4. We note your company's indication that James Lynch is a founder of the company, but the Change of Control section on page 1 indicates that he is not. Please correct in future filings.
5. With a view towards future disclosure, please tell us whether you currently have any patents pending. Refer to Item 101(h)(4)(viii) of Regulation S-K.

Form 10-Q for the Fiscal Quarter Ended September 30, 2013

Item 1. Financial Statements

Note 5 – Convertible Promissory Note, page 13

11. Based on the conversion terms of the convertible promissory notes you issued and on the market price of your stock during the period, as well as the cash price paid for shares you issued during the period, it appears to us that these notes include a beneficial conversion feature that does not appear to be accounted for in your financial statements. Please explain to us how you determined your accounting for the convertible promissory notes is appropriate and complies with ASC 470-20. This comment is also applicable to the convertible promissory notes you issued during FY 2012.

Note 6 – Asset and Business Acquisition, page 15

12. We note your disclosure that Media Rhythm operates a marketing and advertising business that primarily caters to sports media such as magazines and websites and that James Lynch, your President, Chief Executive Officer, Secretary, and sole Director is the President and sole shareholder of Media Rhythm. In regard to your recent acquisition of Media Rhythm, please address the following:
- Amend your Form 8-K to provide the historical and pro forma financial statements required by Rules 8-04 and 8-05 of Regulation S-X;
 - Since the acquisition is a non-cash transaction, it does not appear to us that it is appropriate to present it in your statement of cash flows based on the provisions of ASC 230-10-50-3; and
 - Since the acquisition results in significant goodwill, provide the disclosures required by ASC 805-30-50. Specifically address how the purchase price was determined and why the amount of goodwill recorded is so significant to the purchase price. Also, address if and how you assessed the goodwill for impairment.

We urge all persons who are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosure in the filing to be certain that the filing includes the information the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and all applicable Exchange Act rules require. Since the company and its management are
