The accompanying balance sheet of ZenVault Medical Corporation as of December 31, 2010 and the related statements of income and cash flows for the year then ended have been compiled by us.

A compilation is limited to presenting in the form of financial statements information that is the representation of management. We have not audited or reviewed the accompanying financial statements and, accordingly, do not express an opinion or any form of assurance on them.

Management has elected to omit substantially all of the disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles. If the omitted disclosures were included in the financial statements, they might influence the user's conclusions about the company's financial position. Accordingly, these financial statements are not designed for those who are not informed about such matters.

We are not independent with respect to ZenVault Medical Corporation

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2010

1. RESTRICTED CASH AND DESIGN AND BUILD OBLIGATION:

- a. There is a minimum threshold amount of $250,000 that the company must raise to release the funds from escrow. Once released, the funds will be applied to: (i) partial payment of ZeroNines License; (ii) partial payment of ZenVault Medical Design and Build contract; and (iii) partial payment as salaries to the engineers and management.
- b. Per the agreement between ZenVault Medical and ZeroNines, ZenVault Medical is not obligated to pay ZeroNines the full amount owed under the $620,000 Design and Build contract and will not require ZenVault Medical to pay more than 50% of the total amount of capital raised at any time during the fund raising campaign and/or 50% of its revenues until completely paid in full.

The above notes are an integral part of these financial statements.
