Related party transactions

The Company has from time to time borrowed money from its founder and CEO, Marcus Laun. At the current time that loan to the Company stands at $2800. Mr. Laun has also been accruing a salary of $100,000 annually. When the cashflow of the Company hasn't been sufficient to cover that salary - the unpaid portion has been accrued as accrued compensation. Funds from this capital raise are not intended to be used for the purpose of repaying this obligation. Further, Mr. Laun does not intend on collecting this compensation until the Company is more established financially, (i.e. there is no repayment schedule). If the Company is unable to pay Mr. Laun's compensation in a timely manner, the accrual would increase based on the unpaid compensation. Additionally, The Company has also borrowed $75,000 from a shareholder, Jim Pakulis. This borrowing is in the form of a Promissory Note issued March 29, 2018 and accrues interest at the rate of 6% with a maturity of March 30, 2020.

RISK FACTORS

These are the principal risks that related to the company and its business:

- No Assurance of Investment Return. All investments risk the loss of capital. No guarantee or representation can be made that the Company will achieve its investment objective or will not incur substantial losses. The Company's management cannot provide assurance that the Company will be able to generate returns for any ultimate purchaser of Interests (the "Investors") or that the returns will be commensurate with the risks of investing in the type of companies and transactions described herein. There can be no assurance that any investment will receive any distribution from the Company. Accordingly, an investment in the Company should only be considered by persons who can afford a loss of their entire investment.
- Customer Availability. The Company's primary business objective is to launch, acquire, rationalize, consolidate and grow its business through new client(s). The number of potential clients that represent attractive opportunities may be limited. In addition, the Company's task of identifying, completing and realizing attractive opportunities is difficult and involves a high degree of uncertainty. The availability of client opportunities generally will be subject to market conditions. The Company will be competing for business development opportunities with other companies. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to identify and develop attractive clients.
- Risks of Investments. The Company may take as compensation, or a portion of compensation, from client companies, in lieu of cash, securities. These types of assets, which may be owned by the Company, are subject to various risks, particularly the risk that the Company will be unable to dispose of such assets by sale or other means at attractive prices or will otherwise be unable to complete any exit strategy. These risks include changes in the financial condition or prospects of the applicable, in addition to the market risks described below. It is unlikely that there will be a public market for the assets held by the Company and there can be no assurance that these securities will eventually be listed on a securities exchange. The Company may or may not be able to sell the interests in client companies or securities held publicly unless their sale is registered under applicable securities laws, or unless an exemption from such registration requirements is available. In addition, in some cases the Company may be prohibited by contract or regulatory reasons from selling certain securities for a period of time. To the extent that there is no liquid trading market for an asset, the Company may be unable to liquidate that asset or may be unable to do so at a profit. Moreover there can be no assurances that private purchasers for the Company's assets will be found.

- Additional Capital. It is possible that the Company will require additional financing to satisfy their working capital requirements. The amount of such additional financing needed will depend upon the maturity and objectives of the the Company in the future. Each such round of financing is typically intended to provide the Company with enough capital to reach the next major corporate milestone. If the funds provided are not sufficient, the Company may have to raise additional capital at a price unfavorable to the existing Investors, including the Company. The availability of capital is generally a function of capital market conditions that are beyond the control of the Company or its management. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to predict accurately the future capital requirements necessary for success or that additional funds will be available from any source.
- Risks relating to the U.S. federal laws affecting the legal cannabis industry. Certain activities involving marijuana remain illegal under US federal laws. Such activities include but are not limited to: (i) distribution of marijuana to minors, (ii) transporting marijuana across state lines, (iii) driving under the influence of marijuana and other adverse public health consequences, (iv) growing marijuana on public lands, (v) growing marijuana in a manner not consistent with state and local jurisdiction, (vi) marijuana possession or use on federal property, and (vii) other criminal activity or violence associated with the sale of marijuana. To the extent the Company and/or CannCo Brands & Development, Inc. may not prevent certain of its users from using CannCoin Tokens in violation of U.S. federal law, it may subject the Company and/or CannCo Brands & Development, Inc. to civil and/or criminal liability, which could result in the utility, liquidity, and/or trading price of CannCoin Tokens being adversely affected or becoming untradeable.
- Enforcement Of Federal Laws Criminalizing Cannabis. Cannabis is currently categorized as a Schedule I controlled substance by the DEA and the U.S. Department of Justice, and consequently is illegal to grow, possess and consume under federal law. Even in those jurisdictions in which the use of medical cannabis has been legalized at the state level, its use remains a violation of federal law. The U.S. Supreme Court has ruled in United States v. Oakland Cannabis Buyers' Coop. and Gonzales v. Raich that the federal government has the right to regulate and criminalize cannabis, even for medical purposes. Therefore, federal law criminalizing the use of cannabis preempts state laws that legalize its use for medicinal or adult-retail purposes. Strict enforcement of federal law regarding cannabis would likely result in CannCo's inability to proceed with its business plan. The previous Obama administration had effectively stated that it is not an efficient use of resources to direct federal law enforcement agencies to prosecute those lawfully operating under state-designated laws allowing the use and distribution of medical cannabis. In furtherance thereof, on August 29, 2013, the Department of Justice provided guidance to all U.S. federal prosecutors with respect to the enforcement of laws regarding cannabis via the publication of a memorandum authored by former US Attorney General James M. Cole (the “Cole Memo”). The Cole Memo stated that enforcement should be focused on eight priorities, which is to prevent: (1) distribution of cannabis to minors; (2) revenue from sale of cannabis to criminal enterprises, gangs and cartels; (3) transfer of cannabis from states where it is legal to states where it is illegal; (4) cannabis activity from being a pretext for trafficking of other illegal drugs or illegal activity; (5) violence or use of firearms in cannabis growth and distribution; (6) drugged driving and adverse public health consequences from cannabis use; (7) growth of cannabis on federal lands; and (8) cannabis possession or use on federal property. On January 4, 2018, the U.S. Attorney General Jeff Sessions rescinded the Cole Memo and restored the “rule of law.” Such rescission essentially shifts federal policy from the hands-off approach adopted under the Obama administration to allowing federal prosecutors across the U.S. to decide individually how to prosecute the pot possession, distribution and cultivation of the drug in states where it is legal. Furthermore, the Trump administration has previously indicated that it will pursue the enforcement of federal cannabis laws. CannCo is primarily a tech company and does, at any point, possess, transfer, or otherwise come in contact with federally controlled substances. However, while CannCo does not believe its activities involve those enumerated in the Cole Memo, in light of the rescission of the memo by the current Attorney General, federal prosecutors will now have significant discretion on their interpretation of these priorities, and no assurances can be given that federal prosecutors will agree with CannCo’s position. CannCo therefore cannot provide assurance that its actions are in full compliance with the Cole Memo or any other state or federal laws or regulations. In addition, there is no guarantee that the current administration will not further change its policy regarding the strict enforcement of federal laws or the eight listed priorities. Additionally, any new administration that follows could change this policy and decide to enforce the federal laws even stronger. Any such change in the federal government’s enforcement of current federal laws could cause significant financial damage to CannCo. Some of CannCo’s business activities and the business activities of some of its users, while believed to be compliant with applicable state law, are illegal under federal law because they violate the Federal Controlled Substances Act. If CannCo or its users are closed by law enforcement authorities, it will materially and adversely affect CannCo’s business. As of March 4, 2018, 29 states and the District of Columbia have passed laws allowing some degree of medical use of cannabis, while nine of those states and the District of Columbia have also legalized the adult-use of cannabis, and 46 states have legalized the use of non-psychoactive CBD extracts. However, under U.S. federal law, and more specifically the Federal Controlled Substances Act, the possession, use, cultivation, marketing and transfer of cannabis is illegal. The federal, and in some cases state, law enforcement authorities have frequently closed down dispensaries and investigated and/or closed physician offices that provide medicinal cannabis recommendations. To the extent that

