Offering Statement

Respond to each question in each paragraph of this part. Set forth each question and any notes, but not any instructions thereto, in their entirety. If disclosure in response to any question is responsive to one or more other questions, it is not necessary to repeat the disclosure. If a question or series of questions is inapplicable or the response is available elsewhere in the Form, either state that it is inapplicable, include a cross-reference to the responsive disclosure, or omit the question or series of questions.

Be very careful and precise in answering all questions. Give full and complete answers so that they are not misleading under the circumstances involved. Do not discuss any future performance or other anticipated event unless you have a reasonable basis to believe that it will actually occur within the foreseeable future. If any answer requiring significant information is materially inaccurate, incomplete or misleading, the Company, its management and principal shareholders may be liable to investors based on that information.

You should include an explanation of these circumstances in a footnote to the "Number of and Class of Securities Now Held." RISK FACTORS

A crowdfunding investment involves risk. You should not invest any funds in this offering unless you can afford to lose your entire investment.

In making an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of the issuer and the terms of the offering, including the merits and risks involved. These securities have not been recommended or approved by any federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority. Furthermore, these authorities have not passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this document.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of any securities offered or the terms of the offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature.

These securities are offered under an exemption from registration; however, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not made an independent determination that these securities are exempt from registration.

8. Discuss the material factors that make an investment in the issuer speculative or risky:

The Company plans on expanding its business in further research stages and eventually through the introduction of commercialization and marketing campaign. Any expansion of operations the Company may undertake will entail risks. Such actions may involve specific operational activities, which may negatively impact the profitability of the Company. Consequently, shareholders must assume the risk that (i) such expansion may ultimately involve expenditures of funds beyond the resources available to the Company at that time, and (ii) management of such expanded operations may divert Management's attention and resources away from its existing operations, all of which factors may have a material adverse effect on the Company's present and prospective business activities.

While we believe we have a good chance of success, net power from fusion has not yet been achieved by anyone, and it's entirely possible that unexpected problems will arise. We won't know for sure until the experiments are complete. It's possible that the plasma won't behave the way we expect. There may also be engineering difficulties which delay the tests.

Even if we achieve net energy production in a laboratory device, we may not be able to overcome the engineering challenges to produce a working prototype generator. Heat removal is a significant engineering challenge and while this now appears possible within existing technology, it is near the limit of that technology. The x-ray collection device has never been built and unexpected difficulties may arise with that as well.

If a prototype generator is achieved, commercialization will be a remaining hurdle. Significant commercial interests in existing energy sources may be able to delay such commercialization. Many other competitors may well take a large share of the market for our devices, in regions not covered by our patents, by challenging the patents, or by ignoring them.

The Company has significant competition in the existing energy industry, and some of these competitors have significant resource bases with which to compete. In the particular field of fusion energy, other proposed fusion devices are in various phases of development, although no project has demonstrated net power generation yet. Primary competitors include General Fusion and TAE.

The Company is still in the R&D phase and has no profits to date. It has been financed primarily by investment. Losses to date have been a significant fraction of total investment, and have been over $8 million. Such losses are expected to continue until licenses in the Company's technology are sold, which is projected to occur no sooner than 2025. Delays in the sale of such licenses could lead to continued losses.

In the early stages of development, the Company's business will be significantly dependent on the Company's management and scientific team. The Company's success will be mainly dependent upon Eric J. Lerner, and his loss could have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Inadequacy of Funds

If we are able to raise the full amount we are seeking to raise in this offering, we believe that such proceeds will capitalize and sustain us sufficiently to allow for the implementation of our business plans. If, however, we are unable to raise the full amount we are seeking, or if certain assumptions made by management are incorrect, we may have inadequate funds to fully develop our business and may need to raise additional capital through equity or debt financings, which may not be available on favorable terms, or at all.

Terms of Subsequent Financings

We may need to engage in other common equity, debt, or preferred stock financing in the future. As a result of these additional offerings, your rights and the value of your investment in the Class B Common Stock could be reduced. Interest on debt securities could increase costs and negatively impact operating results. Preferred stock could be issued in series from time to time with such designations, rights, preferences, and limitations as needed to raise capital. The terms of preferred stock could be more advantageous to those investors than to the holders of Class B Common Stock. In addition, if we need to raise additional equity capital from the sale of Class B Common Stock, institutional or other investors may negotiate terms at least as, and possibly more, favorable than the terms of your investment, including, a lower purchase price.

Our business strategy depends on the widespread adoption of our technology

We do not have an existing customer base, and do not anticipate the development of a customer base until we have proven our technology. While we believe we can develop a customer base, our inability to do so could have a material adverse effect on us. Although we believe that our products may eventually offer advantages over competitive companies and products, no assurance can be given that our products will attain a degree of market acceptance on a sustained basis or that we will generate revenues sufficient for sustained profitable operations.

