REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Members of Vision Financial Markets LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Vision Financial Markets LLC (the "Company") as of June 30, 2017, and the related notes to the statement of financial condition. The Company's management is responsible for this financial statement. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial condition of the Company as of June 30, 2017 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

As more fully described in Note 9, Contingencies and Guarantees, the Company is a contingent party to a bankruptcy proceeding for which the Company has reserved its best estimate of the Company's exposure at June 30, 2017. In addition, the Company is involved in various legal and regulatory matters for which the Company has set up associated reserves based on management's best estimate of the Company's exposure. The ultimate outcome of these matters cannot presently be determined, but management is of the opinion that it will not have a material impact on the Company's financial position. Nevertheless, due to these uncertainties, it is at least reasonably possible that management's view of the outcome will change in the near term. Our opinion is not modified with respect to that matter.

JUNE 30, 2017

NOTE 1. ORGANIZATION OF BUSINESS

Vision Financial Markets LLC (the "Company"), is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") as a broker-dealer operating on a self-clearing basis. The Company's primary self-regulator (designated examining authority) is the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). As a broker dealer, the Company is a member of a number of US Stock and Option Exchanges. It is a clearing member of the Options Clearing Corporation and is a clearing participant of the Depository Trust Company ("DTC"). The Company is also a member of the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board ("MSRB").

NOTE 2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAP).

Revenue Recognition

Commission and fee revenues primarily arise from agency transactions in listed equity and fixed income securities, sales of mutual funds, and options. Commission and fee revenues are recognized in the accounts on trade date.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

Securities Owned and Securities Sold Not Yet Purchased are carried at fair value. Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is reported on the accrual basis and dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Realized and unrealized gains and losses on investments are included in the determination of net gain from securities trading. The Company earns income from stock loan rebates from the lenders of securities to the Company who reinvest the cash collateral pledged by the Company, which is also included in net gain from securities trading. In the case of non-cash collateral, including equities, corporate bonds and other products, a fee is charged to the Company by the lender of the securities. These fees are an offset to the stock rebates.

Correspondent Guaranteed Fee

The Company, in its capacity as a self-clearing securities broker dealer and member of exchanges holds an error account for various Correspondents. Such account shall be used solely in such instances that Correspondent, in the normal course of its business experiences an "Error" (defined as a transaction that is erroneous in nature and cannot be applied to a correspondent account). The Correspondent shall be responsible for any losses which occur in the Error Account. For the Year ended June 30, 2017, the Company received $504,330 in Correspondent Guaranteed Fees for holding the Error Accounts.

Deposits with Clearing Organizations

Deposits with clearing organizations represent cash deposited with central clearing agencies for the purposes of supporting clearing and settlement activities. Customer collateral pledged is not reflected on the Statement of Financial Condition.

Foreign Currency Transactions

Realized and unrealized gains and losses resulting from foreign currency transactions are included in net income.

Fair Value Measurement – Definition and Hierarchy

Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures establishes a classification hierarchy for inputs used in measuring fair value that maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs by requiring that the observable inputs be used when available. Observable inputs are those that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability based on market data obtained from sources independent of the Company. Unobservable inputs are those that reflect the Company’s assumptions about the inputs market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability based on the best information available in the circumstances. The classification hierarchy is broken down into three levels:

Level 1 – Fair value measurements based on quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company has access to and are not adjusted.

Level 2 – Fair value measurements based on inputs that are observable, both directly and indirectly, for instruments in markets that are not active (including those that are “thinly traded”) or have restrictions on their resale. Level 2 inputs include quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities that are in active markets, “as if” conversions for constrained instruments, discounts for trading volume constraints and others such as interest rates and yield curves that are obtainable at common intervals.

Level 3 – Fair value measurements based on valuation techniques that use significant inputs that are unobservable. Unobservable Level 3 inputs include commonly used pricing models, the Company’s internally developed data and assumptions for valuation methodology and other information used by the Company to assist in exercising judgment for instruments that fall into this level.

VISION FINANCIAL MARKETS LLC
NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION

NOTE 2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

The availability of observable inputs can vary from instrument to instrument and is affected by a wide variety of factors. This includes the type of instrument, whether the instrument is new and not yet established in the marketplace, and other characteristics particular to the transaction. To the extent that valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. Accordingly, the degree of judgment exercised by the Company in determining fair value is greatest for instruments categorized in Level 3. In certain cases, the inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, the instrument is reported in the lowest level that has a significant input. Even when inputs are not observable, the Company's own assumptions and methodologies are established to reflect those that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date. In addition, during periods of market dislocation, the observability of inputs may be reduced for many instruments. This condition could cause an instrument to be reclassified to a lower level within the fair value hierarchy.

Income Taxes

No federal, state or local income taxes have been provided on profits of the Company since the members are individually liable for the taxes on their share of the Company's income or loss. The Company is, however, subject to the New York City Unincorporated Business Tax and the Illinois Replacement Tax.

The Company accounts for income taxes under ASC 740, Income Taxes, which provides guidance related to the evaluation of uncertain tax positions. ASC 740 requires that management evaluate whether a tax position of the Company is "more-likely-than-not" to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, including resolutions of any related appeals or litigation process, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit to be recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. Derecognition of a tax benefit previously recognized could result in the Company recording a tax liability that would reduce members' capital.

