Notes to the Financial Statement

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Member and Management of
LarrainVial Securities US LLC:

Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of LarrainVial Securities US LLC (the Company) as of December 31, 2023, and the related notes (collectively, the financial statement). In our opinion, the financial statement presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2023, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Notes to the Financial Statement
December 31, 2023

1. Organization

LarrainVial Securities US LLC (the “Company” or “LVS”) was incorporated in Delaware on November 2, 2009. In July 19, 2010 the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”) granted the application of the Company to conduct business contingent upon the execution of the Membership Agreement.

The Company is an institutional brokerage firm. The Company is engaged primarily in the business of effecting transactions in foreign equities in Chile. The Company is registered as a broker dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission and FINRA and commenced operations in the capacity as a broker dealer on November 1, 2010.

The Company acts as an agent for non-U.S. equity sales by its affiliate, Larrain Vial S.A. Corredora de Bolsa (“LVCB”), to U.S. institutional investors and earns commission income on this brokerage business. The Company clears its foreign equities brokerage business on a delivery versus payment/receipt versus payment basis through LVCB. The Company also transacts in foreign exchange spot contracts, and non-deliverable foreign exchange forward transactions.

The Company is a subsidiary of Larraín Vial SpA (“LVSA” or “the Parent”) a Chilean investing private company, which is the sole member of the Company.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

a) Use of Estimates and Basis of Preparation

The preparation of the financial statement in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect amounts reported in the financial statement and accompanying notes. Management believes that the estimates utilized in preparing its financial statement are reasonable and prudent. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

b) Right of Use Assets

The Company recognizes and measures its leases in accordance with FASB ASC 842, Leases. The Company is a lessee in a noncancellable lease for office space. The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease, or contains a lease, at inception of a contract and when the terms of an existing contract are changed. The Company recognizes a lease liability and a right of use (“ROU”) asset at the commencement date of the lease.

The lease liability is initially and subsequently recognized based on the present value of its future lease payments. Variable payments are included in the future lease payments when those variable payments depend on an index or a rate. The discount rate is the implicit rate if it is readily determinable or otherwise the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate. The implicit rates of our leases are not readily determinable and accordingly, we use our incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at the commencement date for all leases. The Company’s incremental borrowing rate for a lease is the rate of interest it would have to pay on a collateralized basis to borrow an amount equal to the lease payments under similar terms and in a similar economic environment.

b) Right of Use Assets, Continued

The ROU asset is subsequently measured throughout the lease term at the amount of the remeasured lease liability (i.e., present value of the remaining lease payments), plus unamortized initial direct costs, plus (minus) any prepaid (accrued) lease payments, less the unamortized balance of lease incentives received, and any impairment recognized. Lease cost for lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Company has elected, for all underlying classes of assets, to not recognize ROU assets and lease liabilities for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less at lease commencement, and do not include an option to purchase the underlying asset that the Company is reasonably certain to exercise. The Company recognizes lease cost associated with short-term leases on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

c) Property, Equipment and Depreciation

Property and equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is recognized based on the straight line method over the estimated useful life of the asset. Management tests for impairment when there is reason to believe such impairment may exist. At December 31, 2023, all assets were operational.

A summary of the cost and accumulated depreciation of fixed assets at December 31, 2023 is as follows:

		Estimated Useful Lives
Computers	8,371	3 years
Furniture and equipment	50,206	7 years
Leasehold improvements	165,794	5 years
	224,371
Less accumulated depreciation	(193,961)
	30,410

Property and equipment are reviewed for impairment whenever events of changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. If circumstances require a long-lived asset be tested for possible impairment, the Company first compares undiscounted cash flows expected to be generated by that asset or asset group to its carrying amount. If the carrying amount of the long-lived asset or asset group is not recoverable on an undiscounted cash flow basis, an impairment is recognized to the extent that the carrying amount exceeds its fair value. Fair value is determined using discounted cash flow models, as considered necessary.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, Continued

d) Credit Losses

The Company accounts for credit losses in accordance with ASC Topic 326, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (“ASC 326”). ASC 326 impacts the impairment model for certain financial assets measured at amortized cost by requiring a current expected credit loss (“CECL”) methodology to estimate expected credit losses over the entire life of the financial asset, recorded at inception or purchase. Under the accounting update, the Company has the ability to determine there are no expected credit losses in certain circumstances.

The Company identified receivables from institutional customers and affiliates as in scope. The Company concluded that an allowance for credit losses was not required based on the Company’s expectation of the collectability of financial instruments carried at amortized cost, including other receivables utilizing the CECL framework.

The Company considers factors such as historical experience, credit quality, age of balances and current and future economic conditions that may affect the Company’s expectation of the collectability in determining the allowance for credit losses. The Company’s expectation is that the credit risk associated with other receivables is not significant until they are 90 days past due based on the contractual arrangement and expectation of collection in accordance with industry standards.

3. Cash

The Company maintains its cash balances in one financial institution, Citibank, which, at times, exceed federally-insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant risk on cash. There are no restrictions or compensating balances on such accounts.

4. Off Balance Sheet Risk and Transactions with Customers

ASC 460 (formerly known as Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation No.45, “Guarantor’s Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others”) provides accounting and disclosure requirements for certain guarantees. In the normal course of business, the Company’s customer activities involve the execution and clearance of customer securities transactions through clearing brokers. Securities transactions are subject to the credit risk of counterparties or customer non-performance.