CannCo's dispensary users are closed, it will negatively affect CannCo's operations and revenue, and to the extent that it prevents or discourages other similar businesses from entering the cannabis industry, CannCo's potential user base would contract, leading to a material negative affect on CannCo's business and operations.

- Industry opposition. It is believed by many that large well-funded businesses may have a strong economic opposition to the cannabis industry. CannCo believes that the pharmaceutical industry does not want to cede control of any product that could generate significant revenue. For example, medical cannabis will likely adversely impact the existing market for medicines sold by mainstream pharmaceutical companies that contain active ingredients from cannabis. Furthermore, the medical marijuana industry could face a material threat from the pharmaceutical industry, should marijuana displace other drugs or encroach upon the pharmaceutical industry's products. The pharmaceutical industry is well funded with a strong and experienced lobby that eclipses the funding of the medical cannabis movement. Any inroads the pharmaceutical industry could make in halting or impeding the cannabis industry could have a detrimental impact on CannCo's business and operations. Additionally, CannCo is substantially dependent on continued market acceptance and proliferation of consumers of cannabis, medical marijuana and recreational marijuana. CannCo believes that as marijuana becomes more accepted the stigma associated with marijuana use will diminish and as a result consumer demand will continue to grow. While CannCo believes that the market and opportunity in the marijuana space continues to grow, CannCo cannot predict the future growth rate and size of the market. Any negative outlook on the marijuana industry will adversely affect CannCo's business operations. CannCo and its users and clients may have difficulty accessing the service of banks, which may make it difficult for them to operate. Since the use of cannabis is illegal under federal law, there is a compelling argument that banks cannot accept for deposit funds from businesses involved with cannabis. While the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN) has provided guidance to financial institutions on how to provide services to marijuana-related businesses consistent with their Bank Secrecy Act (BSA) obligations, the decision to open, close, or refuse accounts and/or relationships are made at the discretion of the banking institution. Consequently, businesses involved in the cannabis industry often have trouble finding a bank willing to accept their business. The inability to open bank accounts may make it difficult for CannCo and its users and clients to operate.
- Technology Risk We will be developing and deploying technologies that are at the forefront of many of the industries we are participating. There is a risk that we invest in technologies that are not ultimately successful.
- Blockchain We will be developing technologies that will depend on the blockchain technologies, there is no guarantee that these technologies gain market acceptance in the future. For these blockchains to be maintained, costs of maintenance and mining need to be supported through transactional use. There is a risk that the blockchain(s) we build our technologies on will not survive in the long term. The structure of the Canncoin blockchain protocol means that the Canncoin Network may be susceptible to developments by users or contributors could damage the Canncoin blockchain and could affect the utilization of Canncoin. The nature of the Canncoin blockchain protocol means that it may be difficult for the Company or contributors to maintain or develop technology, the Company may not have adequate resources to address emerging issues or malicious programs that develop within the Canncoin Network. The Canncoin Network may be the target of cyberattacks or may contain flaws in its code, which may result in security breaches. Canncoin's protocol, the software application and other interfaces or applications built upon the Canncoin Network have not yet been developed and are unproven, and there can be no assurances that the creating, transfer or storage of the Tokens will be uninterrupted or fully secure which may result in a complete loss of users' Tokens or an unwillingness of users to access, adopt and utilize the Canncoin software. Further, Canncoin may also be the target of malicious attacks seeking to identify and exploit weaknesses in the software or the Canncoin blockchain which may result in the loss or theft of Tokens. For example, if Canncoin and the Canncoin blockchain are subject to unknown and known security attacks, this may materially and adversely affect Canncoin. In any such event, if the Network Launch does not occur or if the Canncoin blockchain is not widely adopted, Investors may lose all of their investment.