We Face Intense Competition

We compete with major and widely used and existing power generation facilities and devices, public utilities and alternative energy companies. Our primary competitors in the alternative energy space include General Fusion and TAE in the specific field of fusion energy, other proposed fusion devices are in various phases of development, although no project has demonstrated net energy production yet. Most of our current and potential competitors have greater market recognition and customer bases, longer operating histories and substantially greater financial, technical, marketing, distribution, purchasing, manufacturing, personnel and other resources than we do. If we fail to compete successfully, our business would suffer and we may lose or be unable to gain market share.

Developing New Products and Technologies Entails Significant Risks

We are currently in the research and development stage. Delays or cost overruns in the development of our technology and failure of the product to meet our performance estimates may be caused by, among other things, unanticipated technological hurdles, difficulties in manufacturing, changes to design and regulatory hurdles. Any of these events could materially and adversely affect our operating performance and results of operations.

If We do not Retain Key Personnel, Our Business Will Suffer

The success of our business is heavily dependent on the leadership of our key management personnel, specifically Eric J. Lerner and Ivy Karamitsos. If any of these people were to leave us, it would be difficult to replace them, and our business would be harmed. However, Lerner has a contract with our company prohibiting him from contributing fusion expertise to another company. We will also need to retain additional highly-skilled individuals if we are to effectively grow. Our future success depends on our continuing ability to identify, hire, develop, motivate and retain highly skilled personnel for all areas of our organization. Competition in our industry for qualified employees is intense, and we anticipate that certain of our competitors may directly target our employees and officers, all of whom are at-will employees and not parties to long-term employment agreements with us. Our continued ability to compete effectively depends on our ability to attract new employees and to retain and motivate our existing employees and officers.

Risks of Borrowing

We may have to seek loans from financial institutions. Typical loan agreements might contain restrictive covenants which may impair our operating flexibility. A default under any loan agreement could result in a charging order that would have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations or financial condition.

Our Competitive Position Depends on Maintaining Intellectual Property Protection

Our ability to compete and to achieve and maintain profitability depends in part on our ability to protect our proprietary discoveries and technologies. We rely on a combination of patents and trade secret laws to protect our intellectual property rights. We also rely upon unpatented know-how and continuing technological innovation to develop and maintain our competitive position. Our patents might be challenged by third parties as being invalid or unenforceable, or third parties may independently develop similar or competing technology that avoids our patents. We cannot be certain that the steps we take will prevent the misappropriation and use of our intellectual property, particularly in foreign countries where the laws may not protect our proprietary rights as fully as in the United States.

Unanticipated Obstacles to Execution of Our Business Plan

Our business plans may change significantly. Many of our potential business endeavors are capital intensive and may be subject to statutory or regulatory requirements. Management believes that our chosen activities and strategies are achievable in light of current economic and legal conditions with the skills, background, and knowledge of our principals and advisors. Management reserves the right to make significant modifications to our stated strategies depending on future events.

Offering Brief

Offering Price

The price of the Shares has been arbitrarily established by us, considering such matters as the state of our business development and the general condition of the industry in which we operate. The Offering price bears little relationship to the assets, net worth, or any other objective criteria of value applicable to us.

We May Face Intellectual Property Infringement Claims

If we receive notice of claims of infringement, misappropriation or misuse of other parties' proprietary rights, some of these claims could lead to litigation. We cannot assure you that we will prevail in these actions. We may also initiate claims to defend our intellectual property. Intellectual property litigation, regardless of outcome, is expensive and time-consuming, could divert management's attention from our business and have a material negative effect on our business, operating results or financial condition. If there is a successful claim of infringement against us, we may be required to pay substantial damages (including treble damages if we were to be found to have willfully infringed a third party's patent) to the party claiming infringement, develop non-infringing technology, stop selling our products or using technology that contains the allegedly infringing intellectual property or enter into royalty or license agreements that may not be available on acceptable or commercially practical terms, if at all. Our failure to develop non-infringing technologies or license the proprietary rights on a timely basis could harm our business. Parties making infringement claims on our patents may be able to obtain an injunction that would prevent us from selling our products or using technology that contains the allegedly infringing intellectual property, which could harm our business.

Management Discretion as to Use of Proceeds

Our success will be substantially dependent upon the discretion and judgment of our management team with respect to the application and allocation of the proceeds of this Offering. The use of proceeds described below is an estimate based on our current business plan. We, however, may find it necessary or advisable to re-allocate portions of the net proceeds reserved for one category to another, and we will have broad discretion in doing so.

We May Experience Significant Delays or Other Complications

We may experience significant delays or other complications in bringing to market our systems. Any significant delays or other complications in the development, manufacture and/or launch, including, but not limited to, complications associated with launching our production or supply chain, or regulatory approvals, could materially damage our brand, business, prospects, financial condition and operating results.

Limited Transferability and Liquidity

Each investor agrees that it will acquire our Class B Common Stock for investment purposes only and not with a view towards distribution. Certain conditions imposed by the Securities Act must be satisfied prior to any sale, transfer, conversion or other disposition of our Class B Common Stock. In addition, each investor shall sign a Shareholder Agreement (the "Shareholder Agreement"), which imposes certain additional restrictions on the transfer of the Class B Common Stock. Under the Shareholder Agreement, until such time as we become a public company, no Shares may be sold or transferred without first offering us and all of the other holders of Class B Common Stock the right to purchase such Shares. Excluded from this provision are transfers resulting from the death of a shareholder or a transfer to an affiliate of the shareholder. No public market exists for our Class B Common Stock and no market is expected to develop.

