FORM TH
NOTIFICATION OF RELIANCE ON
TEMPORARY HARDSHIP EXEMPTION

Exhibit "A"
EXPLANATION FOR RELIANCE ON
TEMPORARY HARDSHIP EXEMPTION

1. The description of the principal nature and extent of the temporary technical difficulty experienced by the electronic filer in attempting to submit the document in electronic format is that the Company does not have access to a computer on a regular basis, and, when the electronic filer is able to use the computer made available to it, the computer does not have, and the electronic filer is not permitted to download, the required software to transmit the filing over the EDGAR system.
2. The electronic filer was previously able to transmit its filings electronically; however, at that time, the electronic filer, either by itself or through one of its senior executive officers, had access to modern computer equipment that had all of the EDGAR software installed.
3. The electronic filer cannot file the subject document without unreasonable effort or expense. Firstly, the electronic filer's password is out-of-date, and the filer's principal executive officer and sole director does not have the money required to notarize the application to obtain a new password (the passcode having been lost or not in the possession of said officer and director). Secondly, the filer and its principal executive officer and director do not have the funds necessary to rent or otherwise use a computer that has installed on it the necessary EDGAR software.

The electronic filer considers these factors as sufficient for the Commission to grant the temporary exemption.

The electronic filer will be able to cause an electronic filing of the attached Form N-54C and this Form TH to be filed electronically using the customary and required means on or before December 31, 2011.