- Cryptocurrency We intend to develop our own cryptocurrency for use in the marketplace. There is a risk that we do not successfully gain adoption in the market as a transaction medium in our targeted industries. If we do not gain acceptance it is likely that our tokens will have no future value.
- Regulation There are significant inconsistencies across jurisdictions as to the legality of cryptocurrencies. There is a risk that cryptocurrencies become regulated in a way that eliminates business opportunities for the markets we are seeking to operate in. The regulatory regime governing the blockchain technologies, cryptocurrencies, tokens and token offerings such as Canncoin and the Tokens is uncertain, and new regulations or policies may materially adversely affect the development of the Cannco Network and the utility of the Tokens. Regulation of tokens and token offerings such as this, cryptocurrencies, blockchain technologies, and cryptocurrency exchanges currently is undeveloped and likely to rapidly evolve, varies significantly among international, federal, state and local jurisdictions and is subject to significant uncertainty. Various legislative and executive bodies in the United States and in other countries may in the future, adopt laws, regulations, guidance, or other actions, which may severely impact the development and growth of the Cannco Network and the adoption and utility of the Tokens. Failure by the Company, or certain users of the Cannco Network to comply with any laws, rules and regulations, some of which may not exist yet or are subject to interpretation and may be subject to change, could result in a variety of adverse consequences, including civil penalties and fines. As blockchain networks and blockchain assets have grown in popularity and in market size, federal and state agencies have begun to take interest in, and in some cases regulate, their use and operation. In the case of virtual currencies, state regulators like the New York Department of Financial Services have created new regulatory frameworks. Treatment of virtual currencies continues to evolve under federal law as well. The Department of the Treasury, the Securities Exchange Commission, and the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, for example, have published guidance on the treatment of virtual currencies. The IRS released guidance treating virtual currency as property that is not currency for US federal income tax purposes, although there is no indication yet whether other courts or federal or state regulators will follow this classification. Both federal and state agencies have instituted enforcement actions against those violating their interpretation of existing laws. The regulation of non-currency use of blockchain assets is also uncertain. The CFTC has publicly taken the position that certain blockchain assets are commodities, and the SEC has issued a public report stating federal securities laws require treating some blockchain assets as securities. To the extent that a domestic government or quasi-governmental agency exerts regulatory authority over a blockchain network or asset, the Canncoin Network and the Tokens may be materially and adversely affected. Blockchain networks also face an uncertain regulatory landscape in many foreign jurisdictions such as the European Union, China and Russia. Various foreign jurisdictions may, in the near future, adopt laws, regulations or directives that affect Canncoin. Such laws, regulations or directives may conflict with those of the United States or may directly and negatively impact our business. The effect of any future regulatory change is impossible to predict, but such change could be substantial and materially adverse to the development and growth of Cannco and the adoption and utility of the Tokens. New or changing laws and regulations or interpretations of existing laws and regulations, in the United States and other jurisdictions, may materially and adversely impact the value of the currency in which the Tokens may be exchanged, the liquidity of the Tokens, the ability to access marketplaces or exchanges on which to trade the Tokens, and the structure, rights and transferability of Tokens. Cannco may not successfully develop, market and launch the Minimum Viable Product and Investors may not receive Tokens. Cannco intends to use an established third party blockchain upon which to build its technologies. These third party blockchains may become unstable, or have security flaws that cause our tokens to become worthless or get stolen. It is possible that the Tokens may never be released and there may never be an operational Token launch will not occur.

Conversion Rights

The Convertible Notes have the right to convert at a price of $0.056 per share. If all of these notes were to convert at the present time it would increase the common shares outstanding by a total of approximately 460,145 shares.

- Preferred Class of Securities: 25,000,000

Voting Rights (of this security)

The holders of shares of the Company's Preferred stock, .001 par value per share ("Preferred Shares") are entitled to vote for each share held of record on all matters submitted to a vote of the shareholders.

Rights and Preferences

The Company has determined that it has the right to issue up to 25000000 shares or Preferred Securities which can be allocated to different classes. The Series A Preferred represents 2000000 shares of this Class of Securities, of which the Company has only issued 1000000.

What it means to be a Minority Holder

As a minority holder of Common Stock, you will have limited ability, if all, to influence our policies or any other corporate matter, including the election of directors, changes to the Company's governance documents, additional issuances of securities, company repurchases of securities, a sale of the Company or of assets of the Company, or transactions with related parties.

Dilution

Investors should understand the potential for dilution. Each Investor's stake in the Company, could be diluted due to the Company issuing additional shares. In other words, when the Company issues more shares, the percentage of the Company that you own will decrease, even though the value of the Company may increase. You will own a smaller piece of a larger company. This increase in number of shares outstanding could result from a stock offering (such as an initial public offering, another crowdfunding round, a venture capital round or angel investment), employees exercising stock options, or by conversion of certain instruments (e.g., convertible notes, preferred shares or warrants) into stock.

If we decide to issue more shares, an Investor could experience value dilution, with each share being worth less than before, and control dilution, with the total percentage an investor owns being less than before. There may also be earnings dilution, with a reduction in the amount earned per share (although this typically occurs only if we offer dividends, and most early stage companies are unlikely to offer dividends, referring to invest any earnings into the Company).

The type of dilution that hurts early-stage investors mostly occurs when the company sells more shares in a "down round," meaning at a lower valuation than in earlier offerings.

If you are making an investment expecting to own a certain percentage of the Company or expecting each share to hold a certain amount of value, it is important to realize how the value of those shares can decrease by actions taken by the Company. Dilution can make drastic changes to the value of each share, ownership percentage, voting control, and earnings per share.

Transferability of securities

For a year, the securities can only be resold:

- In an IPO;
- To the company;
- To an accredited investor; and
- To a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the purchaser, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the purchaser or other similar circumstance.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND FINANCIAL CONDITION; MATERIAL INDEBTEDNESS

Financial Statements

Our financial statements can be found attached to this document. The financial review covers the period ending in 2017-12-31.

Financial Condition

Results of Operation

Growth Circle the current operating division of Geopulse Exploration (Cannco) –

The Company provides services to growth companies and has a stated focus on supporting the legal cannabis industry.

The Company provides services ranging from strategic advisory, media production and distribution.

Operations over 2016 and 2017 allowed the company to built its network of clients and audience. The Company has successfully grown its portfolio of content which has in turn has made it easier to acquire customers.

Revenue

The Company enjoyed revenue growth of 19% between 2016 and 2017, The Company attributes this to an increase in demand for consulting services.

Cost Of Goods Sold

Cost of Goods Sold increased slightly to 51% of sales for 2017 vs. 48% for 2016. This increase was attributable to a higher demand for distribution campaigns for content for 2017.

Net Income

Net Income for 2017 vs 2016 declined because the Company elected to write down some assets and receivables that were deemed uncollectible.

The Company will often elect to receive Equity in client Companies in exchange for services, the decision to receive equity can increase the profitability of certain client engagements. When the Company does receive equity it takes steps to cushion for potential declines in value for a clients public securities.

The Company has successfully developed a distinctive style for its video production – clients appreciate our ability to profile executives and communicate the corporate story for our clients.

Cannco is well positioned to expand on these skills and resources to make a deeper push into the Cannabis industry – providing advisory and media services as well as using the channels represented by its targeted acquisitions.

In the interests of being conservative, we have chosen to write off revenues from clients whose financial standing puts into question their ability to pay their advisory fees. While these clients are making minimum payments against their balance we chose not to carry the bulk of these receivables in current standing.

