NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

HEIGHT SECURITIES, LLC

December 31, 2018

NOTE A - SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Height Securities, LLC (the Company), a wholly owned subsidiary of Height Capital, LLC (the Parent), was organized in the state of Delaware in May of 2009. The Company is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and has been a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") since April of 2010. The Company does not have custody of client accounts or hold securities. Securities are held by third parties, and transactions are cleared through a clearing organization, Pershing, LLC ("Pershing"), or Goldman Sachs Execution & Clearing, LP ("Goldman"), and its direct placement partners.

The Company qualifies for exemption under Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(ii) from the Securities and Exchange Commission Customer Protection Rule (Rule 15c3-3). Accordingly, the supplemental schedule of Information Relating to Possession or Control Requirements for Brokers and Dealers Pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 is not applicable.

Basis of Accounting

The Company uses accrual basis accounting for financial statement purposes, recognizing income when earned and expenses when incurred.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash, as used in the accompanying financial statements, includes currency on hand, demand deposits with financial institutions and short-term, highly liquid investments purchased with a maturity of three months or less.

Investments

The Company owns common stock in NextDecade Corporation. Fair market value for this investment for the year ended December 31, 2018 is $2,700.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

In May 2014, FASB issued ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers: Topic 606, to supersede nearly all existing recognition guidance under GAAP. ASU 2014-09 also requires new qualitative and quantitative disclosures, including disaggregation of revenues and descriptions of performance obligations. The company adopted the provisions of this guidance and it was applied prospectively from January 1, 2018 and there was no impact on our previously presented results. The adoption of the new revenue standard resulted in no change to beginning member's equity. The Company's accounting policies did not change materially as a result of applying the principles of revenue recognition from ASU 2014-09 and are largely consistent with existing guidance and current practices applied by the Company.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2018

Revenues are recognized when control of the promised services is transferred to customers, in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to be entitled to in exchange for those services. Commission revenue represents sales commissions generated by the Company for their customers' purchases and sales of securities on exchange and over-the-counter, as well as purchases of other investment products. The Company records commission revenue when executed (trade date), which is consistent with GAAP, distribution and marketing of any combination thereof, of investment products or research services to such client as a single performance obligation and delivery. The commission revenue will fluctuate depending upon the volume of trades. Total commission revenue for the year ended December 31, 2018 was $3,770,142.

Revenue from contracts with customers are composed of investment banking fees. Such fees associated with successful capital raises are recognized at the point in time when the Company's performance under the terms of the contractual arrangement is completed, which for banking marketing efforts is typically at the closing of the transaction. Reimbursed expenses related to these transactions are recorded as revenue and are included under reimbursed expenses and recognized as they are invoiced.

In certain instances, for advisory or banking contracts with retainers/progress payments, the Company will receive amounts in advance of the deal's closing. In these instances, revenue is recognized over time in which the performance obligations are simultaneously provided by the Company and consumed by the customer. At December 31, 2018, there were no advances to the Company.

NOTE B - INCOME TAXES

No provision for income taxes has been provided in these statements, as the Parent, by agreement, is responsible for any tax liability of the consolidated group. The Parent has elected, under the Internal Revenue Code, to be taxed as a partnership. Accordingly, no provision has been made for Federal and State income taxes on income recognized.

The Company operates as a Limited Liability Company (LLC) and is not subject to Federal income taxes. Management has evaluated tax positions that could have a significant effect on the financial statements and determined that the Company had no uncertain tax positions at December 31, 2018, which required disclosing or recognition.

Generally, the Parent's tax years remain open and subject to examination for three years by U.S. taxing authorities and four years for state income tax examinations.

NOTE C - CLEARING AGENTS

The Company has a fully disclosed clearing agreement with Pershing, LLC as a clearing agent. Either party may terminate the agreement with 60 days written notice. Pershing requires an escrow deposit of $150,000, subject to change at the discretion of Pershing. The balance in the deposit at December 31, 2018 includes $71 of accrued interest. The Company also has a fully disclosed clearing agreement with Goldman Sachs Execution & Clearing, LP. Either party may terminate the agreement upon 30 days' written notice. Goldman does not require a deposit for its services.

Conversely expenses that are paid by the Company are also allocated to Height Analytics, and Height Capital, LLC based on the same allocation methods. Those allocations are then reimbursed to the representative company owed, generally on a monthly basis. These expenses include, but are not limited to, administrative expense, professional fees, travel and business development, and information technology and computer expenses. NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2018

NOTE G - NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Subparagraph (2) of Rule 15c3-1 further requires all brokers not generally carrying customers' accounts to maintain net capital of not less than $100,000 or one-fifteenth of the Company's aggregate indebtedness, whichever is greater.

The Company's aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio was .79 to 1. At December 31, 2018, the Company had net capital of $453,972, which was $353,972 in excess of its required net capital of $100,000.

NOTE H - CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist of the receivable from the clearing organization and cash and cash equivalents. The Company grants credit terms in the normal course of business to its clearing brokers for payment of commissions for customer trades. As part of its ongoing procedures, the Company monitors the credit worthiness of its clearing broker.

The Company maintains cash in bank deposit accounts that, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. Management believes the Company is not exposed to any significant risk related to cash.

NOTE I - FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Unless otherwise noted, the Company estimates that the fair value of all financial and non-financial instruments at December 31, 2018 does not differ materially from the aggregate carrying values recorded in the accompanying statements of financial condition. The estimated fair value amounts have been determined by the Company using available market information and appropriate valuation methodologies. Considerable judgment is necessarily required in interpreting market data to develop the estimates of fair value, and, accordingly, the estimates are not necessarily indicative of the amounts that the Company could realize in a current market exchange.

NOTE J - CASH FLOW INFORMATION

Cash payments for interest totaled $2,298 for the year ended December 31, 2018.

NOTE K – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

These financial statements were approved by management and available for issuance on the date of the Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm report. Subsequent events have been evaluated through this date. There were no subsequent events requiring disclosures and/or adjustments.
