REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Managing Member of
Spartan Capital Securities, LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Spartan Capital Securities, LLC, ("the Company") as of December 31, 2019, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the financial statement). In our opinion the financial statement presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2019 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of the entity's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audits we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion

Rosenfeld & Company P.C.

We have served as the Company's auditor since 2019.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT
DECEMBER 31, 2019

Note 1 - Organization and Business Activity

Spartan Capital Securities LLC (the "Company") is a limited liability company formed under the laws of the state of New York on June 26, 2007. On July 10, 2008, the Company became a broker dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member firm in the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company is registered in all 50 states.

The Company's operations consist primarily of engaging in agency and riskless principal transactions and providing investment banking services. As a full-service brokerage firm, the Company offers a wide array of products to its clients.

The Company has an agreement with a broker-dealer ("clearing broker") to clear transactions, carry customers' accounts on a fully-disclosed basis and perform record keeping functions and, consequently, operates under the exemptive provisions of SEC Rule 15c3-3k(2)(ii) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("SEA").

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared from the separate records maintained by the Company and due to certain transactions and agreements with affiliated entities, such financial statements may not necessarily be indicative of the financial condition that would have existed or the results that would have been obtained from operations had the Company operated as an unaffiliated entity. (See Note 3).

Note 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation - These financial statements are presented on the accrual basis of accounting under general accepted accounting principles in the United States of America ("US GAAP").

Cash and Cash Equivalents – For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company has defined cash equivalents as highly liquid investments, with maturities at purchase of less than three months.

Revenue Recognition – In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2014-09, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606)." The ASU is a converged standard between the FASB and the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) that provides a single comprehensive revenue recognition model for all contracts with customers across transactions and industries. The primary objective of the ASU is revenue recognition that represents the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. ASU 2014-09, as amended in August 2015 by ASU No. 2015-14 is effective for registered broker dealers for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

Revenue Recognition (continued) - The Company adopted ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, on January 1, 2018. The Company recognizes revenue when (or as) services are transferred to clients. Revenue is recognized based on the amount of consideration that management expects to receive in exchange for these services in accordance with the terms of the contract with the client. To determine the amount and timing of revenue recognition, the Company must (i) identify the contract with the client, (2) identify the performance obligations in the contract, (3) determine the transaction price, (4) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and (5) recognize revenue when (or as) the Company satisfies a performance obligation.

Commissions – The Company buys and sells securities on behalf of its customers. Each time a customer enters into a buy or sell transaction; the Company charges a commission. Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on the trade date (the date that the Company fills the trade order by finding and contracting with a counterparty and confirms the trade with the customer). The Company believes that the performance obligation is satisfied on the trade date because that is when the underlying financial instrument or purchaser is identified, the pricing is agreed upon and the risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to/from the customer.

Investment banking fees – Consist of advisory and consulting services on strategic matters, including mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, leveraged buyouts, restructurings and similar corporate finance matters. Revenue is generally recognized at the point in time that performance under the arrangement is completed (the closing date of the transaction) or the contract is cancelled. However, for certain contracts, revenue is recognized over time for advisory arrangements in which the performance obligations are simultaneously provided by the Company and consumed by the customer. In some circumstances, significant judgment is needed to determine the timing and measure of progress appropriate for revenue recognition under a specific contract.

Placement fees – Consists of investment banking advisory and consulting services related to and including raising capital for companies through Private Placement offerings. Revenue is generally recognized at various milestones / closings with a the corresponding escrow release of the net investment proceeds to the company raising capital and of the associated fees or other compensation to Company.

Other income – Consists of revenue from various non-recurring sources such as capital gains, clearing broker incentive credits and others. Other income revenues are recognized as earned and any related costs are recognized as incurred.

Interest income - Consists of revenues from margin interest on accounts of customers introduced to the Company's clearing broker. The accounting for these revenues is not impacted by Topic 606 as they fall out of its scope.

Receivables

Clearing broker - Pursuant to an agreement with the Company's clearing organization, the clearing organization remits a commission payment to the Company during the month subsequent to the trade date. The Company did not incur any bad debts from the clearing organization during 2019.

Investment banking fee - Pursuant to a confidential settlement agreement in connection with a 2017 investment banking transaction, the Company is to receive quarterly payments of $200,000 plus accrued interest through April 1, 2019. In 2018, only one $200,000 payment was received in January 2018. Subsequent payments have not been received per the terms of the agreement, however, Management continues to act to protect its interest in this receivable. Although Management still expects to fully collect this receivable, based on current available information, an allowance for doubtful accounts in the full amount of the $1,000,000 receivable has been recorded on the Company's financial statements as of December 31, 2019.

