Dear Ms. Shepley:

We have reviewed your responses to our letter dated May 3, 2010 and have the following additional comments.

General

1. We note your response to our prior comment 2 and reissue. It remains unclear why it is necessary, under the circumstances, to file six separate registration statements for entities that do not have current plans to enter into a business combination or acquisition. Please consider withdrawing the registration statements for DE Acquisitions 2 through 6 and refiling when circumstances warrant.

Risk Factors

There is currently no trading market for our common stock, page 5

2. Please revise to delete the phrase “our current” from the second to last paragraph of this risk factor.

Item 5. Directors and Executive Officers, page 9

3. We note your response to our prior comment 6 and reissue. Please revise to provide complete disclosure of Ms. Shepley’s business experience for the past five years, including dates. Also, identify the other businesses owned and operated by Ms. Shepley during the last five years, briefly describe the nature of her responsibility to the other businesses, and discuss briefly the size of the operation supervised. Please advise whether there has been any relationship between Ms. Shepley and Cruisestock Inc. (now known as Brookside Technology Holdings, Corp.) and between Ms. Shepley and Venture Fund I, and if so revise your disclosure accordingly.
