1. We have reviewed your response to our prior comment. In order for us to better understand your arrangements, please address the following:
 - Describe the nature of the student support services performance obligation. In this regard, tell us what services are provided by you and what services are provided by the instructors.
 - Further, describe how the relationship between the student and university is limited. Tell us how you considered interactions between the student and course instructors.
 - Provide us with a more specific and comprehensive discussion of how you create course content. Tell us if and how you make any changes to the curriculum provided by the university. In addition, further describe the nature of the essential services you have combined with the university's intellectual property.
 - Provide us with a more specific and comprehensive discussion of how you hire and manage instructors. Tell us how you have considered that these instructors appear to