Fixed Assets - Fixed assets are recorded at cost. Depreciation on office furniture and computer equipment is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Leasehold improvements are amortized using the straight-line method based on the lesser of the useful life or the term of the lease. At December 31, 2019, fixed assets are comprised of the following:

	Cost	Useful Life
Office Furniture	$ 292,698	7 years
Computer Equipment	462,952	5 years
Leasehold Improvements	75,807	5 years
	831,457
Less: accumulated depreciation	(147,519)
	$ 683,938

Income Taxes - The Company is a single member limited liability company; accordingly no provision has been made in the accompanying financial statements for any federal, state or local income taxes. The results of the operations of the Company flow to the member. The Company is subject to New York State and New York City Franchise Taxes.

The Company believes that it has no uncertain tax positions and accordingly, no liability has been recorded. The Company continually evaluates expiring statutes of limitations, audits, proposed settlements, changes in tax law, and new authoritative rulings. The 2016, 2017 and 2018 tax years of the Company remain subject to examination by U.S. Federal and certain state and local tax authorities.

Use of Estimates in Financial Statements - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management of the Company to use estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Subsequent Events - Subsequent events were considered through March 31, 2020, which is the date of the financial statements were available to be issued.

Note 3 - Related Party Transactions

The Company is obligated to Spartan Capital Holdings LLC, its parent, under an administrative services agreement, (the “Agreement”). The Agreement provides the Company with the non-exclusive right to use office space and all office fixtures and equipment suitable and customary for the conduct of its activities and certain operating expenses. There are no amounts due to or due from the parent at December 31, 2019. The most recent amendment to this Agreement is dated December 31, 2016. This Agreement is currently under review and will be updated during the first half of 2020.

Note 4 – Loans receivable

During 2019, the Company executed several promissory notes with new independent registered representatives. Each promissory note shall be due and payable to the Company within two to five years of execution. Payment of these notes shall be accelerated and shall become immediately due in the event that the registered representative is no longer continuously registered with the Company as a FINRA licensed general securities representative. All notes bear interest at 10% per annum on the outstanding principal balance. In the event that the registered representative remains with the Company until expiration of the promissory note, then all principal and interest on the note shall be deemed as satisfaction of the note.

Included in loans receivable are amounts due from the Company’s registered representative for advances on commissions. Occasionally a registered representative does not earn enough commissions to cover the advance, the amount then becomes payable to the Company. There are no terms associated with these advances.

As of December 31, 2019, the loans receivable balance of $1,188,183 consisted of promissory notes of $688,833 and loan advances of $499,350.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT
DECEMBER 31, 2019

Note 5 – Subordinated loans

During November 2019, the Company entered into a subordinated loan agreement in the amount of $250,000 with Axos Securities, LLC (“AXOS”) one of the Company’s clearing brokers. The Company promises to pay the principal amount of $250,000 plus interest at 10% on the unpaid principal amount. On the one year anniversary of the agreement, AXOS will forgive $50,000 of the principal plus interest provided the terms in agreement are met. Thereafter AXOS will forgive the debt as follows: November 2021, $50,000, November 2022, $50,000, November 2023, $50,000 and November 2024, $50,000.

During December 2019, the Company entered into an additional subordinated loan agreement with AXOS. The Company promises to pay the principal amount of $850,000 plus interest on the unpaid balance amount of 10% per annum on the maturity date of December 31, 2024. On the one year anniversary of the agreement AXOS will forgive $170,000 of the principal plus interest provided the terms in agreement are met. Thereafter AXOS will forgive the debt as follows: December 2021 $170,000, December 2022 $170,000, December 2023 $170,000 and December 2024 $170,000.

As of December 31, 2019, the subordinated loans balance amount to $1,100,000.

Note 6 - Net Capital Requirement

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c-3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness, to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 (and that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1). As of December 31, 2019 the Company had net capital of $859,669, which was $759,669 in excess of its required net capital of $100,000. The Company’s ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 1.2 to 1 as of December 31, 2019.