Control by Majority Stockholder

Even if this offering is fully subscribed, Eric Lerner, who serves as an officer and our sole director, owns 100% of our Class A Voting Common Stock, and therefore maintains control. The Class B Common Stock does not have any voting rights. Therefore, investors will not have the ability to control our management. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Mr. Lerner and certain holders of our Class B Common Stock are parties to the Shareholder Agreement, pursuant to which the approval of certain holders of Class B Common Stock is required by the Company, to increase executive compensation beyond certain levels, increase the authorized number of shares, create new classes of shares, or enter into transactions with affiliates that have a value in excess of $5,000.

Dilution Risks

You should understand the potential for dilution. Each investor's stake in us, could be diluted due to our issuing additional shares. In other words, if we issue more shares, the percentage of the Company that you own will decrease, even though our value may increase. You will own a smaller piece of a larger company. This increase in the number of shares outstanding could result from a stock offering (such as an initial public offering, a crowdfunding round, a venture capital round or angel investment), employees exercising stock options, or by conversion of certain instruments (e.g., convertible notes, preferred shares or warrants) into stock.

If we decide to issue more shares, you could experience value dilution, with each share being worth less than before, and control dilution, with the total percentage an investor owns being less than before. There may also be earnings dilution, with a reduction in the amount earned per share (although this typically occurs only if we offer dividends, and most development and early stage companies are unlikely to offer dividends, preferring to invest any earnings into the Company).

The type of dilution that hurts early-stage investors mostly occurs when the company sells more shares in a "down round," meaning at a lower valuation than in earlier offerings.

If you are making an investment expecting to own a certain percentage of the Company or expecting each share to hold a certain amount of value, it is important to realize how the value of those shares can decrease by actions taken by the Company. Dilution can make drastic changes to the value of each share, ownership percentage, voting control, and earnings per share.

However, the Shareholder's Agreement does offer you the possibility of maintaining your percentage of the company, in the event of a new offering, by buying shares on the same terms as those offered to others.

COVID-19 can materially impact our business.

It is unclear how long the COVID-19 pandemic will last and to what degree it could hurt our ability to generate revenues.

The SEC recently approved amendments to Regulation Crowdfunding in which the fundraising limit for crowdfunding issuers will be increased from $1.07 million during a 12-month period to $5 million during a 12-month period. These amendments will take effect 60 days after the publication in the Federal Register.

Our future success depends on the efforts of a small management team. The loss of services of the members of the management team may have an adverse effect on the company. There can be no assurance that we will be successful in attracting and retaining other personnel we require to successfully grow our business.

Ownership and Capital Structure

THE OFFERING

13. Describe the terms of the securities being offered.

Priced Round: $48,966,150.00 pre-money valuation

See exact security attached as Appendix B, Investor Contracts

LAWRENCEVILLE PLASMA PHYSICS, INC. is offering up to 7,133 shares of Class B Common Stock, at a price per share of $150.00.

The campaign maximum is $1,069,950 and the campaign minimum is $50,000.00.

Additional Investment Price Protection. In 2008, the Company received an investment that involved issuing 27,500 shares of Class B Stock at a cost of $20 per share, for a total investment of $550,000 ("Additional Investment"). Previous Class B Shareholders of record as of October 1, 2008 who signed this Agreement, except Eric Lerner and Jeannette Gabriel, received five additional shares of Class B Stock for each Class B share that they held of record on October 1, 2008. All shares of capital stock of the Company acquired by the investor(s) providing the Additional Investment, as well as any Shareholders or any transferee of a Shareholder acquiring shares pursuant to this section, are subject to all the terms and restrictions of the Shareholder's Agreement.

Anti-Dilution Protection and Pre-emptive Rights. In addition to the provisions set forth in Section 5 of the Shareholder's Agreement and in the event that the Company authorizes additional shares of Class B Stock, the Class B Shareholders shall be issued additional shares in the amount necessary to keep their percentage of Class B Stock ownership with respect to the Class B Stock authorized (not outstanding) the same as it was before the additional shares were authorized. In the event that the Company offers any Class B Stock to any additional investors other than the Additional Investment in Section 5, above, each of the then current Shareholders of Class B Stock shall have a preemptive right to purchase its pro rata share of all additional Class B Stock during the time periods and under the same terms and conditions as offered to the potential additional investors. For this purpose, each Shareholder's pro rata share is equal to the ratio of (a) the number of shares of Class B Stock which such Shareholder is a holder or would be a holder upon conversion or exercise of any options it holds at the time notice of the proposed issuance of such additional shares of Class B Stock to (b) the total number of Class B Stock outstanding immediately prior to the issuance. If the Company proposes to issue any additional Class B Stock, it shall give each Shareholder written notice of its intention, describing the additional stock and the price and other terms and conditions upon which the Company proposes to issue the same. Each Shareholder shall be given the right to purchase its pro rata share of the additional shares on the terms and conditions specified in the notice by giving written notice to the Company. Each shareholder shall have thirty (30) days in order to inform the Company whether it will participate in the additional offer of shares and failure to provide the Company with such notice shall allow the Company to proceed with the offering to the other potential investors. The Company shall have one hundred twenty (120) days after the end of the aforementioned thirty (30) day period to sell the additional Class B Stock in respect of which the Shareholder's rights were not exercised, at a price not lower and upon terms and conditions not more favorable to the purchasers thereof than specified in the Company's notice to the Shareholders. If the Company has not sold such additional Class B Stock within one hundred twenty (120) days after the end of the aforementioned thirty (30) day period, the Company shall not thereafter issue or sell any additional Class B Stock without first offering such securities to the Shareholders in the manner provided above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be required to offer or sell any additional Class B Stock to any Shareholder if doing so would cause the Company to be in violation of applicable securities law by virtue of such offer or sale.

Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraph, in the event that any options or shares of Class B stock are given to any contractor or Shareholder in return for services, the preemptive rights set forth above shall not apply to the issuance or exercise of any such warrants or the issuance of stock related to provision of such services. Except for the protections described in this Section 5, no Shareholder shall have any pre-emptive rights except for any such rights explicitly set forth in this Agreement or in a subsequent written agreement.

Required Consent. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Shareholder's Agreement, the consent of each of the three Class B Shareholders holding the largest percentage of the Class B Stock other than Eric Lerner and Jeannette Gabriel at the time of such consent shall be required for the Company to:

(i) increase the aggregate annual compensation received by any Class A shareholder employed by the Company above an amount greater than x as set forth in the following formula:
 $x = $200,000 (1.05)^N (\text{CPI}/\text{CPI}_{2008})$,
where N is the number of years elapsed from the date of the Shareholder's Agreement to the date of any such increase in compensation, CPI is the Consumer Price Index most recently published at the date of any such increase, and CPI 2008 is the Consumer Price Index most recently published at the date of the Shareholder's Agreement;

(ii) enter into any agreement, transaction, commitment or arrangement with any Affiliate (as defined below) with a value in excess of $5,000, except agreements, transactions and arrangements for compensation consistent with the terms of clause (i) of this Section and such other agreements, transactions, commitments and arrangements entered into on an arm's-length basis on terms that are fair and reasonable to the Company;

(iii) increase the number of authorized shares of Class A Stock or Class B Stock; and SHAREHOLDER (iv) authorize or create additional classes of stock beyond the Class A Stock and Class B Stock currently authorized.
For purposes of this Section, "Affiliate" shall mean (i) any Class A Shareholder, (ii) any individual related by blood, marriage or adoption to any Class A Shareholder, (iii) any trust for the benefit of any person specified in clauses (i) or (ii) and (iv) any corporation, partnership or other entity which controls, is controlled by or is under common control with any person specified in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii), except any direct or indirect subsidiary of the Company.

Irrevocable Proxy. The Investor and his, her, or its transferees or assignees (collectively, the "Investor"), through a power of attorney granted by Investor in the Investor Agreement, will appoint XX Team LLC ("XX Team") as the Investor's true and lawful proxy and attorney (the "Proxy"), with the power to act alone and with full power of substitution, on behalf of the Investor to:

1. direct the voting of all securities purchased through wefunder.com, and to direct the exercise of all voting and other rights of Investor with respect to the Company's securities, and
2. direct, in connection with such voting power, the execution of any instrument or document that XX Team determines is necessary and appropriate in the exercise of its authority. Such Proxy will be Irrevocable. If an investor has entered into the Custodial and Voting Agreement with XX Investments LLC ("XX Investments"), then XX Investments will be the entity that XX Team directs to vote and take any other actions in connection with such voting (including the execution of documents) on behalf of such investor.

Repurchase. If the Company determines, in its sole discretion, that it is likely that within six months the securities of the Company will be held of record by a number of persons that would require the Company to register a class of its equity securities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended ("Exchange Act"), as required by Section 12(g) or 15(d) thereof, the Company shall have the option to repurchase the securities from each Investor for the greater of

1. the purchase price of the securities, and
2. the fair market value of the securities, as determined by an independent appraiser of securities chosen by the Company. The foregoing repurchase option will terminate upon a Change of Control or Dissolution Event (each as defined in the Company's Subscription Agreement).

14. Do the securities offered have voting rights?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

15. Are there any limitations on any voting or other rights identified above?

- ☒ Yes: No Voting Rights
☐ No: Irrevocable voting proxy granted to XX Team.

16. How may the terms of the securities being offered be modified?

None of the provisions of the Subscription Agreement may be waived, changed or terminated orally or otherwise, except as specifically set forth herein or except by a writing signed by the Company and Subscriber.

RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER OF THE SECURITIES BEING OFFERED:

The securities being offered may not be transferred by any purchaser of such securities during the one year period beginning when the securities were issued, unless such securities are transferred:

1. to the issuer;
2. to an accredited investor;
3. as part of an offering registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission; or
4. to a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the purchaser, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the purchaser or other similar circumstance.

