Dear Mr. Buntz:

We have reviewed your filing and have the following comments. Where indicated, we think you should revise your document in response to these comments. If you disagree, we will consider your explanation as to why our comment is inapplicable or a revision is unnecessary. Please be as detailed as necessary in your explanation. In some of our comments, we may ask you to provide us with information so we may better understand your disclosure. After reviewing this information, we may raise additional comments.

Please understand that the purpose of our review process is to assist you in your compliance with the applicable disclosure requirements and to enhance the overall disclosure in your filing. We look forward to working with you in these respects. We welcome any questions you may have about our comments or any other aspect of our review. Item 1. Description of Business, page 1

2. We note that parts of the business section appear promotional, rather than factual, and should be revised to remove all promotional statements. No speculative information should be included, unless clearly labeled as the opinion of management of the company along with disclosure of the reasonable basis for such opinions or beliefs. If a reasonable basis cannot be provided, the statements should be removed. Please revise accordingly.
3. Please provide us with support for all quantitative and qualitative business and industry data used in the registration statement. We note on page 1, for example, and without limitation, the following examples:
 - “The average home in the Twin Cities metropolitan area (Minnesota) sells for nearly $300,000 and the average brokerage commission on residential real estate transactions is 6%.”
 - “Often the only value perceived by the consumer in hiring a real estate agent is obtaining a listing on the Multiple Listing Service.”
 - “In 77% of the nationwide residential real estate transactions in 2005, the buyer itself found the home on the internet.”
 - “Of course, the most critical aspect driving this change is the advent of the internet as a tool for searching for and researching real estate, eliminating the commitments of time and expense involved with visiting multiple properties in person.”
 - “[T]he percentage of home buyers using the internet to search for homes increased from 41% in 2001 to 80% in 2006. ... [T]he percentage of California home sellers using the internet in the sale process increased from 9% in 2002 to 62% in 2006.”

Clearly mark the specific language in the supporting materials that supports each statement. Further, please tell us if any of the supporting materials were prepared specifically for you in connection with this offering.

4. Please do not utilize terms such as “seamlessly” and “high touch” as they are jargon. Please revise throughout the registration statement to clearly explain these terms. In addition, please do not use technical terms or industry jargon in your explanations.
