SIERRA PACIFIC SECURITIES, LLC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2023

(1) NATURE OF BUSINESS

Sierra Pacific Securities, LLC (the "Company") is a registered broker-dealer formed under the laws of the State of Nevada maintaining its principal office in Las Vegas, Nevada and operates branch offices in multiple locations throughout the United States of America. The Company is subject to a minimum net capital requirement pursuant to SEC Rule 15c3-1. The Company operates pursuant to the (k)(2)(ii) exemptive provision of SEC Rule 15c3-3 and does not hold customer funds or securities. Therefore, the Company is exempt from the computation for the determination of reserve requirements pursuant to Rule 15c3-3. The Company's activities are primarily comprised of purchasing and selling government, municipal and agency securities, corporate obligations, collateralized mortgage obligations, and bank Certificates of Deposit, and holding these types of securities for the Company's own account.

(2) SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The Company's financial statements are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") as determined by Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standard Codification ("ASC").

Adoption of New Accounting Standard

On January 1, 2023, the Company adopted Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2016-13, Financial Instruments - Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments ("ASC 326"). This standard replaced the incurred loss methodology with an expected loss methodology that is referred to as the current expected credit loss ("CECL") methodology. CECL requires an estimate of expected credit losses for the remaining estimated life of the financial asset using historical experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts and generally applies to financial assets measured at amortized cost and some off-balance sheet credit exposures such as unfunded commitments to extend credit. Financial assets measured at amortized cost will be presented at the net amount expected to be collected by using an allowance for expected credit losses.

The Company adopted ASC 326 and all related subsequent amendments thereto effective January 1, 2023 using the modified retrospective approach for all financial assets measured at amortized cost and off-balance sheet credit exposures. The impact of the adoption was not considered material to the financial statements and primarily resulted in enhanced disclosures.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements is in conformity with GAAP which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Although these assumptions are based on the best available information, actual results may be different from these estimates.

(2) SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, Continued

Receivables

The Company extends credit to its clearing organization and brokers for amounts earned for security transactions completed under the clearing agreements. As of December 31, 2023, no allowance for expected credit losses was recorded by the Company. The Company recognizes the amount of change in current expected credit losses as an allowance gain or loss in expenses in the accompanying statement of operations. For the year ended December 31, 2023, there were no allowance gains or losses recorded by the Company. Receivables are written-off against the allowance when the Company has no reasonable expectation of recovering the receivable, either in its entirety or a portion thereof.

Management estimates the allowance for expected credit losses by applying historical credit loss rates to receivable aging categories. Management considers historical loss information to be a reasonable basis for its estimate as the composition of receivables and the risk characteristics of its clearing organization and brokers and lending practices have not changed significantly over time. In addition, receivables are pooled by aging category as the change in risk characteristics is similar as receivables age. Management has determined that the current and reasonable and supportable forecasted economic conditions are consistent with the economic conditions included in the historical information.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash consists of cash held in banks and other broker dealers. The recorded value of cash (and any other financial instruments) approximates fair value at December 31, 2023. The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. The Company held no cash equivalents at December 31, 2023.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are carried at cost, net of accumulated depreciation and amortization. Property and equipment are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the assets of two or five years. Leasehold improvements are amortized on a straight-line basis over the lesser of the estimated useful life of the assets or the remaining term of the related leases. The Company had $290,335 of accumulated depreciation recognized as of December 31, 2023 and recorded $3,600 of depreciation expense for the year ended December 31, 2023 which is included in office expense on the statement of operations.

Clearing Organizations

The Company has an agreement with another securities broker and dealer to act as a clearing organization for the Company. The clearing organization clears all securities transactions.

The Company is required to maintain certain deposit levels with the clearing organization. The amount of the deposit depends on the agreement with the clearing organization and the exchange market requirements. As of December 31, 2023, the Company had deposit levels with clearing organizations exceeding the required amount of $100,000.

(2) SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, Continued

Revenue Recognition

The Company's trading profits are comprised of gains and losses resulting from the sale of investment securities. These gains and losses are recorded on a settlement date basis. Securities owned and contracts to purchase securities in the future are recorded at market value and, accordingly, any changes in market value are recognized in the statement of operations. Market value is determined based on active exchanges (established exchanges and "over-the-counter" exchanges) in the United States. Underwriting revenue is recognized on the day funds are received by the lead underwriter.