NOTE: The term "accredited investor" means any person who comes within any of the categories set forth in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D, or who the seller reasonably believes comes within any of such categories, at the time of the sale of the securities to that person.

The term "member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent" includes a child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, spouse or spousal equivalent, sibling, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law of the purchaser, and includes adoptive relationships. The term "spousal equivalent" means a cohabitant occupying a relationship generally equivalent to that of a spouse.

DESCRIPTION OF ISSUER'S SECURITIES

17. What other securities or classes of securities of the issuer are outstanding? Describe the material terms of any other outstanding securities or classes of securities of the issuer.

Class of Security	Securities (or Amount) Authorized	Securities (or Amount) Outstanding	Voting Rights
-------------------	---	--	------------------

Class B Common Stock	400,000	318,907	No
Class A Common Stock	20	20	Yes

Securities Reserved for Issuance upon Exercise or Conversion

Warrants:

Options: 7,514

Describe any other rights:

Only Class A shares have voting rights. Class A and Class B common stock have identical liquidation preferences.

18. How may the rights of the securities being offered be materially limited, diluted or qualified by the rights of any other class of security identified above?

The holders of a majority-in-interest of voting rights in the Company could limit the Investor's rights in a material way. For example, those interest holders could vote to change the terms of the agreements governing the Company's operations or cause the Company to engage in additional offerings (including potentially a public offering).

These changes could result in further limitations on the voting rights the Investor will have as an owner of equity in the Company, for example by diluting those rights or limiting them to certain types of events or consents.

Additional risks related to the rights of other security holders are discussed below, in Question 20.

19. Are there any differences not reflected above between the securities being offered and each other class of security of the Issuer?

No

20. How could the exercise of rights held by the principal shareholders identified in Question 6 above affect the purchasers of the securities being offered?

As holders of a majority-in-interest of voting rights in the Company, the shareholders may make decisions with which the Investor disagrees, or that negatively affect the value of the Investor's securities in the Company, and the Investor will have no recourse to change these decisions. The Investor's interests may conflict with those of other investors, and there is no guarantee that the Company will develop in a way that is optimal for or advantageous to the Investor.

For example, the shareholders may change the terms of the Articles of Incorporation for the company, change the terms of securities issued by the Company, change the management of the Company, and even force out minority holders of securities. The shareholders may make changes that affect the tax treatment of the Company in ways that are unfavorable to you but favorable to them. They may also vote to engage in new offerings and/or to register certain of the Company's securities in a way that negatively affects the value of the securities the Investor owns. Other holders of securities of the Company may also have access to more information than the Investor, leaving the Investor at a disadvantage with respect to any decisions regarding the securities he or she owns. The shareholders have the right to redeem their securities at any time. Shareholders could decide to force the Company to redeem their securities at a time that is not favorable to the Investor and is damaging to the Company. Investors' exit may affect the value of the Company and/or its viability. In cases where the rights of holders of convertible debt, SAFES, or other outstanding options or warrants are exercised, or if new awards are granted under our equity compensation plans, an Investor's interests in the Company may be diluted. This means that the pro-rata portion of the Company represented by the Investor's securities will decrease, which could also diminish the Investor's voting and/or economic rights. In addition, as discussed above, if a majority-in-interest of holders of securities with voting rights cause the Company to issue additional stock, an Investor's interest will typically also be diluted.

Based on the risks described above, the Investor could lose all or part of his or her investment in the securities in this offering, and may never see positive returns.

21. How are the securities being offered being valued? Include examples of methods for how such securities may be valued by the issuer in the future, including during subsequent corporate actions.

The offering price for the securities offered pursuant to this Form C has been determined arbitrarily by the Company, and does not necessarily bear any relationship to the Company's book value, assets, earnings or other generally accepted valuation criteria. In determining the offering price, the Company did not employ investment banking firms or other outside organizations to make an independent appraisal or evaluation. Accordingly, the offering price should not be considered to be indicative of the actual value of the securities offered hereby.

In the future, we will perform valuations of our common stock that take into account factors such as the following:

1. unrelated third party valuations of our common stock;
2. the price at which we sell other securities, such as convertible debt or preferred Stock, in light of the rights, preferences and privileges of our those securities relative to those of our common stock;
3. our results of operations, financial position and capital resources;
4. current business conditions and projections;
5. the lack of marketability of our common stock;
6. the hiring of key personnel and the experience of our management;
7. the introduction of new products;
8. the risk inherent in the development and expansion of our products;
9. our stage of development and material risks related to our business;
10. the likelihood of achieving a liquidity event, such as an initial public offering or a sale of our company given the prevailing market conditions and the nature and history of our business;
11. industry trends and competitive environment;
12. trends in consumer spending, including consumer confidence;
13. overall economic indicators, including gross domestic product, employment

13. overall economic indicators, including gross domestic product, employment, inflation and interest rates; and
14. the general economic outlook.