Additionally, we have been amortizing the software acquisition costs which reduces our tax liabilities, these accounting decisions have shown a negative net income while we are operating on a breakeven basis when analyzing cash flow.

The operating results we have experienced in the past are not a good indicator of our future financial results. We intend to develop new products, make acquisitions of additional strategic businesses and roll out our Canncoin, and Canncoin Network properties.

None of the equity positions we have received have been from Companies that directly grow or sell marijuana.

The value of minority holdings we have that are invested in other companies totals $16,536.

Financial Milestones

Over the past two years of operations – The company has successfully

- Reduced client acquisition costs
- Reduced production costs
- Reduced distribution costs

The Company is well positioned to scale these operations as well as add new products and business lines through acquisition, all in support of the Canncoin ecosystem it is creating.

The Milestones we will be projecting for the Company going forward:

We will be completing the acquisitions of ThcFinder.com, and Stonerdays.com.

We will be beginning our Coin offering in July of this year

We will Launch a new THC Finder app in August, which will be the basis for our future digital wallet product

In October we intend to have a testnet completed for Cannco Network.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company has been operating on a cash-flow breakeven basis since commencing operations with a growth capital financing of approximately $140,000. The contemplated growth capital financing and coin funding will allow it to scale operations and revenues rapidly.

The proceeds of the offering will generate "growth capital" for the Company and provide it an opportunity to invest to grow and develop new businesses. The Capital raised is expected to last through a 6 month process of developing technologies, a coin and market an ICO process.

Because we have set the min target at a very low level - we would to identify and close on other sources of capital to have the same opportunity created by a larger raise if we only close on a minimum financing.

Because we are a public company, and our operating businesses are generating revenues and operating margin we believe that we will have access to the required funds to execute our business model.

The Company is also working towards a capital raise by creating a compliant coin, we believe that we will have multiple opportunities to raise the required capital to execute our business plan.

We intend to manage operations in a conservative manner and only commence capital outlays commensurate with our ability to raise capital. As of the Fiscal year end in 2017 the Company had a cash position of $17,753.43. Its minority ownership position in other companies is valued at $16,536.

Capital Resources

From time to time the Company receives offers of financing from institutional investors. These offers have been as high as $5 million dollars in the form of an Equity Financing through an Equity line. The Company will be taking steps to have capital available on attractive terms as we execute our business plan. The Company trades publicly on the OTC Markets under the ticker symbol GPLS.

Indebtedness

The Company has currently has long term loans of $22,000 which reflects capital borrowed to purchase Nvestly. It carries an interest rate of 10%. The maturity is April 2019. The Creditors are Stephen Bernstein, Steven Davis, and Bryan Hill. The Company completed the purchase of Nvestly by issuing notes to the owners of Nvestly amounting to 54,438.00. The note bears interest at 10% and does not mature within the next 12 months. The Creditors are Chris Tung, and Otavio Dalarossa. ## NOTE 1 – NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Geopulse Explorations, Inc. (d.b.a Cannco Brands & Development) was formed on August 13, 2004 (“Inception”) in the State of Nevada. The financial statements of Geopulse Explorations, Inc. (which may be referred to as the “Company”, “we,” “us,” or “our”) are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”). The Company’s headquarters are located in Los Angeles, CA.

CannCo Brands is a Nevada incorporated acquisition and development company aimed at building and leveraging new technologies to support emerging economies and markets, such as the legal cannabis market. CannCo is developing a proprietary blockchain technology which will power and support a network of infrastructure partners for legally operating cannabis businesses throughout the United States and Canada.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and the reported amount of expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results could materially differ from these estimates. It is reasonably possible that changes in estimates will occur in the near term.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Fair value is defined as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants as of the measurement date. Applicable accounting guidance provides an established hierarchy for inputs used in measuring fair value that maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs by requiring that the most observable inputs be used when available. Observable inputs are inputs that market participants would use in valuing the asset or liability and are developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the Company. Unobservable inputs are inputs that reflect the Company’s assumptions about the factors that market participants would use in valuing the asset or liability. There are three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

- Level 1 - Observable inputs that reflect quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.
- Level 2 - Include other inputs that are directly or indirectly observable in the marketplace.
- Level 3 - Unobservable inputs which are supported by little or no market activity.

The fair value hierarchy also requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value.

Fair-value estimates discussed herein are based upon certain market assumptions and pertinent information available to management as of December 31, 2016 and 2017. The respective carrying value of certain on-balance-sheet financial instruments approximated their fair values.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purpose of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Revenue Recognition

The Company will recognize revenues from advertising, production and consulting services when (a) persuasive evidence that an agreement exists; (b) the service has been performed; (c) the prices are fixed and determinable and not subject to refund or adjustment; and (d) collection of the amounts due is reasonably assured.

Income Taxes

The Company applies ASC 740 Income Taxes ("ASC 740"). Deferred income taxes are recognized for the tax consequences in future years of differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their financial statement reported amounts at each period end, based on enacted tax laws and statutory tax rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. Valuation allowances are established, when necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized. The provision for income taxes represents the tax expense for the period, if any and the change during the period in deferred tax assets and liabilities.

ASC 740 also provides criteria for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of uncertain tax positions. A tax benefit from an uncertain position is recognized only if it is "more likely than not" that the position is sustainable upon examination by the relevant taxing authority based on its technical merit.

The Company is subject to tax in the United States ("U.S.") and files tax returns in the U.S. Federal jurisdiction and Nevada state jurisdiction. The Company is subject to U.S. Federal, state and local income tax examinations by tax authorities for all periods in the last 3 years. The Company currently is not under examination by any tax authority.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash with a major financial institution located in the United States of America which it believes to be creditworthy. Balances are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000.

NOTE 3 – DEBT

The Company does not maintain any inventory. It has incurred debt in the course of acquiring Nvestly.com. That debt is currently 54,438.00.

Additionally, the Company has issued Convertible Notes. These Convertible Notes are issued in the amount of $22,000. The Convertible Notes bear interest at a rate of 10% per annum. The Convertible Notes have the right to convert at a price of $0.056 per share. If all of these notes were to convert at the present time it would increase the common shares outstanding by a total of approximately 460,145 shares.

The Company's founder has accrued compensation in the amount of 96,709 that has been unpaid.

NOTE 4 – COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

We are currently not involved with or know of any pending or threatening litigation against the Company or any of its officers.

