Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

December 31, 2022

1. Organization and Business

Brookfield Private Advisors LLC (the “Company”), a limited liability company formed under the laws of the State of Delaware, is a broker-dealer in securities registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”).

The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Brookfield US Inc. (the “Parent”), which is an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Brookfield Asset Management ULC (“BAM ULC”).

On December 9, 2022, Brookfield Asset Management Inc. (“Brookfield”) completed the public listing and distribution of a 25% interest in of its asset management business through Brookfield Asset Management Ltd., by way of a special distribution to its existing shareholders. The transaction resulted in the division of Brookfield into two publicly traded companies – Brookfield Corporation under the stock ticker BN and Brookfield Asset Management Ltd under the stock ticker BAM. Brookfield Asset Management Ltd. owns 25% of BAM ULC and 75% is owned by Brookfield Corporation (the “Ultimate Parent”).

The U.S. dollar is the functional and presentation currency of the Company.

The Company acts primarily as a broker or dealer selling private placements of securities. The Company primarily distributes private placements for investment funds that are managed by BAM ULC.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

These financial statements were prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Revenue Recognition:

The Company recognizes revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The Company follows a five-step model to (a) identify the contract(s) with a customer, (b) identify the performance obligations in the contract, (c) determine the transaction price, (d) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and (e) recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation. In determining the transaction price, the Company includes variable consideration only to the extent that it is probable that a significant reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognized would not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is resolved.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Private placements

The Company places securities for entities that want to raise funds through a sale of securities. Revenues are earned from fees arising from securities offerings in which the Company acts as a placement agent for funds not managed by BAM ULC. Placement fees earned for services to alternative asset managers are typically recognized upon acceptance by a fund of capital or capital commitments (referred to as a “closing date”), in accordance with terms set forth in individual agreements. The Company has determined that the closing date is the appropriate point in time to recognize revenue for private placement securities transactions as there are no significant actions which the Company needs to take subsequent to this date and the purchaser obtains the control and benefit of the offering at that point.

The Company does not receive any compensation from its fund-raising activities for BAM ULC managed funds. Accordingly, the Company does not expect to realize revenue in the future.

Cash

All cash deposits are held by one financial institution and therefore are subject to the credit risk at that financial institution.

Income Taxes

The Company is a single member limited liability company and is treated as a disregarded entity for federal income tax reporting purposes. The Internal Revenue Code (“IRC”) provides that any income or loss is passed through to the ultimate taxpaying entity for federal, state and certain local income taxes. Accordingly, no federal, state or local income taxes are provided or considered for purposes of the financial statements. Additionally, any tax benefit that the Parent may receive is not remitted to the Company.

As of December 31, 2022, management has determined that the Company had no uncertain tax positions that would require financial statement recognition. This determination is subject to ongoing evaluation as facts and circumstances may require.

3. Economic Dependency

The Company may require from time-to-time support from the Parent and Ultimate Parent; however, management believes it has sufficient cash to support operations for at least one year from the date of the issuance of these financial statements.

4. Transactions with Related Parties

The Company maintains an administrative services agreement (the "Agreement") with the Ultimate Parent. Pursuant to the Agreement, the Ultimate Parent provides accounting, administrative, office space, human resources, payroll and other services. The Ultimate Parent provides these services at no cost to the Company. These costs have not been recorded on the books of the Company.

All transactions with related parties are settled in the normal course of business. The terms of any of these arrangements may not be the same as those that would otherwise exist or result from agreements and transactions among unrelated parties.

5. Regulatory Requirements

The Company is subject to SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2022, the Company had net capital of approximately $383,000 which exceeded the required net capital by approximately $374,000. The ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, at December 31, 2022 was 0.37 to 1.

The Company does not hold customers' cash or securities and, therefore, has no obligations under SEC Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

6. Contingencies

The Company may enter into contracts or agreements that contain indemnifications or warranties. Future events could occur that lead to the execution of these provisions against the Company. Based on its history and experience, the Member considers the likelihood of such an event to be remote; in addition, the maximum potential exposure is unknown.

7. Financial Risk Management and Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk as substantially all of the cash of the Company is held by one financial institution. The Company manages its credit risk through careful selection of the financial institutions through which it conducts its business and clients to whom it provides services. The Company has minimal liquidity, foreign exchange and market risk.

8. Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated the impact of all subsequent events on the Company and has determined that there were no subsequent events through the date of issuance of the financial statements requiring recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.
