Bond Lane Partners, LLC

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2019

1. Organization and Nature of Business

Bond Lane Partners, LLC (the Company) is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and became a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) on August 24, 2009. The Company was organized as a California limited liability company (LLC).

The Company engages in the business of structuring private placements of both debt and equity securities, on the client's behalf, and acts as a mergers and acquisitions consultant on a fee for service basis in the digital media industry.

Since the Company is a limited liability company, the member is not liable for the debts, obligations, or liabilities of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, unless the member has signed a specific guarantee.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of presentation

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual basis of accounting for financial reporting purposes, which is in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles which is required by the SEC and FINRA.

The Company is engaged in a single line of business as a securities broker-dealer.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue from contracts with customers

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with ASU 2014-09 Revenue from Contracts with Customers and all subsequent amendments to the ASU (collectively, "ASC 606"). Under ASC 606 revenue is recognized upon satisfaction of performance obligations by transferring control over goods or service to a customer.

The Company provides consulting services for: mergers and acquisitions (M&A), corporate finance, and strategic planning. Revenue for consulting arrangements is recognized at the point in time that performance obligations under the arrangement is completed. Contracts may contain nonrefundable retainer fees which are typically fixed and/or success fees which may be fixed or represent a percentage of value that the customer receives if and when the related corporate finance activity is completed. In some cases, there is also an "announcement fee" that is calculated on the date that a transaction is announced based on the price included in the underlying sale agreement. The retainer fees, announcement fee, or other milestone fees reduce any success fee subsequently invoiced and received upon the completion of the corporate finance activity. The Company has evaluated its nonrefundable retainer payments, to ensure its fee relates to the transfer of a good or service, as a distinct performance obligation, in exchange for the retainer. If a promised good or service is not distinct, the Company combines that good or service with other promised goods or services until it identifies a bundle of goods or services that is distinct. In some cases, that would result in the broker-dealer accounting for all the services promised in a contract as a single performance obligation and the retainer revenue is classified as deferred revenue on the Statement of Financial Condition. There was no deferred revenue as of December 31, 2019.

Accounts receivable

Accounts receivable is comprised of consulting fees and are all considered collectible by the Company, no allowance is considered necessary.

Office equipment

Office equipment is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis. The Company capitalizes all major additions and depreciates over a five-year period. Depreciation expense was $887 for the year-ended December 31, 2019.

Income taxes

The Company is a limited liability company and as such, is not required to file its own tax return. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes is provided in the financial statements as they are the responsibility of the individual member.

The Company has adopted the provisions of FASB Accounting Standards Codification 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. Under FASB ASC 740-10, the Company is required to evaluate each of its tax positions to determine if they are more likely than not to be sustained if the taxing authority examines the respective position. A tax position includes an entity's status and the decision not to file a return. The Company has evaluated each of its tax positions and has determined that it has no uncertain tax positions for which a provision or liability for income taxes is necessary.

The member files income tax returns in the U.S. in both federal jurisdiction and state jurisdictions.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Accounting standards

The Company is evaluating new accounting standards and will implement as required.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Company defines cash equivalents as highly liquid investments with original maturities of less than 90 days that are not held for sale in the ordinary course of business.

3. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Rule 15c3-1 also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. As of December 31, 2019, the Company had net capital of $287,744 which was $282,744 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 0.04 to 1.

4. Commitments

Leases

The Company recognizes and measures its leases in accordance with FASB ASC 842, Leases. The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease, or contains a lease, at inception of a contract and when the terms of an existing contract are changed. The Company recognizes a lease liability and a right of use (ROU) asset at the commencement date of the lease. The lease liability is initially and subsequently recognized based on the present value of its future lease payments. Variable payments are included in the future lease payments when those variable payments depend on an index or a rate. The discount rate is the implicit rate if it is readily determinable or otherwise the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate. The Company's incremental borrowing rate for a lease is the rate of interest it would have to pay on a collateralized basis to borrow an amount equal to the lease payments under similar terms and in a similar economic environment. The ROU asset is subsequently measured throughout the lease term at the amount of the remeasured lease liability (i.e., present value of the remaining lease payments), plus unamortized initial direct costs, plus (minus) any prepaid (accrued) lease payments, less the unamortized balance of lease incentives received, and any impairment recognized. Lease cost for lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Company has elected, for all underlying classes of assets, to not recognize ROU assets and lease liabilities for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less at lease commencement, and do not include an option to purchase the underlying asset that the Company is reasonably certain to exercise. We recognize lease cost associated with our short-term leases on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Company leases office space pursuant to a month-to-month lease. The Company's rent expense for the year ended December 31, 2019 was $31,242.

5. Concentration

90% of the Company's revenue for the year ended December 31, 2019 was earned from two customers.

6. Subsequent Events

The Company evaluated subsequent events through February 19, 2020, the date the financial statements were issued. The Company did not identify any material subsequent events requiring adjustment to or disclosure in its financial statements.
