File No. 000-52785

Dear Ms. Whitlock:

We have reviewed your filing and have the following comments. We have limited our review of your filing to those issues we have addressed in our comments. Please provide a written response to our comments. Please be as detailed as necessary in your explanation. In some of our comments, we may ask you to provide us with information so we may better understand your disclosure. After reviewing this information, we may raise additional comments.

Please understand that the purpose of our review process is to assist you in your compliance with the applicable disclosure requirements and to enhance the overall disclosure in your filing. We look forward to working with you in these respects. We welcome any questions you may have about our comments or any other aspect of our review. Feel free to call us at the telephone numbers listed at the end of this letter.

Form 10-KSB For the Year Ended December 31, 2007

Item 8a. Controls and Procedures, page 12

1. We note that you do not disclose the conclusions of your principal executive and principal financial officers, regarding the effectiveness of your disclosure controls and procedures as of December 31, 2007. Given the omission of this disclosure, it appears evident that such controls and procedures were not effective. If you believe otherwise, we ask that you contact us by telephone to discuss your position in advance of your reply. Otherwise, please amend your filing to include the information required by Item 307 of Regulation S-B.

Form 10-QSB filed August 13, 2008

2. We note that your first and second 2008 quarterly reports on Form 10-QSB, not Form 10-Q. Beginning February 4, 2008, companies formerly classified as “small business issuers” under Regulation S-B must file their quarterly reports on Form 10-Q after they have filed an annual report for a fiscal year ending after December 15, 2007. Although small business issuers are now required to file on Form 10-Q, the disclosure requirements for that form are now tailored for smaller companies.

Although we are not asking you to correct your two most recent interim filings just to reflect the proper form type, we ask that you review your filing requirements and consider whether any action is necessary if your most recently filed quarterly report does not contain all required material information. In any event, you should file your next quarterly report on Form 10-Q, not Form 10-QSB.

Information about recent changes to rules affecting small business issuer form types and disclosure and filing requirements is available on the SEC website at <http://www.sec.gov/info/smallbus/secg/smrepcosysguid.pdf>. If you have any questions about these changes, please feel free to contact the SEC’s Office of Small Business Policy at (202) 551-3460 or smallbusiness@SEC.gov.

Closing Comments

Please respond to these comments within 10 business days or tell us when you will provide us with a response. Please furnish a letter that keys your responses to our comments and provides any requested information. Detailed letters greatly facilitate our review. Please understand that we may have additional comments after reviewing your responses to our comments.

We urge all persons who are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosure in the filing to be certain that the filing includes all information required under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and that they have provided all information investors require for an informed investment decision. Since the company and its management are in possession of all facts relating to a company’s disclosure, they are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosures they have made.

In connection with responding to our comments, please provide, in writing, a statement from the company acknowledging that:

- the company is responsible for the adequacy and accuracy of the disclosure in the filing;
- staff comments or changes to disclosure in response to staff comments do not foreclose the Commission from taking any action with respect to the filing; and
- the company may not assert staff comments as a defense in any proceeding initiated by the Commission or any person under the federal securities laws of the United States.

In addition, please be advised that the Division of Enforcement has access to all information you provide to the staff of the Division of Corporation Finance in our review of your filing or in response to our comments on your filing.