Note 7 - Contingencies and Accrued Liabilities

The Company, pursuant to its clearance agreement, introduces all of its securities transactions to its broker on a fully-disclosed basis. All of the customers’ money balances and long and short security positions are carried on the books of the clearing broker. In accordance with the clearing agreement, the Company has agreed to indemnify the clearing broker for losses, which the clearing broker may sustain from carrying securities transactions introduced by the Company. In accordance with industry practice and regulatory requirements, the Company and the clearing broker monitor collateral on customers’ accounts. As of December 31, 2019, the Company had unsecured debits on accounts of its customers totaling $75,072. The clearing broker’s policy is to charge the Company if any uncollected debts are outstanding longer than 45 days.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

ASC 450 Contingencies governs the disclosure and recognition of loss contingencies, including potential losses from litigation and regulatory matters. ASC 450 defines a “loss contingency” as “an existing condition, situation, or set of circumstances involving uncertainty as to possible loss to an entity that will ultimately be resolved when one or more future events occur or fail to occur.” It imposes different requirements for the recognition and disclosure of loss contingencies based on the likelihood of occurrence of the contingent future event or events. It distinguishes among degrees of likelihood using the following three terms: “probable,” meaning that “the future event or events are likely to occur”; “remote,” meaning that “the chance of the future event or events occurring is slight”; and “reasonably possible,” meaning that “the chance of the future event or events occurring is more than remote but less than likely.” These three terms are used below as defined in ASC 450. In establishing appropriate disclosure and recognition for loss contingencies, management assesses each matter, and requires management to make certain estimates and judgments that may affect the Company’s financial position.

In the normal course of business, the Company is party to a number of lawsuits and legal matters. At December 31, 2019 there are several pending claims against the Company seeking various damages, including punitive damages, reimbursement of legal fees and other asserted claims. An estimate of loss or range of loss cannot be made for lawsuits whereby management and legal counsel believe the outcome is uncertain. The Company’s policy is to reserve for costs related to contingencies when a loss is probable, and the amount is reasonably estimable. As December 31, 2019, in the opinion of management, after consultation with outside legal counsel, there were no commitments, contingencies or guarantees for which a loss is probable and estimable within the scope of ASC 450 other than those accrued for in the Company’s December 31, 2019 financial statements. However, litigation is subject to inherent uncertainties, and a material adverse result in these or other matters may arise from time to time.

The Company’s operations and financial performance may be affected by the recent coronavirus outbreak which has spread globally and is expected to adversely affect economic conditions throughout the world. If the outbreak continues and conditions worsen, the Company may experience a disruption in operations as well as a decline in revenue activities. The outbreak is likely to adversely affect the Company’s business, financial conditions and results of operations on an interim basis.

Note 8 - Financial Instruments with Off-Balance Sheet Risk

The Company’s introduced customers’ securities activities are transacted on either a cash or margin basis. In margin transactions, the Company’s clearing broker extends credit to customers, subject to various regulatory and internal margin requirements, collateralized by cash and securities in the customers’ accounts. As a result of guaranteeing customer margin balances carried by the clearing broker, the Company may be exposed to off-balance sheet risk in the event margin requirements are not sufficient to fully cover losses which customers may incur. Margin accounts totaled $17,332,930 at December 31, 2019.

(A WHOLLY OWNED SUBSIDIARY OF SPARTAN CAPITAL HOLDINGS LLC)

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

Note 8 - Financial Instruments with Off-Balance Sheet Risk (continued)

Additionally, the Company is exposed to off-balance sheet risk of loss on transactions during the period from the trade date to the settlement date, which is generally two business days. If customers fail to satisfy its contractual obligations to the clearing broker, the Company may have to purchase or sell financial instruments at prevailing market prices in order to fulfill the customers' obligations. Settlement of open transactions at December 31, 2019 did not have a material effect on the Company's financial position.

The Company seeks to control the risks associated with its customer's activities by requiring customers to maintain margin collateral in compliance with various regulatory and clearing broker guidelines. The Company and its clearing broker monitor required margin levels daily and, pursuant to such guidelines, require customers to deposit additional collateral or to reduce positions, when necessary.

Note 9 - Employee Benefit Plan

The Company has adopted a defined contribution 401(k) profit sharing plan for substantially all of its employees that have attained the age of 21 and have completed 12 months of service. The Company, at its discretion, may make contributions to the plan based upon a percentage of employee contributions.

Note 10 - Concentrations

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash, investment banking receivable and receivable from clearing broker. The Company maintains its cash in bank accounts with balances which may, at times, exceed Federal insured limits. Exposure to credit risk is reduced by placing such deposits in high quality financial institutions. Concentration of credit risk with respect to receivable from clearing broker is limited due to the quality of the clearing broker.