Income Taxes

Effective July 1, 2018, the Company converted from an LLC to a company subject to income taxes under subchapter C of the Internal Revenue Code. Deferred income taxes are provided for temporary differences between the basis of the Company's assets and liabilities for financial reporting and income tax purposes. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities represent future income tax return consequences for those differences which will either be deductible or taxable when the assets or liabilities are recovered or settled.

The Company records liabilities for income tax positions taken or expected to be taken when those positions are deemed uncertain to be upheld in an examination by taxing authorities. As of December 31, 2023, no liabilities for uncertain income tax positions were recorded.

Leases

The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease at inception. The operating lease right-of-use asset represents our right to use an underlying asset for the lease term and the operating lease liability represents our obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. Rent expense for lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

(3) SECURITIES OWNED

Securities owned consist of trading securities, recorded at market value, and include accrued interest of $787,110. These securities had a cost of $81,397,985 and are comprised of corporate obligations, bank Certificates of Deposit, municipal and agency securities, collateralized mortgage obligations, and federal obligations.

(4) FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Fair Value Measurement

The guidance for fair value measurements defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value and establishes a hierarchy based on the quality of inputs used to measure fair value and enhances disclosure requirements for fair value measurements. The Company's securities owned, at market value, and securities sold, not yet purchased, are reflected in the Statement of Financial Condition on a trade date basis. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

DECEMBER 31, 2023

(4) FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS, Continued

A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell an asset or transfer a liability occurs in the principal market for the asset and liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market. Valuation techniques that are consistent with the market, income or cost approach are used to measure fair value.

The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three broad levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

Level 1	Inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company has the ability to access.
Level 2	Inputs (other than quoted prices included within Level 1) that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.
Level 3	Are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability and rely on management's own judgments about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. The unobservable inputs are developed based upon the best information available and may include the Company's own data.

The following table presents the investments carried on the Statement of Financial Condition by level within the hierarchy as of December 31, 2023.

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Trading securities	$ -	$ 105,796,607	$ -	$ 105,796,607
Securities sold short, not yet purchased	$ -	$ (21,725,887)	$ -	$ (21,725,887)

Trading securities values are readily determined based on other data values or market prices.

The securities are purchased on margin with the clearing organization and the liability related to such purchases is included under the caption "Payable to Clearing organization" on the Statement of Financial Condition. The liability includes inventory financed and the value of certain securities sold short – not yet purchased.

Determination of Fair Value

The following is a description of the Company's valuation methodologies for assets and liabilities measured at fair value.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2023

(4) FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS, Continued

Where quoted prices for identical securities are available in an active market, instruments are classified in Level 1 of the valuation hierarchy. Level 1 instruments include highly-liquid government bonds, for which there are quoted prices in active markets.

If quoted market prices are not available for the specific position, the Company may estimate the value of such instruments using a combination of observed transaction prices, independent pricing services and relevant broker quotes. These transactions are classified within Level 2 of the valuation hierarchy. Level 2 instruments primarily include agency mortgage backed securities, corporate debt securities, bank certificates of deposit and municipal securities. Transactions are classified within Level 3 if there are no observable transaction prices or independent pricing sources available or a component of the price is derived from a model with an observable input.

(5) TRADING ACTIVITIES AND RELATED RISKS

The Company actively trades government, corporate, municipal and agency securities and bank certificates of deposit. Positions in these securities are subject to varying degrees of market and credit risk.

Market prices are subject to fluctuation and, as such, the Company is exposed to market risk. The fair value of the Company's investments will fluctuate in response to changes in market interest rates. Increases and decreases in prevailing interest rates generally translate into decreases and increases in fair values of those instruments. Additionally, fair values of interest-rate sensitive instruments may be affected by the credit worthiness of the issuer, prepayment options, relative values of alternative investments, the liquidity of the instrument, and other general market conditions. Market risk is directly impacted by the volatility and liquidity in the markets in which financial instruments are traded. The Company monitors its exposure to market risk, or its market risk profile, on a daily basis through a variety of financial, security position, and control procedures.

Credit risk is the possibility of debt securities being downgraded by the rating agencies or going into default due to non-performance by issuers.