We will analyze factors such as those described above using a combination of financial and market-based methodologies to determine our business enterprise value. For example, we may use methodologies that assume that businesses operating in the same industry will share similar characteristics and that the Company's value will correlate to those characteristics, and/or methodologies that compare transactions in similar securities issued by us that were conducted in the market.

22. What are the risks to purchasers of the securities relating to minority ownership in the issuer?

An Investor in the Company will likely hold a minority position in the Company, and thus be limited as to its ability to control or influence the governance and operations of the Company.

The marketability and value of the Investor's interest in the Company will depend upon many factors outside the control of the Investor. The Company will be managed by its officers and be governed in accordance with the strategic direction and decision-making of its Board Of Directors, and the Investor will have no independent right to name or remove an officer or member of the Board Of Directors of the Company.

Following the Investor's investment in the Company, the Company may sell interests to additional investors, which will dilute the percentage interest of the Investor in the Company. The Investor may have the opportunity to increase its investment in the Company in such a transaction.

The amount of additional financing needed by the Company, if any, will depend upon the maturity and objectives of the Company. The declining of an opportunity or the inability of the Investor to make a follow-on investment may result in substantial dilution of the Investor's interest in the Company.

23. What are the risks to purchasers associated with corporate actions, including additional issuances of securities, issuer repurchases of securities, a sale of the issuer or of assets of the issuer or transactions with related parties?

Additional issuances of securities. Following the Investor's investment in the Company, the Company may sell interests to additional investors, which will dilute the percentage interest of the Investor in the Company. The Investor may have the opportunity to increase its investment in the Company in such a transaction. The amount of additional financing needed by the Company, if any, will depend upon the maturity and objectives of the Company. The declining of an opportunity or the inability of the Investor to make a follow-on investment may result in substantial dilution of the Investor's interest in the Company.

Issuer repurchases of securities. The Company may have authority to repurchase its securities from shareholders, which may serve to decrease any liquidity in the market for such securities, decrease the percentage interests held by other similarly situated investors to the Investor, and create pressure on the Investor to sell its securities to the Company concurrently.

A sale of the issuer or of assets of the issuer. As a minority owner of the Company, the Investor will have limited or no ability to influence a potential sale of the Company or a substantial portion of its assets. Thus, the Investor will rely upon the executive management of the Company and the Board of Directors of the Company to manage the Company so as to maximize value for shareholders. Accordingly, the success of the Investor's investment in the Company will depend in large part upon the skill and expertise of the executive management of the Company and the Board of Directors of the Company. If the Board Of Directors of the Company authorizes a sale of all or a part of the Company, or a disposition of a substantial portion of the Company's assets, there can be no guarantee that the value received by the Investor, together with the fair market estimate of the value remaining in the Company, will be equal to or exceed the value of the Investor's initial investment in the Company.

Transactions with related parties. The Investor should be aware that there will be occasions when the Company may encounter potential conflicts of interest in its operations. On any issue involving conflicts of interest, the executive management and Board of Directors of the Company will be guided by their good faith judgement as to the Company's best interests. The Company may engage in transactions with affiliates, subsidiaries or other related parties, which may be on terms which are not arm's-length, but will be in all cases consistent with the duties of the management of the Company to its shareholders. By acquiring an interest in the Company, the Investor will be deemed to have acknowledged the existence of any such actual or potential conflicts of interest and to have waived any claim with respect to any liability arising from the existence of any such conflict of interest.

24. Describe the material terms of any indebtedness of the issuer:

12/2020	Regulation D, Rule 506(c)	Common stock	$591,125	General operations

26. Was or is the issuer or any entities controlled by or under common control with the issuer a party to any transaction since the beginning of the issuer's last fiscal year, or any currently proposed transaction, where the amount involved exceeds five percent of the aggregate amount of capital raised by the issuer in reliance on Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act during the preceding 12-month period, including the amount the issuer seeks to raise in the current offering, in which any of the following persons had or is to have a direct or indirect material interest:

1. any director or officer of the issuer;
2. any person who is, as of the most recent practicable date, the beneficial owner of 20 percent or more of the issuer's outstanding voting equity securities, calculated on the basis of voting power;
3. if the issuer was incorporated or organized within the past three years, any promoter of the issuer;
4. or (4) any immediate family member of any of the foregoing persons.

☐ Yes
☒ No

INSTRUCTIONS TO QUESTION 26: The term transaction includes, but is not limited to, any financial transaction, arrangement or relationship (including any indebtedness or guarantee of indebtedness) or any series of similar transactions, arrangements or relationships.

Beneficial ownership for purposes of paragraph (2) shall be determined as of a date that is no more than 120 days prior to the date of filing of this offering statement and using the same calculation described in Question 6 of this Question and Answer format.

The term "member of the family" includes any child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, spouse or spousal equivalent, sibling, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law of the person, and includes adoptive relationships. The term "spousal equivalent" means a cohabitant occupying a relationship generally equivalent to that of a spouse.

Compute the amount of a related party's interest in any transaction without regard to the amount of the profit or loss involved in the transaction. Where it is not practicable to state the approximate amount of the interest, disclose the approximate amount involved in the transaction.