NOTE 5 – STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY

Common Stock

Bringing Economic Efficiency to the Cannabis Industry

Invest in CannCo

Cannabis is one of the fastest growing and most lucrative industries in the world today. Poised to become a $31.4 billion-dollar industry, cannabis is now medically available in 29 states in the United States, and totally legalized (for recreational and medical use) in nine states and the District of Columbia. All but four states have approved access to non-psychoactive cannabis extracts, produced for medicinal use.

With the shift in legality around cannabis, we are also observing a shift in culture. If you're in Los Angeles, dispensary and cannabis delivery billboards are everywhere. In Colorado, dispensaries and cannabis businesses are frequented by tens of thousands of customers, daily. The regularly that explore the in's and out's of the marijuana realm.

However, in spite of all the statewide changes and enormous public support, marijuana is still federally illegal. Cannabis products that are produced in FDA approved facilities and taxed by the government, still can not cross state lines. And in Texas you could be arrested for having the exact same product that is medically and recreationally celebrated in your home state.

While federal policy appears to be softening and federal laws may soon shift, they have not shifted yet. Dispensaries, even in states where cannabis is legal, find it near impossible to work with banks, or find merchant processors that won't shut them down for selling marijuana.

Many of these businesses went from processing just a few orders — in cash — to having a huge boom in sales. This dramatic increase in sales requires a more sophisticated payment processing system. However, federal laws governing fiat currency have conspired to make that incredibly difficult. Because both banks and merchant processors are governed by unique sets of federal guidelines and restrictions, they are, in many cases, legally unable to accept deposits or process transactions for legally operating cannabis businesses.

To address this problem, CannCo's is creating a blockchain-powered ecosystem that will provide the following services for the cannabis industry and eventually other developing and underbanked markets:

- Transparent supply chain management
- Business banking and merchant processing
- Trade finance
- Direct consumer-engagement solutions

With the launch of our native token, the CannCoin, we will aim to revitalize and restructure the cannabis market by offering robust financial services that have been largely unavailable until now. Given the successful track record of those behind CannCo and our unique blend of experience in the cannabis market, product and software development, and financial markets, we believe we are poised to deliver essential products and solid returns to our investors.

The cannabis industry's growth is accelerating at an exponential rate.

However, with rapid growth comes an ever-increasing set of challenges. This problem is made worse by the fact that the major Fortune 500 players, like banks and software companies, who would normally step into an emerging market with solutions to these problems, are fundamentally precluded from participating in the cannabis market.

So, as long time cannabis entrepreneurs who have watched and participated in the market since its infancy, we feel it is our responsibility to ensure that the cannabis industry's growth is not hindered by a lack of effective infrastructure or business intelligence.

Once deployed, CannCo will ensure that businesses have unfettered access to the critical infrastructure they need to grow rapidly and provide consumers with a safe and consistent experience. Join us in developing a clearer framework for how cannabis businesses operate.

CannCo Brands & Development ("CannCo Brands"), was established in early 2017 and has since acquired or entered into agreements to acquire 3 established, revenue generating business in the cannabis market: Growth Circle, a media, marketing & IR company, serving cannabis brands; Stoner Days, a merchandise manufacturer; and THC Finder, a geo-targeted, mobile marketing platform for dispensaries. All three companies are managed or owned by CannCo Brands currently and all three are revenue generating and profitable. In addition, CannCo Brands has established two subsidiaries to enter the blockchain space - CannCo Network, which will develop platform technology and applications allowing users to access and leverage the blockchain data repository, and CannCoin, which will issue and manage a crypto asset utility token and related blockchain data repository. CannCo Network has already hired lead software architects and developers and has begun development on both the software platform and mobile applications. In addition, CannCoin has begun early stage development of the underlying smart contracts which will power the first version of the crypto asset, which will operate as an ERC token. Both projects are in development but have not yet reached alpha stage. Under the direction of CannCo Network's software development team, CannCo Brands will begin redevelopment of the THC Finder mobile application, with integrated CannCoin wallet in May of 2018, with an anticipated alpha version target release date in August of 2018. During that time, CannCoin anticipates launching the initial, fully developed CannCoin token for sandbox testing in June of 2018. The public release of a fungible crypto asset is projected for in the first quarter of 2019, which will mark the launch of the fully functional transaction platform.

CannCoins

Description: CannCoin Tokens will be an ERC20/223 Token built on the Ethereum Blockchain and function as the primary medium of exchange usable within our own proprietary CannCo Network platform, and will be used as an exchange medium between consumers, retailers, and upstream supply chain partners.

The token is currently intended to be listed exchanges, but this may change, pending approval to list on such exchanges, changes to the regulatory landscape, or any other reason. Security Tokens may be eligible for trading on SEC approved alternate trading platforms as they become available. There is no guarantee that such a trading platform will be available at that time.

The right to tokens is contingent upon the successful development of such Tokens and to the extent applicable, the blockchain upon which they function. There is no guarantee that successful development will ever occur.

**All perks will be delivered after the campaign is completed, and upon availability of the Tokens. See Offering Summary below for additional terms.*

While the cannabis market is finite, our ability to create functional economic infrastructure platforms that can meet the needs of unbanked communities and closed loop economies is almost infinitely scalable. As long as there are emerging economies and industries, there will be continued opportunity for CannCo to deploy solutions into these markets.

The Cannabis Industry Needs Greater Financial Efficiency

Federal Restrictions Come at a Cost

While marijuana seems socially ubiquitous and largely accepted legally, the reality is marijuana still maintains a federal designation as a Schedule-1 controlled substance.

Federal Law 280E state that "any business that engages in the distribution of Schedule-1 or Schedule-11 controlled substances are barred from tax deductions, such as for leasing property or paying salaries."

This means that dispensaries may have to fork as much as 70% in federal taxes. What's more, banks and credit unions in "safe states" for marijuana gravely fear penalization from federal authorities for working with dispensaries. For this reason, virtually all banks turn dispensaries and cannabis business away rather than doing business with them.

The result is that cannabis businesses are left to work in cash, which is not efficient, sustainable, secure, or ultimately scalable.

Overworked and Overwhelmed: Why
Dispensary Owners Need Help

Dispensary and marijuana business owners face challenges unlike any other industry, because they do not have the ability to scale in the way that traditional businesses do. This is the result of a myriad of federal restrictions and a complex framework of state and local legislation, which often conflicts and creates even great jurisdictional and operational confusion.