Based on its analysis, management has concluded that no liability for unrecognized tax exposures should be recorded related to uncertain tax positions, including consideration of penalties and interest, for open tax years 2014, 2015, and 2016, or expected to be taken on the Company's 2017 tax returns. Management's conclusions regarding the Company's uncertain tax positions may be subject to review and adjustment at a later date based on factors including, but not limited to, on-going analyses of and changes to tax laws, regulations and interpretations thereof. Management does not expect that the total amount of unrecognized tax benefit will materially change over the next twelve months.

The Company has enhanced its procedures to protect it from this situation reoccurring.

Fair Value of Short-Term Financial Instruments

The carrying amount of cash; receivables/payables from customers and non-customers; receivables from brokers, dealers, and clearing organizations; payables to brokers, dealers, and clearing organizations; subordinated loans/secured demand notes; securities sold under agreements to repurchase; short-term borrowings; and accrued expenses approximate fair value because of the short maturity of these financial instruments. Additionally, the commitments (e.g., unused line of credit) will be funded at current market rates if drawn upon. Accordingly, the fair value of such commitments is considered to be the same as the commitment amount.

Securities Borrowed

The Company borrows securities from other broker-dealers to make deliveries or to facilitate customer short sales. Securities borrowed are accounted for as collateralized financings and are recorded at contract value, representing the amount of cash provided for securities borrowed transactions (generally in excess of market values). The adequacy of the collateral deposited for securities borrowed is continuously monitored and adjusted when considered necessary to minimize the risk associated with this activity. As of June 30, 2017, the contract value was $28,690,720 and the respective collateral market value of borrowed securities was approximately $26,800,000.

NOTE 9. CONTINGENCIES AND GUARANTEES

In the normal course of business, the Company is subject to various lawsuits and regulatory actions, including civil litigation, arbitration and reparation proceedings relating to its introducing brokers' and carried customer activities.

The Company is a contingent party to a bankruptcy proceeding dating back to August 2007. Management and internal legal counsel have reviewed the progress of the bankruptcy proceedings with the Trustee for the bankruptcy, and as a result, have determined that the Company's exposure has been substantially reduced at June 30, 2017. Accordingly, the Company reduced its reserve balance to $1.5 million as of this date and recorded a $10.5 million non-operating gain.

The Company is involved in various legal matters related to the calculation of reserve accounts and PAB accounts, AML, and compliance with prospectus delivery rules and requirements. Certain of these matters are being reviewed by regulatory agencies and management has concluded that it is probable that the Company may be impacted and therefore has provided for a $2 million reserve at June 30, 2017. In addition, the Company had guaranteed certain operations of a third party commodities broker through 2014 and as a result of an early-stage regulatory enforcement matter at this 3rd party, management has accrued an additional $2 million reserve at June 30, 2017. These reserves are included in Regulatory matters and professional fees for the year ended June 30, 2017.

The actual amounts of such fines, penalties, and guarantees are not yet known but the Company believes it is fully reserved at June 30, 2017.

NOTE 10. LEASE COMMITMENTS

The Company has two leases for office space as of June 30, 2017 with the following expirations: May 2019 and January 2023. 2022	136,704
2023	73,289
	$ 826,365

Rent expense incurred for the year ended June 30, 2017 was $198,432 net of High Ridge Futures LLC, reimbursement.

VISION FINANCIAL MARKETS LLC
NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION
JUNE 30, 2017

NOTE 11. EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN

The Company sponsors a savings plan under section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code. All eligible employees, as defined, may elect to contribute to the plan and are entitled, upon termination or retirement, to their vested portions of the assets held by the trustee. The Company matches contributions made by employees up to a specified limit. The Company contributed $32,578 for the year ended June 30, 2017.

NOTE 12. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS WITH OFF-BALANCE SHEET RISK

In the normal course of business, the Company's customer activities involve the execution, settlement, and financing of various securities transactions.

For securities, these activities may expose the Company to off-balance-sheet risk in the event the customer or other broker is unable to fulfill its contracted obligations and the Company has to purchase or sell the financial instrument underlying the contract at a loss. The Company's clearing agreements with broker-dealers for which it provides clearing services indemnify the Company if customers fail to satisfy their contractual obligation.

The Company's customer securities activities are transacted on either a cash or margin basis. In margin transactions, the Company extends credit to its customers, subject to various regulatory and internal margin requirements, collateralized by cash and securities in the customer's account. In connection with these activities, the Company executes and clears customer transactions involving the sale of securities not yet purchased, substantially all of which are transacted on a margin basis subject to individual exchange regulations. Such transactions may expose the Company to significant off-balance-sheet risk in the event margin requirements are not sufficient to fully cover losses that customers may incur. In the event the customer fails to satisfy its obligations, the Company may be required to purchase or sell financial instruments at prevailing market prices to fulfill the customer's obligations which could result in a loss to the Company. The Company seeks to control the risks associated with its customer activities by requiring customers to maintain margin collateral in compliance with various regulatory and internal guidelines. The Company monitors required margin levels daily, and pursuant to such guidelines, requires the customer to deposit additional collateral or to reduce positions when necessary.

The Company is engaged in various trading and brokerage activities in which counterparties primarily include broker-dealers, banks, and other financial institutions. In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the counterparty or issuer of the instrument. It is the Company's policy to review, as necessary, the credit standing of each counterparty.

The Company temporarily loans securities to other broker-dealers in connection with its business. The Company receives cash as collateral for the securities loaned. Increases in securities prices may cause the market value of the securities loaned to exceed the amount of cash received as collateral. In the event the counterparty to these transactions does not return the loaned securities, the Company may be exposed to the risk of acquiring the securities at prevailing market prices in order to satisfy its customer obligations.