FINANCIAL CONDITION OF THE ISSUER

27. Does the issuer have an operating history?

☒ Yes
☐ No

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

You should read the following discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations together with our financial statements and the related notes and other financial information included elsewhere in this offering. Some of the information contained in this discussion and analysis, including information regarding the strategy and plans for our business, includes forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. You should review the "Risk Factors" section for a discussion of important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results described in or implied by the forward-looking statements contained in the following discussion and analysis.

Overview

We're on a near-term path to achieving nuclear fusion energy at a low enough cost to replace all fossil-fuel based energy sources and end fossil fuel use. We will harness the energy source that powers the sun to create clean, safe energy. If we secure the funding to complete our project, we believe this will be the most fundamental change in technology in decades. It will flip the power from fossil to fusion.

To achieve the future we want for ourselves and our children, we must replace fossil fuels with a cheap, clean, safe, and unlimited energy source. Our small, decentralized 5 MW generators will use hydrogen and boron fuel, both of which are essentially unlimited in nature, to allow a direct conversion of energy to electricity without expensive turbines or radioactive waste. We believe costs will be 10x cheaper than existing energy sources, meaning our Focus Fusion technology can change the world. These projections are not guaranteed.

Given the Company's limited operating history, the Company cannot reliably estimate how much revenue it will receive in the future, if any.

Milestones

LAWRENCEVILLE PLASMA PHYSICS, INC. was incorporated in the State of New Jersey in May 2003.

Since then, we have:

- Achieved the highest confined temperature of any fusion experimental device, over 2 billion degrees, sufficient for hydrogen-boron fusion.
- Highest fusion energy output per unit energy input of any private fusion experiment, more than a thousand times the closest competitor.
- Patents issued in the U.S., China, Australia, Canada, and the European Union, with patent pending in India (patents owned by the Company)
- Collaborating with international network of 40 labs organized by the International Center for Magnetized Plasmas.
- Raised over $8 million from over 500 investors.
- Research published in leading peer-reviewed journals documenting the LPP Fusion device as the most advanced privately funded fusion experiment in the

...which serves as the most advanced, probably, fusion device experiment in the world.

- Easiest path to fusion by using natural instabilities of plasmas, not fighting them. We imitate nature.

Historical Results of Operations

- Revenues & Gross Margin. For the period ended September 30, 2020, the Company had revenues of $74,384 compared to the year ended September 30, 2019, when the Company had revenues of $229,983.
- Assets. As of September 30, 2020, the Company had total assets of $624,019, including $246,004 in cash. As of September 30, 2019, the Company had $420,385 in total assets, including $59,323 in cash.
- Net Loss. The Company has had net losses of $737,056 and net losses of $586,228 for the fiscal years ended September 30, 2020 and September 30, 2019, respectively.
- Liabilities. The Company's liabilities totaled $247,480 for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020 and $104,425 for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2019.

Liquidity & Capital Resources

To-date, the company has been financed with $73,945 in debt and $8,330,904 in equity.

After the conclusion of this Offering, should we hit our minimum funding target, our projected runway is 4 months before we need to raise further capital.

We plan to use the proceeds as set forth in this Form C under "Use of Funds". We don't have any other sources of capital in the immediate future.

We will likely require additional financing in excess of the proceeds from the Offering in order to perform operations over the lifetime of the Company. We plan to raise capital in 6 months. Except as otherwise described in this Form C, we do not have additional sources of capital other than the proceeds from the offering. Because of the complexities and uncertainties in establishing a new business strategy, it is not possible to adequately project whether the proceeds of this offering will be sufficient to enable us to implement our strategy. This complexity and uncertainty will be increased if less than the maximum amount of securities offered in this offering is sold. The Company intends to raise additional capital in the future from investors. Although capital may be available for early-stage companies, there is no guarantee that the Company will receive any investments from investors.

Runway & Short/Mid Term Expenses

LAWRENCEVILLE PLASMA PHYSICS, INC. cash in hand is $108,579.41, as of December 2020. Over the last three months, revenues have averaged $165/month, cost of goods sold has averaged $0/month, and operational expenses have averaged $64,400/month, for an average burn rate of $64,235 per month. Our intent is to be profitable in 50 months.

Since the date our financials cover, we have completed redesign of our switches and anode and have received most of the parts for the switches, which we are now assembling. We expect the next set of experiments to start in late April 2021 after we receive the new anode.

Over the next 3 to 6 months, we expect revenue to continue to be small and expenses to continue at the same level, around $65,000/month.

In the short-term, we expect that investments in our shares will fully cover our expenses and allow us to build up a reserve.

However, to reach profitability in the next 4-5 years, we will need much larger funds, in the region of $100 million. We expect to be able to raise these funds once we have completed the present research phase and have demonstrated net energy production in the lab. We expect that these funds will come from a combination of government grants and large investments, which we think we have a good chance of obtaining once we demonstrate we are the first to attain net energy for a fusion energy device.