Securities sold short, not yet purchased (short sales) represent obligations of the Company to make a future delivery of a specific security at a specified price and, correspondingly, create an obligation to purchase the security at the prevailing market price (or deliver the security if owned by the Company) at the later delivery date. As a result, short sales create the risk that the Company's ultimate obligation to satisfy the delivery requirement may exceed the amount of the proceeds initially received.

The Company's counter-party risk is minimized by trading only with institutional parties and by clearing trades via the Federal Wire and the Deposit Trust Company ("DTC"), which ensure settlements occur simultaneously for both sides of the trade.

DECEMBER 31, 2023

(5) TRADING ACTIVITIES AND RELATED RISKS, Continued

The Company engages in selling of contracts to deliver at a future date or to repurchase at a future date (futures contracts). These contracts are used to hedge the risk associated with owning debt securities. At December 31, 2023, there were one hundred and seventeen futures contracts that had not been settled (notional amount of $11,700,000). These contracts relate to United States Treasuries deliverable in March 2024. Net realized and unrealized gains and losses from futures contracts are included in the commodities – hedging gain (loss) in the accompanying statement of operations. For the period ended December 31, 2023, net realized and unrealized losses on commodities contracts totaled $245,194.

(6) SUBORDINATED DEBT

During 2018, the Company converted $15,000,000 of members' equity to subordinated term notes assumed by the members of the Company. The Company paid off the notes in 2023. Interest on the subordinated term notes accrued at the stated interest rate per the agreements of 3.75% and was paid annually. Interest expense on the notes totaled $220,000 for the year ended December 31, 2023.

(7) RENTAL OF OFFICE FACILITIES

The Company occupies an office facility with an initial noncancelable lease terms in excess of one year. The lease agreement terminates in May 2024. The lease has an optional extension of two additional five-year periods; however, the use of this extension is not considered probable and therefore has not been included in the determination of amounts recorded on the financial statements. The lease agreement includes fixed rental payments that increase at pre-determined rates. The Company records the operating lease right of use asset and lease liability based on the present value of lease payments, discounted using the current commercial lending rate. The discount rate associated with the operating lease as of December 31, 2023 is 4.00%.

Rent expense for the year ended December 31, 2023 was $139,971. Future lease obligations under the operating leases are shown in the table below:

Year Ended December 31, 2024	$ 28,728
Total undiscounted cash flows	28,728
Less present value discount	(625)
Total operating lease liability	$ 28,103

(8) CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK FOR CASH HELD IN BANKS

The Company maintains cash accounts at Bank of America which had bank balances totaling $183,080 on December 31, 2023. Accounts at this institution are insured up to $250,000 by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(9) LEGAL CONTINGENCIES

The Company is not currently a defendant in litigation incidental to its securities business. The Company accounts for litigation losses in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 450, "Contingencies: ("ASC 450"). Under ASC 450, loss contingency provisions are recorded for probable losses at management's best estimate of a loss, or when a best estimate cannot be made, a minimum loss contingency amount is recorded.

These estimates are often initially developed substantially earlier than the ultimate loss is known, and the estimates are refined each accounting period as additional information becomes available. Accordingly, the initial amount estimated and recorded could be as low as zero. As information becomes known, the initial estimate may be increased, resulting in additional loss provisions. Also, a best estimate amount is changed to a lower amount when events result in an expectation of a more favorable outcome than previously estimated.

(10) NET CAPITAL

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1). Accordingly, the Company is required to maintain a minimum level of net capital of $100,000 at December 31, 2023. At December 31, 2023, the Company had computed net capital of $29,464,881, which was in excess of the required net capital level by $29,049,084. In addition, the Company is not allowed to have a ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital in excess of 15 to 1. At December 31, 2023, the Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .212 to 1.

(11) INCOME TAXES

The Company recognizes deferred tax liabilities and assets for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the financial statements or tax returns. Deferred tax liabilities and assets are determined based on the differences between the financial statements and tax basis of assets and liabilities using the enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which the differences are expected to reverse. The measurement of deferred tax assets is reduced, if necessary, by the amount of any tax benefits that are not expected to be realized based on available evidence.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Member of Sierra Pacific Securities, LLC:

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which (1) Sierra Pacific Securities, LLC (the "Company") identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. §15c3-3(k) under which the Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3(k)(2)(ii) (the "exemption provisions") and (2) the Company stated that the Company met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. The Company's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
