Entrex provides update for interested parties

Boca Raton, Fla., September 17, 2021: Entrex (OTC: UNSS) today announces it has provided investors and interested parties an “Entrex Minute” which updates various initiatives including corporate, business and merger updates.

“On behalf of Entrex’s Board and Management we wanted to provide and update for shareholders and interested parties on our internal initiatives and the finalization of our merger - pending CE removal by OTC Markets,” said Stephen H. Watkins, CEO of Entrex and Entrex Carbon Market, a majority owned subsidiary of Entrex, Inc.

Watkins continues: “The Entrex Carbon Market anticipates the closing of its first ‘COPRe’ or Carbon Offset Producing Real Estate properties with the Environmental Land Conservatory, LLC in October. This transaction is expected to be followed by a series of similar properties which are all expected to be transacted as 1031 tax deferred real estate transactions.”

Paul D. Landrew, Chairman of UNSS adds, “As reflected, the company is current on all OTC Markets Filings and Disclosures. OTC Markets continues its review of the UNSS file with positive progress noted. The anticipated removal of the CE will certainly allow the company to move forward at an accelerated pace towards building and scaling various Entrex market places.”

This month’s launch of our Entrex corporate website (www.entrex.net) which supports our Entrex Carbon Market (www.EntrexCarbonMarket.com), Entrex Florida Market (www.EntrexFloridaMarket.com) and our Entrex Art Market (www.EntrexArtMarket.com). Each website shares the vision and mission of each marketplace focus. We believe our marketing team has provided a clear and concise message for the various initiatives,” Watkins continued.