INSTRUCTIONS TO QUESTION 28: The discussion must cover each year for which financial statements are provided. For issuers with no prior operating history, the discussion should focus on financial milestones and operational, liquidity and other challenges. For issuers with an operating history, the discussion should focus on whether historical results and cash flows are representative of what investors should expect in the future. Take into account the proceeds of the offering and any other known or pending sources of capital. Discuss how the proceeds from the offering will affect liquidity, whether receiving these funds and any other additional funds is necessary to the viability of the business, and how quickly the issuer anticipates using its available cash. Describe the other available sources of capital to the business, such as lines of credit or required contributions by shareholders. References to the issuer in this Question 28 and these instructions refer to the issuer and its predecessors, if any.

OTHER MATERIAL INFORMATION

31. In addition to the information expressly required to be included in this Form, include:

- (1) any other material information presented to investors; and

- (2) such further material information, if any, as may be necessary to make the required statements, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

The Company is using the services of XX as part of its offering. XX is comprised of XX Investments, LLC, XX Team LLC, and the Lead Investors who provide services on behalf of XX Team LLC. The services of XX are available to companies that offer securities through Wefunder Portal LLC and to investors who invest in such companies through Wefunder Portal, but XX is not affiliated with Wefunder Portal or its affiliates.

XX Investments is the Company's transfer agent and also acts as custodian, paying agent, and proxy agent on behalf of all investors that enter into the Custodial and Voting Agreement with XX Investments through the Wefunder Portal website ("Investors"). XX Investments holds legal title to the securities the Company issues through Wefunder Portal (which are uncertificated) on behalf of Investors. Investors, in turn, hold the beneficial interests in the Company's securities. XX Investments keeps track of each Investor's beneficial ownership interest and makes any distributions to the Investors (or other parties, as directed by the Investors).

In addition to the above services, at the direction of XX Team, XX Investments votes the securities and take any other actions in connection with such voting on behalf of the Investors. XX Investments acts at the direction of XX Team, because XX Team holds a power of attorney from each Investor that has entered into the Investor Agreement to make voting decisions on behalf of that Investor. XX Investments will not charge Investors for its services. XX Investments does charge the Company $1,000/year for services; however, those fees may be paid by Wefunder Inc. on behalf of the Company.

As noted, XX Team holds a power of attorney from each Investor that has entered into the Investor Agreement to make voting decisions on behalf of that Investor. Pursuant to the power of attorney, XX Team will make voting decisions and then direct XX Investments to vote and take any other actions in connection with the voting on Investors' behalf. XX Team will act, with respect to the Company, through our Lead Investor, who is a representative of XX Team. As compensation for its voting services, each Investor authorizes XX Investments to distribute to XX Team 10% of any distributions the Investor would otherwise receive from the Company. XX Team will share its compensation with our Lead Investor. XX Team, through our Lead Investor, may also provide consulting services to the Company and may be compensated for these services by the Company; although, fees owed by the Company may be paid by Wefunder Inc. XX Team will share its consulting compensation with our Lead Investor.

The Lead Investor is an experienced investor that we choose to act in the role of Lead Investor, both on behalf of the Company and on behalf of Investors. As noted, the Lead Investor will be a representative of XX Team and will share in compensation that XX Team receives from the Company (or Wefunder Inc. on the Company behalf) or from Investors. The Lead Investor will be chosen by the Company and approved by Wefunder Inc., and the identity of the Lead Investor must be disclosed to Investors before Investors make a final investment decision to purchase the Company's securities. Investors will receive disclosure regarding all fees that may be received by the Lead Investor. In addition to the fees described above, the Lead Investor may receive compensation if, in the future, Wefunder Advisors LLC forms a special purpose vehicle ("SPV") for the purpose of investing in a non-Regulation Crowdfunding offering of the Company. In such a circumstance, the Lead Investor may act as a portfolio manager for that SPV (and as a supervised person of Wefunder Advisors) and may be compensated through that role. Although the Lead Investor may act in multiple roles and be compensated from multiple parties, the Lead Investor's goal is to maximize the value of the Company and therefore maximize the value of the Company's securities. As a result, the Lead Investor's interests should always be aligned with those of the Investors.

Investors that wish to purchase the Company's securities through Wefunder Portal must agree to (1) hire XX Investments to serve as custodian, paying agent, and proxy agent with respect to the Company's securities; (2) give a power of attorney to XX Team to make all voting decisions with respect to the Company's securities; and (3) direct XX Investments to share 10% of the Investor's distribution from the Company with XX Team. The Company may waive these requirements for certain investors with whom the Company has a pre-existing relationship.

The XX arrangement described above is intended to benefit the Company by allowing the Company to reflect one investor of its capitalization table (XX Investments) and by simplifying the voting process with respect to the Company's securities by having one entity (XX Team), through one person (the Lead Investor), make all voting decisions and having one entity (XX Investments) carry out XX Team's voting instruments and any take any related actions. The XX arrangement also is intended to benefit Investors by providing the services of an experienced Lead Investor (acting on behalf of XX Team) who is expected to make value-maximizing decisions regarding Investors' securities. XX Team (acting through the Lead Investor) may further benefit both the Company and Investors by providing consulting services to the Company that are intended to maximize both the value of the Company's business and also the value of its securities.