On a more basic level, many people who entered into the cannabis industry were not necessarily business people to begin with. They either loved cannabis or saw an amazing opportunity and were ready to jump aboard. In either case, they did not realize the innumerable challenges that lied in wait.

Our mission is to make doing business easier for people in the industry, with a streamlined approach and a full suite of interconnected infrastructure solutions. Leveraging blockchain technology and a cryptocurrency powered ecosystem make this possible.

Having marijuana businesses utilize a decentralized form of currency can make basic business processes more seamless. CannCoin provides a singular, unified economic marketplace for all business who want to operate in the cannabis market, which allows these businesses to:

Interact more easily...

Process transactions more efficiently...

Reach their customers more effectively...

Remain compliant with constant changes to the legal landscape surrounding cannabis...

How It Works

The ecosystem depends on consumers and producers utilizing the CannCoin token. The CannCoin token will move through the supply chain, from consumer to producer, which will strategically position CannCoin as the standard currency to leverage and utilize as working capital for the entire industry. CannCoin will be used to process payment for transactions at the retail level, and then utilized by merchants to pay suppliers, vendors, service providers and even employees.

Here's How We'll Deploy

CannCo will develop a CannCoin digital wallet, which will be both integrated into numerous 3rd party dispensary finder applications, as well as launched as a standalone wallet app. Each wallet will be pre-loaded with an initial coin gift.

- Traditional Funding: Users will be able to add CannCoin by funding their wallet through any traditional exchange or personal bank account
- Loyalty: Users will also be able to earn CannCoin via loyalty rewards or be compensated through gamified achievements, which will be both offered by CannCo as well as sponsored by dispensaries and brands.
- Product and Retailer Discovery: By Geo-locating consumers in conjunction with in-app advertising networks, we will guide users to CannCo member dispensaries and sponsored brands.
- Early Adoption Rewards: Early adopters will earn CannCoin tokens and early access to the ICO by participating in the Ecosystem.

Invest in CannCo!

CannCo has a vision that is focused and achievable, and our core team has the relevant expertise and experience to carry it out. Beginning with the cannabis industry in California, we believe that we will be able to fuel rapid adoption and deployment of our platform. The cannabis industry overall is incredibly tight knit and notoriously difficult to penetrate. However after decades of experience founding and growing some of the largest companies and most successful brands in the industry, we are armed with an intimate understanding of the consumer's needs and unprecedented reach into the marketplace.

A lack of any effective infrastructure, combined with extraordinary need and a very finite, accessible group of industry participants, make cannabis the perfect test bed for a blockchain powered, end-to-end supply chain and banking infrastructure. However, we definitely see applications for our technology far beyond the cannabis market. As CannCo receives wider adoption, we will also begin to explore other exciting applications of our technology, in closed loop financial ecosystems. For example, our platform could be used to facilitate transactions at leading music festivals, or to provide banking, trading and other services to underserved communities and emerging economies.

We're excited about the potential of our technology, and we want you to be a part of it. Invest in CannCo, and help us use the power of blockchain to have an appreciable, positive impact on the world.

Thanks you for your support - I am happy to announce that Milestone "A" has been achieved - which means all investors will be getting 5 extra tokens per $1.00 invested.

John Aguilar CannCo Brands - Potential Investor 7 days ago

I see that shares being sold are for Geopulse exploration, so is this because you couldn't get name change, Geopulse exploration is already a public company so how do I benefit with this investment? Thanks

Marcus Laun CannCo Brands - Issuer 21 hours ago

Hi John,

The Investment through Start Engine will give investors equity in Geopulse Explorations as well as tokens that will be issued in the future (Canncoin). Investors will receive at least 1 token per share of investment - but likely more through the incentives and bonuses outlined in the offering. This offering is not related to our name change process.

As of now President Trump has stated that if a proposed law crossed his desk taking marijuana from being federally mandated he would sign it. What impact would that have on this idea (investment)???

Marcus Laun CannCo Brands - Issuer 14 days ago

Our plans focus on creating value-added products and community for the cannabis industry - the benefits of our solutions will continue to be valuable as the market moves towards recreational use. That being said- there are so many government entities that impact the industry - that this process will not happen as quickly as one might expect.

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT (Exhibit D)

I'm Jesse Wilmer and I am the chief operating officer of Kenko and Ken Coyne I am Marcus Lamb and I'm CEO of Camco. We're here to make a video about KenCoin. The idea behind the coin is to solve some of the biggest problems facing the cannabis industry. The industry obviously, as everyone knows, has exploded over the last five years and everywhere you turn there's a dispensary and all these dispensaries are taking in millions of dollars and they can't get that money in the bank which kind of puts the cannabis industry into the third world so it creates immediate security risks with you know dispensaries that have to keep hundreds of thousands or even millions of dollars in some cases on-site a lot of transactions that are affected between a dispensary and their suppliers are done so in cash which is also very dangerous when you're bringing half a million dollars to a meeting in cash and it makes it very hard to operate. If you know a functional business these aren't little you know garage operations anymore these are storefronts that have thousands of customers and hundreds of vendors and you know 50 employees and take in ten million dollars a year in revenue. In trying to run a business like that without a checking account is virtually impossible but to really like what is our idea our idea is to create an ecosystem there's a you know a vacuum infrastructure support we're gonna be you know creating a digital wallet that'll kind of sit on your cell phone and it'll allow you to go into a dispensary and buy a product a wallet solution that functions like PayPal or Ben know the beauty of having that digital wallet on your phone is that you can get loyalty points you can get incentives you can get discounts all through the app you know first and foremost we're we're building an interface that's very easy to use it's a market where we can pretty easily identify and access the entire supply chain like my goal is to get to a hundred thousand digital wallets pretty quickly obviously you know you know whatever sky's the limit and then that came coin it goes to an exchange or gets sold ultimately to the retail consumer again so you have kind of a full-blown ecosystem where you're you're eliminating the need for cash you know what we've seen in in the cannabis industry nationwide over the last decade is an industry that has exploded faster than any industry in the last hundred years we're gonna drive adoption from the top down by developing really useful meaningful merchant products and solutions and then we're also going to be driving from the bottom up from the consumer side by you know creating really meaningful incentives for consumers we're also gonna build a community we have access and are working with the biggest communities in the cannabis industry and ideally we do see this going way beyond there's the cannabis industry our goal is to create an end-to-end financial ecosystem infrastructure but cannabis in this country is sort of the perfect market to test that in because they're painfully in need of business infrastructure support so basically what you're saying is this industry is a perfect test case for penetrating it with cryptocurrency you

STARTENGINE SUBSCRIPTION PROCESS (Exhibit E)

Platform Compensation

- As compensation for the services provided by StartEngine Capital, the issuer is required to pay to StartEngine Capital a fee consisting of a 6-8% (six to eight percent) commission based on the dollar amount of securities sold in the Offering and paid upon disbursement of funds from escrow at the time of a closing. The commission is paid in cash and in securities of the Issuer identical to those offered to the public in the Offering at the sole discretion of StartEngine Capital. Additionally, the issuer must reimburse certain expenses related to the Offering. The securities issued to StartEngine Capital, if any, will be of the same class and have the same terms, conditions and rights as the securities being offered and sold by the issuer on StartEngine Capital's website.

