

Item 1. Business.

General Development of Business

Valles Capital Management Group concept was developed in 2006 and incorporated to operate as an Arizona Corporation in January of 2007. The Group was formed as a closely held corporation to invest primarily in short and long-term US treasuries, varying the percentage of participation in short and long-term Treasuries as needed to meet targets set by management using both paid-in capital and paid-in capital surpluses. The guidelines management will be using are those set by the SEC governing Money Market funds and will be set so that VCMG IS NOT considered as a Money Market fund. The company will also offer wealth management counseling to the public. The company is raising $100 million dollars with a 200:1 raise of capital using a Form D rule 506 exemption after the filling this Form 10 registration statement. The basis of its common stock is based on par value of $0.05 per share. The total authorized number of shares to be issued is 10 million making the basis of the raise $500k resulting in a market value of $10 per share. Any paid in capital surplus of over $500k will result in an immediate increase in market price above the initial market value of $10 per share. The company intends to hold any property owned by the company free and clear of any type of loans and mortgages until converted to cash. The Group also intends to incorporate additional funds in the same manner further increasing the value of the company.

Financial Information about Segments

The group currently manages only a zero risk investment portfolio. The group does have plans to expand into several incorporated companies and held as subsidiaries, each incorporated with initial stock values based on par value. As of yet no further companies have been formed

Narrative Description of Business

The day-to-day operations of the group will consist of investing paid in capital and paid in capital surpluses of the company in short long-term treasuries maintaining the basis of the company with property held free and clear of any encumbrances. While the group does not intend to sell shares to the public, shareholders are currently free to sell shares at their discretion whenever the opportunity to do so arises. The selling of shares to the public will not be a segment utilized for revenue.

The group was formed as a privately held corporation. The corporation is un-affected by federal variances of interest rates. This is accomplished by minimum sales of corporate shares to margin accounts held by officers of the company. While the portfolios maintained by the group rely on interest rate to generate revenue, the value of the company is maintained over an extended period of time through the types of investments purchased. The group currently consists of only the 1 person, but plans predict the addition of several accountants and back office employees shortly.

Financial information about geographic areas

The corporation currently operates solely in the United State of America and is based in Phoenix, Arizona. VCMG has no other subsidiaries or counterparts in any country other than the US currently.

Reports to Security Holders

The earning level and number of shareholders of the corporation currently are below the requirements set by the SEC for reporting earning levels and number of shareholders. The corporation however has elected to submit quarterly and annual reports. This will aid in the dissemination of information to the general public.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

Lack of Operating History

The formation of the company provides little history of management's ability to manage the business. The lack of reportable earnings and a history showing ability to carryout the day-to-day duties to achieve the desired results of the company could prove to be the cause of losing value of shares if not total loss of investment.

Financial Position

The financial position of the company could be affected by the inexperience of management. While the immediate condition seems to be solid, the mismanagement of investments, working capital and other resources of the company could be lost.

Proposed Business

The risks associated with investing in short-term treasuries by a relatively new management team could prove to be the cause of loss of share value and loss of investment.

Lack of Market for Common Equity Securities

The risks associated with developing a market to provide an exit strategy for shareholders of the companies' common stock could prove to be the cause of loss of value of shares and total loss of investment.

Item 2. Financial Information.

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Full Fiscal Years

No information is available for any past full fiscal years of operation.

Liquidity

The liquidity of short-term treasuries in the open market will always be an option to satisfy any of the company immediate or emergency obligations. If ever the need to sell an amount of treasuries to satisfy capital requirements of the company or to distribute assets among shareholders the liquidity of these investments will be readily available. The liquidity of the initial basis depends entirely of the type the company uses.

Capital Resources

The capital resources of the company consist of shares owned by the corporation. The only commitments we expect on this resource are sales to the public to cover expenses and will invest 65% of fund proceeds in short-term zero risk investments and the remaining 35% in long-term zero risk investments.

Results of Operations

Results of operations will be affected by the federal interest rates and policies of the Federal Reserve. The group expects that interest rates will continue to maintain their current upward direction. The results depicted in the supplied operations statement are based on maintaining current interest rates as of April 3, 2007 for the entire period depicted n the statement.

Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Quantitative Information about Market Risk

| Investment Type | Year 1 | Year 2 | Year 3 | Year 4 | Year 5 |
|-----------------------------|--------|--------|--------|--------|--------|
| | | | | | |
| Trading Purposes | 65% | 65% | 65% | 65% | 65% |
| Other than Trading Purposes | 35% | 35% | 35% | 35% | 35% |

Investments entered into for trading purposes will be entered into primarily to generate revenue for the company. Investments entered into for purposes other than trading will be used to maintain the basis of the raise. The results of both are reflected in the annual earnings of the company.

Qualitative information about Market Risk

The entire portfolio has a material exposure of risk directly related to changes in short-term U.S. prime interest rates. However, the repayment of principle and interest upon maturity of the investment is fully guaranteed by the full faith and credit of the United States Government creating a zero-risk investment.
