a waiver of, or a defense to, any right of such Indemnified Party to receive indemnification pursuant to this Article VII from the applicable Indemnifying Party with respect to any of the representations and warranties of the Indemnifying Party set forth in this Agreement, unless the applicable Indemnified Party had actual knowledge, on or prior to the Closing Date, that the applicable representation and warranty of the Indemnifying Party was incorrect and fraudulently withheld such actual knowledge from such Indemnifying Party on or prior to the Closing Date. No information or knowledge acquired, or investigations conducted, by any Purchaser Indemnified Party or any of its representatives shall in any way limit, constitute a waiver of, or a defense to, any right of such Purchaser Indemnified Party to receive indemnification pursuant to this Article VII from the Stockholders with respect to any Excluded

Liabilities. Nothing in this Section 7.10 shall constitute a waiver by any party of any Losses with respect to any fraud committed by any other party or parties.

7.11 Tax Treatment of Stockholder Indemnification Payments. Any indemnification payments made by the Company or the Stockholders pursuant to this Article VII shall be treated for all Tax purposes as adjustments to the amount paid by the Purchaser for the Purchased Assets, unless otherwise required by applicable Law .

Therefore, the rights and obligations of the parties shall be enforceable by a decree of specific performance issued by any court of competent jurisdiction, and appropriate injunctive relief may be applied for and shall be granted in connection therewith, without the necessity of posting a bond or other security or proving irreparable harm and without regard to the adequacy of any remedy at law.