Information Regarding Length of Time of Offering

- Investment Cancellations: Investors will have up to 48 hours prior to the end of the offering period to change their minds and cancel their investment commitments for any reason. Once within 48 hours of ending, investors will not be able to cancel for any reason, even if they make a commitment during this period.
- Material Changes: Material changes to an offering include but are not limited to: A change in minimum offering amount, change in security price, change in management, material change to financial information, etc. If an issuer makes a material change to the offering terms or other information disclosed, including a change to the offering deadline, investors will be given five business days to reconfirm their investment commitment. If investors do not reconfirm, their investment will be cancelled and the funds will be returned.

Hitting The Target Goal Early & Oversubscriptions

- StartEngine Capital will notify investors by email when the target offering amount has hit 25%, 50% and 100% of the funding goal. If the issuer hits its goal early, and the minimum offering period of 21 days has been met, the issuer can create a new target deadline at least 5 business days out. Investors will be notified of the new target deadline via email and will then have the opportunity to cancel up to 48 hours before new deadline.
- Oversubscriptions: We require all issuers to accept oversubscriptions. This may not be possible if: 1) it vaults an issuer into a different category for financial statement requirements (and they do not have the requisite financial statements); or 2) they reach $1.07M in investments. In the event of an oversubscription, shares will be allocated at the discretion of the issuer.
- If the sum of the investment commitments does not equal or exceed the target offering amount at the offering deadline, no securities will be sold in the offering, investment commitments will be cancelled and committed funds will be returned.
- If a StartEngine issuer reaches its target offering amount prior to the deadline, it may conduct an initial closing of the offering early if they provide notice of the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to the new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment). StartEngine will notify investors when the issuer meets its target offering amount. Thereafter, the issuer may conduct additional closings until the offering deadline.

Minimum and Maximum Investment Amounts

- In order to invest, to commit to an investment or to communicate on our platform, users must open an account on StartEngine Capital and provide certain personal and non-personal information including information related to income, net worth, and other investments.
- Investor Limitations: Investors are limited in how much they can invest on all crowdfunding offerings during any 12-month period. The limitation on how much they can invest depends on their net worth (excluding the value of their primary residence) and annual income. If either their annual income or net worth is less than $107,000, then during any 12-month period, they can invest up to the greater of either $2,200 or 5% of the lesser of their annual income or net worth. If both their annual income and net worth are equal to or more than $107,000, then during any 12-month period, they can invest up to 10% of annual income or net worth, whichever is less, but their investments cannot exceed $107,000.

1. Definitions. For purposes of this Certificate of Determination, the following definitions shall apply:

1.1 "Available Funds and Assets" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 3 hereof.

2. Dividend Rights.

2.1 In each calendar year, the holders of the then outstanding Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, when, as and if declared by the Board, out of any funds and assets of the Corporation legally available therefore, noncumulative dividends in an amount equal to any dividends or other Distribution on the Common Stock in such calendar year (other than a Common Stock Dividend). No dividends (other than a Common Stock Dividend) shall be paid, and no Distribution shall be made, with respect to the Common Stock unless dividends in such amount shall have been paid or declared and set apart for payment to the holders of the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock simultaneously. Dividends on the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall not be mandatory or cumulative, and no rights or interest shall accrue to the holders of the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock by reason of the fact that the Corporation shall fail to declare or pay dividends on the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, except for such rights or interest that may arise as a result of the Corporation paying a dividend or making a Distribution on the Common Stock in violation of the terms of this Section 2.

2.2 Participation Rights. Dividends shall be declared pro rata on the Common Stock and the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock on a pari passu basis according to the number of shares of Common Stock held by such holders, where each holder of shares of Series A Preferred Stock is to be treated for this purpose as holding the number of shares of Common Stock to which the holders thereof would be entitled if they converted their shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock at the time of such dividend in accordance with Section 4 hereof.

2.3 Non-Cash Dividends. Whenever a dividend or Distribution provided for in this Section 2 shall be payable in property other than cash (other than a Common Stock Dividend), the value of such dividend or Distribution shall be deemed to be the fair market value of such property as determined in good faith by the Board.

3. Liquidation Rights. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation; whether voluntary or involuntary, the funds and assets of the Corporation that may be legally distributed to the Corporation's shareholders (the "Available Funds and Assets") shall be distributed to shareholders in the following manner:

3.1 Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. The holders of each share of Series A Preferred Stock then outstanding shall be entitled to be paid, out of the Available Funds and Assets, and prior and in preference to any payment or distribution (or any setting apart of any payment or distribution) of any Available Funds and Assets on any shares of Common Stock or subsequent series of preferred stock, an amount per share equal to the Original Issue Price of the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock plus all declared but unpaid dividends on the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. If upon any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, the Available Funds and Assets shall be insufficient to permit the payment to holders of the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock of their full preferential amount as described in this subsection, then all of the remaining Available Funds and Assets shall be distributed among the holders of the then outstanding Series A Convertible Preferred Stock pro rata, according to the number of outstanding shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock held by each holder thereof.

3.2 Participation Rights. If there are any Available Funds and Assets remaining after the payment or distribution (or the setting aside for payment or distribution) to the holders of the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock of their full preferential amounts described above in this Section 3, then all such remaining Available Funds and Assets shall be distributed among the holders of the then outstanding Common Stock and Preferred Stock pro rata according to the number and preferences of the shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock (as converted to Common Stock) held by such holders.

