NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2017

1. SUMMARY OF OPERATIONS AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Operations – RCH Securities, LLC (the “Company”), a wholly owned subsidiary of Retirement Clearinghouse, LLC (the “Parent”), is a limited liability company that operates as a registered broker dealer. As a registered broker dealer, the Company’s principal business is the distribution and servicing of mutual fund-based Individual Retirement Accounts (“IRA”) to individual investors that choose to move their qualified savings from a 401(k) or other qualified retirement plan into an IRA. The Company does not take title to, or control of, any securities. The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Agency (“FINRA”).

Estimates – The preparation of financial statement in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of certain assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, the actual amounts could differ from those estimates.

Cash – The Company maintains cash deposits with financial institutions which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”).

Income Taxes – The Company is a limited liability company that is taxed as a partnership for federal and state income tax purposes. The Company's single member is also a limited liability company that is taxed as a partnership for federal and state income tax purposes. As a result, income or loss of the Company is considered income of the members of Retirement Clearinghouse, LLC and no income or loss tax provision is recorded by the Company. The Company has determined that it does not have any material unrecognized tax benefits or obligations as of December 31, 2017.

Subsequent Events – The Company evaluated the effect subsequent events would have on the financial statement through February 14, 2018, which is the date the financial statement was issued.

New Accounting Pronouncements – In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606). ASU 2014-09 is a comprehensive new revenue recognition model that requires a company to recognize revenue to depict the transfer of goods or services to a customer at an amount that reflects the consideration it expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. ASU 2014-09 also requires additional disclosure about the nature amount timing uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from customer contracts, including significant judgments and changes in judgments and assets recognized from costs incurred to obtain or fulfill a contract. ASU 2014-09 is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017, including interim reporting periods within that reporting year, with earlier adoption permitted for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2016. ASU 2014-09 may be applied using either a full retrospective approach, under which all years included in the financial statements will be presented under the revised guidance, or a modified retrospective approach, under which financial statements will be presented under the revised guidance, or a modified retrospective approach, under which financial statements will be prepared under the revised guidance for the year of adoption, but not for prior years. Under the latter method, entities would recognize a cumulative catch-up adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings at the effective date for contracts that still require performance by the entity, and disclose all line items in the year of adoption as if they were prepared under the old revenue guidance.

The Company adopted the standard as of January 1, 2018.