Pursuant to the clearing agreement, the Company has agreed to reimburse its clearing brokers without limit for any losses that the transactions are collateralized by the underlying security, thereby reducing the associated risk to changes in the market value of the security through the settlement date. As a result of the settlement of these transactions, there were no amounts to be indemnified to clearing brokers for these customer accounts at December 31, 2023.

5. Leases

The Company has an obligation as a lessee for office space with initial noncancelable terms in excess of one year. The Company classified the lease as operating lease. The Company's lease does not include termination options for either party to the lease or restrictive financial or other covenants. Payments due under the lease contracts include fixed payments plus variable payments. The Company's office space lease require it to make variable payments for the Company's proportionate share of the building's property taxes, insurance, and common area maintenance. These variable lease payments are not included in lease payments used to determine lease liability and are recognized as variable costs when incurred.

Amounts reported in the statement of financial condition as of December 31, 2023 were as follows:

Operating lease:

	US$
Operating lease ROU asset	462,978
Operating lease liability	513,360

Amounts disclosed for the ROU asset obtained in exchange for lease obligations and reductions to the ROU asset resulting from reductions to lease obligations include amounts added to or reduced from the carrying amount of the ROU asset resulting from new leases, lease modifications or reassessments.

Maturities of the lease liability under a noncancellable operating lease as of December 31, 2023 was as follows:

Year Ending December 31,	US$
2024	144,620
2025	148,234
2026	151,934
2027	103,506
Total undiscounted lease payments	548,294
Less imputed interest	(34,934)
Total lease liabilities	513,360

6. Income Taxes

The Company is subject to income taxes at the U.S. federal, state and municipal level and has elected to file as a taxable C-corporation. The Company is not subject to Chilean tax.

Management has an obligation to accurately report the true state of the Company, and to make judgments and estimates where necessary. In the context of deferred tax assets, the deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance to the amount that is more likely than not to be realized in future years.

For the Company, a deferred tax asset has been recognized based on the Company's operating loss carryforwards and its deductible temporary differences. At December 31, 2023, the Company has a net operating loss carryforward ("NOL") of approximately $7,988,000 for U.S. federal income tax purposes of which $1,746,000 can be carried forward indefinitely while the remaining balance will expire between 2035 and 2036 and $8,265,000 and $7,907,000 of NOLs for New York State and New York City income tax purposes, respectively, expiring between 2035 and 2042. The NOLs and deductible temporary differences created a deferred tax asset of approximately $3,063,000 as of December 31, 2023.

The tax effects of temporary differences and carryforwards that give rise to significant portions of the deferred tax assets at December 31, 2023 are as follows:

	US$
Deferred tax assets
Operating loss carryforwards	2,599,468
Property and equipment	51,672
Accrued expenses	246,222
Lease liability	165,991
Total deferred tax assets	3,063,353
Deferred tax liability
Right of use asset	(149,701)
Total deferred tax liability	(149,701)
	2,913,652

The Company is subject to routine examinations by taxing jurisdictions (i.e. US federal, NY State and NY City); however, there are currently no examinations for any tax periods in progress. The Company's income tax returns may be examined by the taxing authorities for up to three years after their filing. Management believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2019.

The Company recognizes the effect of income tax positions only if those positions are more likely than not to be sustained. Recognized income tax positions are measured at the largest amount that is greater than 50 percent likely of being realized. As of December 31, 2023, the Company does not have any unrecognized tax benefits.

7. Net Capital Requirements and Other Regulatory Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to the net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. The Company has elected to use the alternate method permitted by Rule 15c3-1 which requires that the Company maintain minimum net capital of $250,000. At December 31, 2023, the Company had net capital of $3,492,252 which was $3,242,252 in excess of the amount required to be maintained.

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon the continued financial support from the Parent. The Parent has indicated that it will provide additional capital as needed to sustain the Company one year from the date the financial statement was available to be issued.

8. Related Party Transactions

The Company receives overhead services pursuant to a service level arrangement with LVCB. The Company is charged a percentage of compensation, occupancy, allocated administrative costs and other costs allocated from LVA and LVCB based on actual costs attributable to the Company. Payments related to the service agreement are invoiced and settled in US Dollars.

LVS is engaged in providing various investment banking and securities transactions services to its clients, which include U.S. Institutional investors. Under a clearing agreement between LVS and LVCB, certain transactions are referred to LVCB on behalf of U.S. clients for execution. The Company also provides advisory services to related parties relating to fixed income securities transactions. As of December 31, 2023, the Company had a receivable of $279,895 which is included as due to affiliates in the statement of financial condition.

LVS has an agreement with Larrain Vial Investment Inc ("LV Investment") to provide administrative and staff services requested by LV Investment. LVS is compensated for services provided on the basis of cost plus a 10% margin. As of December 31, 2023, the Company had a receivable of $405,771 which is included as due to affiliates in the statement of financial condition.

LVS has an agreement with Larrain Vial Asset Management Administradora General de Fondos S.A. ("LVAM") to provide management services. LVS was compensated for services at a fixed monthly fee through December 2023. As of December 31, 2023, the Company had a receivable of $173,085 which is included as due to affiliates in the statement of financial condition.

9. Contingencies

The Company is not involved in or foresees any legal proceedings concerning matters arising connection with the conduct of its businesses.

10. Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through February 29, 2024 the date the financial statement was available to be issued.
