PARAMAX SECURITIES, LLC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2023

Note 1 - Nature of business:

Paramax Securities, LLC (the “Company”), was organized in May 2007 as a New York limited liability company. The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Paramax Corporation (“Parent” or “Member”), a New York corporation. The Company is registered as a broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (“FINRA”) and Securities Investor Protection Corp. (“SIPC”).

The Company is considered a Non-Covered Firm exempt from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3 relying on Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5. The Company limits its business activities exclusively to receiving transaction-based compensation for identifying potential merger and acquisition opportunities for clients.

The Company’s operations consist primarily in providing merger and acquisition services, through referrals from its Parent, to early stage and growth stage entities located throughout the United States.

Note 2 – Summary of significant accounting policies:

Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of the assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue recognition:

Revenue from contracts with customers includes advisory services on mergers and acquisitions (M&A). The recognition and measurement of revenue is based on the assessment of individual contract terms. Significant judgment is required to determine whether performance obligations are satisfied at a point in time or over time; how to allocate transaction prices where multiple performance obligations are identified; when to recognize revenue based on the appropriate measure of the Company’s progress under the contract; and whether constraints on variable consideration should be applied due to uncertain future events.

Revenue for M&A advisory arrangements is generally recognized at the point in time that performance under the arrangement is completed, generally the closing date of the transaction.

DECEMBER 31, 2023

Note 2 – Summary of significant accounting policies (continued):

Income taxes:

The Company is a single member limited liability company and is disregarded for federal income tax purposes. The Company's taxable income or loss is included in the tax return of its Parent. The Parent has elected to be taxed under the provisions of Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code, resulting in all the federal tax liabilities or benefits relating to the operations of the Company and the Parent passing through to the individual shareholder of the Parent; therefore, federal income taxes are not payable by, or provided for, the Company.

Note 3 – Net capital requirement:

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Rule 15c3-1 also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2023, the Company had net capital of $14,046, which was $9,046 in excess of its net capital requirement of $5,000. The Company's net capital ratio was .05 to 1.

Note 4 - Related party transactions/Concentration/Economic dependency:

The Company is under the control of the Parent and is economically dependent on the Parent. The existence of that control and dependency creates operating results and financial position significantly different than if the Companies were autonomous. Transactions between the Company and the Parent were not consummated on terms equivalent to arm's length transactions.

The Company provides merger and acquisition services through referrals from its Parent. During 2023, the Company earned all of its merger and acquisition services revenue through referrals from its Parent.

The Company made distributions totaling $2,495,000 to the Member during the year.

The sole shareholder of the Parent, who is also an officer and registered securities representative of the Company, generated approximately 34% of the Company's revenue and accounted for approximately 34% of the Company's compensation and related costs for the year. The Company is economically dependent upon this individual due to the concentration of services provided.

The Parent acts as a common paymaster for the Company and regularly pays payroll and other costs on behalf of the Company, which the Company settles on a regular basis.

Note 4 - Related party transactions/Concentration/Economic dependency (continued):

The Company is a participating employer in a 401(k) plan offered by its Parent. The plan covers substantially all employees. Under this plan, employees may make elective contributions as allowed under federal law and the Company may make matching and discretionary contributions. For the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company made matching contributions of $22,837, which are included in compensation and related costs in the accompanying statement of operations.

The Company and its Parent have entered into an office and administrative services agreement ("Agreement") effective September 1, 2013, for a one-year term, automatically renewable, unless canceled by either Party. The Agreement has automatically renewed through August 31, 2024. Under the Agreement the Parent provides management and back office services required by the Company, including, but not limited to administrative services, office space, office equipment and supplies, payroll (excluding commissions), marketing, sales, legal and accounting services. The Agreement required the Company to pay a proportional allocation services fee of $4,548 per month for 2023. Fees under the Agreement totaled $54,586 for the year ended December 31, 2023.

Note 5 – Concentration of credit risk:

At various times during the year the Company maintains cash balances at one national bank in excess of federally insured amounts. Cash balances fluctuate on a daily basis. At December 31, 2023, there was no uninsured Cash.

Note 6 – Contingencies:

There are currently no asserted claims or legal proceedings against the Company, however, the nature of the Company's business subjects it to various claims, regulatory examinations, and other proceedings in the ordinary course of business. The ultimate outcome of any such future action against the Company could have an adverse impact on the financial condition, results of operations, or cash flows of the Company.

Note 7 – Subsequent events:

Management has evaluated the Company's events and transactions that occurred subsequent to December 31, 2023, through January 19, 2024, the date which the financial statements were available to be issued.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based upon the Company's business activities contemplated by Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5, and related SEC Staff Frequently Asked Questions.