3.3 Merger or Sale of Assets. A reorganization or any other consolidation or merger of the Corporation with or into any other corporation, or any other sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation, shall not be deemed to be a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation within the meaning of this Section 3, and the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall be entitled only to (i) the right provided in any agreement or plan governing the reorganization or other consolidation, merger or sale of assets transaction, (ii) the rights contained in the General Corporation Law of the State of California and (iii) the rights contained in other Sections hereof.

3.4 Non-Cash Consideration. If any assets of the Corporation distributed to shareholders in connection with any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation are other than cash, then the value of such assets shall be their fair market value as determined by the Board.

4. Conversion Rights.

4.1 Conversion of Preferred Stock. Each share of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall be convertible, at the option of the holder thereof, at any time after the issuance of such share, into one (1) share of Common Stock of the Company.

4.2 Procedures for Exercise of Conversion Rights. The holders of any shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock may exercise their conversion rights as to all such shares or any part thereof by delivering to the Company during regular business hours, at the office of any transfer agent of the Company for the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, or at the principal office of the Company or at such other place as may be designated by the Company, the certificate or certificates for the shares to be converted, duly endorsed for transfer to the Company (if required by the Company), accompanied by written notice stating that the holder elects to convert such shares. Conversion shall be deemed to have been effected on the date when such delivery is made, and such date is referred to herein as the "Conversion Date." As promptly as practicable after the Conversion Date, but not later than ten (10) business days thereafter, the Company shall issue and deliver to or upon the written order of such holder, at such office or other place designated by the Company, a certificate or certificates for the number of full shares of Common Stock to which such holder is entitled and a check for cash with respect to any fractional interest in a share of Common Stock as provided in section 4.3 below. The holder shall be deemed to have become a shareholder of record on the Conversion Date. Upon conversion of only a portion of the number of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock represented by a certificate surrendered for conversion, the Company shall issue and deliver to or upon the written order of the holder of the certificate so surrendered for conversion, at the expense of the Company, a new certificate covering the number of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock representing the unconverted portion of the certificate so surrendered.

4.3 No Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of Common Stock or scrip shall be issued upon conversion of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. If more than one share of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall be surrendered for conversion at any one time by the same holder, the number of full shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion thereof shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate number of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock so surrendered. Instead of any fractional shares of Common Stock which would otherwise be issuable upon conversion of any shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, the Company shall pay a cash adjustment in respect of such fractional interest equal to the fair market value of such fractional interest as determined by the Company's Board of Directors.

4.4 Payment of Taxes for Conversions. The Company shall pay any and all issue and other taxes that may be payable in respect of any issue or delivery of shares of Common Stock on conversion pursuant hereto of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. The Company shall not, however, be required to pay any tax which may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the issue and delivery of shares of Common Stock in a name other than that in which the shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock so converted were registered, and no such issue or delivery shall be made unless and until the person requesting such issue has paid to the Company the amount of any such tax, or has established, to the satisfaction of the Company, that such tax has been paid.

4.5 Reservation of Common Stock. The Company shall at all times reserve and keep available, out of its authorized but unissued Common Stock, solely for the purpose of effecting the conversion of the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, the full number of shares of Common Stock deliverable upon the conversion of all shares of all series of preferred stock from time to time outstanding.

4.6 Registration or Listing of Shares of Common Stock. If any shares of Common Stock to be reserved for the purpose of conversion of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock require registration or listing with, or approval of, any governmental authority, stock exchange or other regulatory body under any federal or state law or regulation or otherwise, before such shares may be validly issued or delivered upon conversion, the Company will in good faith and as expeditiously as possible endeavor to secure such registration, listing or approval, as the case may be.

4.7 Status of Common Stock Issued Upon Conversion. All shares of Common Stock which may be issued upon conversion of the shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock will upon issuance by the Company be validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free from all taxes, liens and charges with respect to the issuance thereof.

4.8 Status of Converted Preferred Stock. In case any shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall be converted pursuant to this Section 4, the shares so converted shall be canceled and shall not be re-issuable by the Company.

5. Reorganization.

5.1 General Provisions. In case, at any time after the date hereof, of any capital reorganization, or any reclassification of the stock of the Corporation (other than a change in par value or as a result of a stock dividend or subdivision, split-up or combination of shares), or the consolidation or merger of the Corporation with or into another person (other than a consolidation or merger in which the Corporation is the continuing entity and which does not result in any change in the Common Stock), or of the sale or other disposition of all or substantially all the properties and assets of the Corporation as an entirety to any other person, the shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall, after such reorganization, reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale or other disposition, be convertible into the kind and number of shares of stock or other securities or property of the Corporation or of the entity resulting from such consolidation or surviving such merger or to which such properties and assets shall have been sold or otherwise disposed to which such holder would have been entitled if immediately prior to such reorganization, reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale or other disposition it had converted its shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock into Common Stock. The provisions of this section 5.1 shall similarly apply to successive reorganizations, reclassifications, consolidations, mergers, sales or other dispositions.

5.2 No Impairment. The Corporation will not, through any reorganization, transfer of assets, consolidation, merger, dissolution, issue or sale of securities or any other voluntary action, including amending this Certificate of Designation, avoid or seek to avoid the observance or performance of any of the terms to be observed or performed hereunder by the Corporation, but will at all times in good faith assist in the carrying out of all the provisions of this section 5 and in the taking of all such action as may be necessary or appropriate in order to protect the conversion rights of the holders of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock against impairment. This provision shall not restrict the Corporation from amending its Articles of Incorporation in accordance with the General Corporation Law of the State of California and the terms hereof.

6. Voting Provisions. Each outstanding share of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall be entitled to One Hundred (100) votes per share on all matters to which the shareholders of the Corporation are entitled or required to vote.

7. Protective Provisions. The Corporation may not take any of the following actions without the approval of a majority of the holders of the outstanding Series A Convertible Preferred Stock: (i) effect a sale of all or substantially all of the Corporation's assets or which results in the holders of the Corporation's capital stock prior to the transaction owning less than fifty percent (50%) of the voting power of the Corporation's capital stock after the transaction, (ii) alter or change the rights, preferences, or privileges of the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, (iii) increase or decrease the number of authorized shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, (iv) authorize the issuance of securities having a preference over or on par with the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, or (v) effectuate a forward or reverse stock split or dividend of the Corporation's common stock.
