Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Supplemental Information

The Schedule of Computation of Net Capital Pursuant to Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Statement Regarding Possession or Control Requirements Under Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Supplemental Information") have been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of Core Financial, LLC's financial statements. The Supplemental Information is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the Supplemental Information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the Supplemental Information. In forming our opinion on the Supplemental Information, we evaluated whether the Supplemental Information, including its form and content is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5. NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2020

NOTE 1 – ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS

Core Financial LLC (the Company) was established in May 2009. The Company was approved by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) in June 2010 to conduct securities transactions. In November 2011, the shareholders of Core Financial, LLC transferred their ownership to Core Capital Partners, LLC (Partners), and the Company became a wholly-owned subsidiary.

The Company is a limited broker-dealer whose only business is to act as placement agent for real estate investment syndications mandated by and with an affiliate. The Company is required to meet the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and the Divisions of Securities in the states the Company is registered. The Company operated under the exemptive provisions of paragraph (k)(2)(i) of SEC Rule 15c3-3 for the period January 1, 2020 through December 1, 2020. For the period of December 2, 2020 through December 31, 2020 the Company did not have any requirement pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 as it operated in reliance on footnote 74 to SEC Release 34-70073, and as discussed in Q&A 8 of the related FAQ issued by SEC staff. The Company has represented that it does not and will not: (1) directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers (other than money or other consideration received and promptly transmitted in compliance with paragraph (a) or (b)(2) of Rule 15c2-4); (2) did not carry accounts of or for customers; and (3) did not carry PAB accounts (as defined in Rule 15c3-3).

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted (GAAP) in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reported period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes: The Company is a limited liability company and does not pay federal or state income taxes on its income. Accordingly, no provision or credit for federal or state income taxes is recorded in the financial statements.

The Company annually evaluates tax positions in accordance with the Income Taxes Topic of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC). The standard prescribes recognition thresholds and measurement attributes for the financial statement recognition and measurement of tax position taken or expected to be taken in the tax return. This standard also provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition accounting. The Company remains subject to examination by taxing authorities in jurisdictions where the Company has filed returns for years after 2017. As of December 31, 2020, management believes that no uncertain tax positions exist based on its most recent annual reviews.

Statements of Cash Flows: For purposes of reporting cash flows, cash includes demand deposits held by banks.

Revenue Recognition: The Company's only source of revenue is commissions from private real estate offerings. The Company sells equity interests in real estate investments and earns a contingent commission of those sales. Revenue is recognized at the time the contingency is removed which is at the closing of the real estate purchase transaction.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

We have reviewed management's statements included in the accompanying Core Financial LLC Exemption Report, in which for the period ended December 31, 2020 (1) Core Financial, LLC (the "Company") did not claim an exemption under paragraph (k) of 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5, and (2) identified the following conditions pursuant to Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 under which the Company is eligible to file an Exemption Report because the Company limits its business activities to effecting securities transactions via subscriptions on a subscription way basis where the funds are payable to the issuer or its agent and to the Company, and the Company (i) did not directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers, (other than money or other consideration received and promptly transmitted in compliance with paragraph (a) or (b)(2) of Rule 15c2-4 and/or funds received and promptly transmitted for effecting transactions via subscriptions on a subscription way basis where funds are payable to the issuer or its agent and not to the Company); (ii) did not carry accounts of or for customers; and (iii) did not carry PAB accounts (as defined in Rule 15c3-3) (the "identified conditions") for the period from December 2, 2020 through December 31, 2020 without exception, and in which for the period from January 1, 2020 through December 1, 2020, the Company identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3(k) under which the Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3: paragraph (k)(2)(i) (the "exemption provisions") and (2) the Company stated that the Company met the identified exemption provisions for the period January 1, 2020 through December 1, 2020 without exception. Core Financial, LLC's management is responsible for compliance with the identified conditions, exemption provisions, and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Core Financial, LLC's compliance with the identified conditions and exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the conditions set forth in FAQ #8 of Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17 a-5 for the period from December 2, 2020 through December 31, 2020 and based on the conditions set forth in paragraph k(2)(i) of Rule 15c3.3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 for the period from January 1, 2020 through December 1, 2020.
