Results of Operations, page 22

1. You present a tabular presentation of your net sales by product type but didn't provide a corresponding discussion of the underlying reasons for the change in sales period over period by product type. Your current discussion quantifies percentage changes period over period but provides little insight into underlying reasons driving such changes. In future filings please provide an analysis that not only quantifies the changes period over period, but clearly provides a robust discussion of the underlying reasons driving such changes. Refer to Section 501.05 and 04 of the Financial Reporting Codification for Guidance.
