NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

HEIGHT SECURITIES, LLC

December 31, 2022

NOTE A - SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Height Securities, LLC (the Company), a wholly owned subsidiary of Height Capital, LLC (the Parent), was organized in the state of Delaware in May of 2009. The Company is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and has been a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”) since April of 2010. The Company does not have custody of client accounts or hold securities. Securities are held by third parties, and transactions are cleared through a clearing organization, Pershing, LLC (“Pershing”), or Goldman Sachs Execution & Clearing, LP (“Goldman”), and its direct placement partners.

The Company qualifies for exemption under Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(ii) from the Securities and Exchange Commission Customer Protection Rule (Rule 15c3-3). Accordingly, the supplemental schedule of Information Relating to Possession or Control Requirements for Brokers and Dealers Pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 is not applicable.

Basis of Accounting

The Company uses accrual basis accounting for financial statement purposes, recognizing income when earned and expenses when incurred.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash, as used in the accompanying financial statements, includes currency on hand, demand deposits with financial institutions and short-term, highly liquid investments purchased with a maturity of three months or less.

Investments

The Company owns common stock in NextDecade Corporation. Fair market value for this investment for the year ended December 31, 2022 is $2,470. The Company also owns common stock, warrants, and convertible notes in North Sea Natural Resources Limited, of which the stock and warrants are non-marketable. Common stock for this investment is recorded at 40% of cost, warrants at 85% of cost, and convertible notes at cost, $27,540, $37,320, and $24,053 respectively, as of December 31, 2022.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE B - INCOME TAXES

No provision for income taxes has been provided in these statements, as the Parent, by agreement, is responsible for any tax liability of the consolidated group. The Parent has elected, under the Internal Revenue Code, to be taxed as a partnership. Accordingly, no provision has been made for Federal and State income taxes on income recognized.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

HEIGHT SECURITIES, LLC

NOTE B - INCOME TAXES (continued)

The Company operates as a Limited Liability Company (LLC) and is not subject to Federal income taxes. Management has evaluated tax positions that could have a significant effect on the financial statements and determined that the Company had no uncertain tax positions at December 31, 2022, which required disclosing or recognition.

Generally, the Parent's tax years remain open and subject to examination for three years by U.S. taxing authorities and four years for state income tax examinations.

NOTE C - CLEARING AGENTS

The Company has a fully disclosed clearing agreement with Pershing, LLC as a clearing agent. Either party may terminate the agreement with 60 days written notice. Pershing requires an escrow deposit of $150,000, subject to change at the discretion of Pershing. The balance in the deposit at December 31, 2022 includes $71 of accrued interest. The Company also has a fully disclosed clearing agreement with Goldman Sachs Execution & Clearing, LP. Either party may terminate the agreement upon 30 days' written notice. Goldman does not require a deposit for its services.

NOTE D - LIABILITIES SUBORDINATED TO GENERAL CREDITORS

NOTE E - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Height Capital, LLC, which also owns Height Analytics, LLC, Height Ventures, LLC, and Height Consulting, LLC.

The Company, Height Analytics, LLC and Height Capital, LLC have an expense sharing agreement for all operating expenses. Expenses paid by Height Analytics, LLC that benefit the Company and Height Capital, LLC are allocated to each company in proportion to an expense allocation based on certain annually defined parameters, including, but not limited to, per capita, square footage used, and vender billing subtotal allocations. Conversely expenses that are paid by the Company are also allocated to Height Analytics, and Height Capital, LLC based on the same allocation methods. Those allocations are then reimbursed to the representative company owed, generally on a monthly basis. These expenses include, but are not limited to, administrative expense, professional fees, travel and business development, and information technology and computer expenses. NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

HEIGHT SECURITIES, LLC

December 31, 2022

NOTE F - OFFICE LEASE

In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board, ("FASB"), issued Accounting Standards Update, ("ASU"), No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842), which establishes a comprehensive new lease accounting model. The new standard: (a) clarifies the definition of a lease; (b) requires a dual approach to lease classification similar to current lease classifications; and (c) causes lessees to recognize leases on the balance sheet as a lease liability with a corresponding right-of-use asset for leases with a lease-term of more than 12 months. The new standard is effective for fiscal years and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2018, with early adoption permitted. A modified retrospective transition approach is required for leases existing at, or entered into after, the beginning of the earliest comparative period presented in the financial statements, including a number of optional practical expedients that entities may elect to apply. In July 2018, the FASB issued ASU No. 2018-11, Leases (Topic 842): Targeted Improvements, an update which provides another transition method, in addition to the existing modified retrospective transition method, by allowing entities to initially apply the new lease standard at the adoption date and recognize a cumulative-effect adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings in the period of adoption.

The Company adopted Topic 842 effective January 1, 2019 using a modified retrospective method. The Company moved into a new office space for which it recorded a right-to-use asset and corresponding lease liability of approximately $1.3 million on the Company's balance sheet, utilizing a discount rate of 0.0115%.

NOTE H - CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist of the receivable from the clearing organization and cash and cash equivalents. The Company grants credit terms in the normal course of business to its clearing brokers for payment of commissions for customer trades. As part of its ongoing procedures, the Company monitors the credit worthiness of its clearing broker.

The Company maintains cash in bank deposit accounts that, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. Management believes the Company is not exposed to any significant risk related to cash.

NOTE I - FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Unless otherwise noted, the Company estimates that the fair value of all financial and non-financial instruments at December 31, 2022 does not differ materially from the aggregate carrying values recorded in the accompanying statements of financial condition. The estimated fair value amounts have been determined by the Company using available market information and appropriate valuation methodologies. Considerable judgment is necessarily required in interpreting market data to develop the estimates of fair value, and, accordingly, the estimates are not necessarily indicative of the amounts that the Company could realize in a current market exchange.

NOTE J - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

These financial statements were approved by management and available for issuance on the date of the Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm report. Subsequent events have been evaluated through this date. There were no subsequent events requiring disclosures and/or adjustments.
