Form 10-K for Fiscal Year Ended June 30, 2023

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations
Financial Condition, Liquidity and Capital Resources
Cash Flows, page 45

1. You report you paid $54.3 million and $102.8 million more in interest and income taxes, respectfully, for fiscal 2023 than in fiscal 2022. However, you did not cite these as contributing factors in your analysis of changes in the reported amount of net operating cash flows. It appears these factors would materially affect your analysis. Please disclose all material factors affecting the reported amount of net operating cash flows between periods, including where material changes offset one another. Refer to Item 303 of Regulation S-K. Also refer to the introductory paragraph of section IV.B and all of section B.1 of Release No. 33-8350 for guidance regarding the analysis of operating cash flows. Further, quantify variance factors cited in all annual and interim period reports pursuant to section III.D of Release No. 33-6835.
