REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Member of Marlin & Associates Securities LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Marlin & Associates Securities LLC as of December 31, 2019, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the “financial statement”). In our opinion, the statement of financial condition presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Marlin & Associates Securities LLC as of December 31, 2019 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of Marlin & Associates Securities LLC’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on Marlin & Associates Securities LLC’s financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to Marlin & Associates Securities LLC in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

We have served as Marlin & Associates Securities LLC’s auditor since 2009.

MARLIN & ASSOCIATES SECURITIES LLC

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Description of Business

Marlin & Associates Securities LLC (the "Company") was organized on October 29, 2009, as a limited liability company under the laws of the State of New York and is a wholly owned subsidiary of Marlin & Associates Holding LLC (the "Parent company").

The Company provides merger and acquisition advisory services and also operates as a placement agent specializing in the private placement of securities specifically for middle market companies that are engaged in the fields of digital technology, and healthcare related products and services. The Company does not have any trading accounts, nor does it hold cash or securities for or on behalf of any customers or clients.

The Company became a registered securities broker-dealer on August 4, 2010, with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. ("FINRA").

Use of Estimates

Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Concentrations of Credit Risk for Cash

The Company maintains its cash balances at one financial institution. Cash balances are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation subject to certain limitations.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less when purchased.

Receivables

Receivables are stated as the amounts management expects to collect. An allowance for doubtful accounts is recorded based on a combination of historical experience, aging analysis, and information on specific accounts. Account balances are written off against the allowance after all means of collection have been exhausted and the potential for recovery is considered remote. Management has determined that no allowance is required at December 31, 2019.

Income Taxes

The Company is not a taxpaying entity for federal and state income tax purposes and, accordingly, no provision has been made for these income taxes. The Company files a consolidated Metropolitan Commuter Transportation Mobility tax return and New York City Unincorporated Business Tax Return with its Parent, and a portion of this tax is allocated to the Company based on pro-rata earnings.

As a single member LLC whose Parent is also a single member LLC, the Company's taxable income or loss is reported on the tax returns of its ultimate owner.

2 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company maintains an intercompany account with the Parent which had a balance of $642,915 as of the year-end.

3 - MAJOR CUSTOMERS

Accounts receivable are due from one customer.

4 - COMMITMENTS

Compensation agreements

The Company has employment and independent contractor agreements with certain individuals that are executed in the normal course of business specifying terms for determining earned fees in connection with various transactions.

5 - REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS

As a registered broker-dealer, the Company is subject to the net capital provisions of Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital shall not exceed fifteen times net capital, as defined. At December 31, 2019, the Company had net capital of $8,639 which exceeded requirements by $3,639. The ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 3.81 to 1.

The Company is exempt from Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission under paragraph (k)(2)(i).
