Re: Artisan Partners Asset Management Inc.
Registration Statement on Form S-1
Filed November 1, 2012
File No. 333-184686

Dear Ms. Olsen:

We have reviewed your registration statement and have the following comments. In some of our comments, we may ask you to provide us with information so we may better understand your disclosure.

Please respond to this letter by amending your registration statement and providing the requested information. If you do not believe our comments apply to your facts and circumstances or do not believe an amendment is appropriate, please tell us why in your response.

After reviewing any amendment to your registration statement and the information you provide in response to these comments, we may have additional comments.

General

1. Please complete the blanks and revise to include all non-Rule 430A information in your next amendment. Note that information regarding the number of securities to be offered is not information that may be omitted pursuant to Rule 430A. Also confirm that any preliminary prospectus that you circulate will include all non-Rule 430A information. Finally, please include the exhibits to the registration statement with your next amendment.
2. Please supplementally provide us with copies of all written communications, as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act, that you, or anyone authorized to do so on your behalf, present to potential investors in reliance on Section 5(d) of the Securities Act, whether or not they retain copies of the communications. Similarly, please supplementally provide us with any research reports about you that are published or distributed in reliance upon Section 2(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 added by Section 105(a) of the Jumpstart Our Business Startups Act by any broker or dealer that is participating or will participate in your offering.

Performance and Assets Under Management Information Used in this Prospectus, page iii

3. Please tell us why you have not presented in the prospectus the accounts with socially-based restrictions and the accounts managed in a currency other than U.S. dollars.

4. We note that your disclosure on pages 1-6 focuses on your strengths and strategy and leaves balancing disclosure for later in the prospectus. We also note that identical disclosure appears in the Business section on pages 130-136. Your summary should provide a balanced overview of the most significant aspects of your offering or business, not merely repeat the text of the prospectus and recite details regarding the positive aspects of the investment and your business or industry. We also note extensive repetition throughout the summary itself. Please revise.
5. Please revise to remove promotional language from your prospectus or provide independent, objective support for the claims. As nonexclusive examples, we note your disclosure on pages 1 and 2 of your “record of investment excellence,” success in producing attractive investment results, “track record of investment success,” “superior investment performance,” and “attractive range of high value-added equity investment strategies.”
6. We note your disclosure, such as in the first paragraph, that 11 of your 12 investment strategies have outperformed their respective benchmarks, on a gross and net basis, since inception. Please provide equally prominent disclosure that you have also had periods in each strategy in which you have underperformed those relevant benchmarks and describe how your investment strategies have performed with respect to their benchmarks more recently, such as in the last few years.

Our Business, page 1

7. Please briefly explain the H&F preference when first mentioned in the last paragraph of this section.

Why We Are Going Public, page 7

9. Please revise the first bullet point to explain how becoming a public company preserves your independence.

Our Structure and Organization, page 8

10. We note the organization chart included on pages 8 and 49. Please ensure that the graphics included in your prospectus are clear and legible.

11. Please revise this section to discuss the expected departures of Janet D. Olsen and Karen L. Guy disclosed on pages 158 and 167.

13. Please expand your disclosure to describe any material risks related to your lack of corporate-level risk management policies related to market risk or exchange rate risk, disclosed on pages 128-129.

Our indebtedness may expose us to material risks, page 31

14. Please revise this section and where appropriate to clarify the substantial indebtedness that will continue to be outstanding after giving effect to the application of net proceeds from the offering. Please also revise this section to clarify the related substantial portion of your cash flow that could be required for debt service.

The cost of insuring our business is substantial and may increase, page 33

15. Please revise to quantify your “substantial” insurance costs and to explain the types of insurance coverage that may not be available or may be available only at prohibitive costs.

19. Please revise this section to describe the risk to holders of your Class A common stock related to anti-takeover provisions in your restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws including (1) advance notice requirements, (2) limits on written consents, (3) limits on special meetings, and (4) the authority given to your board of directors to adopt, amend, or repeal the bylaws while similar shareholder action requires a supermajority vote.

Unaudited Pro Forma Consolidated Financial Information, page 81

20. We note that in August 2012, you issued $200 million in unsecured notes and entered into a $100 million five-year revolving credit agreement. You used the proceeds of the notes and $90 million drawn from the revolving credit facility to prepay all of the then-outstanding principal amount of your $400 million term loan. Tell us what consideration you gave to presenting the pro forma impact of this financing transaction. In this regard, we note that footnote (d) to your pro forma statement of operations eliminates the historical interest expense associated with the principal amount draw under Artisan Partners Holdings’ revolving credit facility that will be repaid with a portion of the net proceeds of this offering.

Notes to Unaudited Pro Forma Consolidated Statement of Financial Position, page 87

Note (b), page 87

21. As discussed under your risk factor on page 41 titled, “In certain cases, payments under the tax receivable agreements to our existing owners may be accelerated and/or significantly exceed the actual benefits we realize in respect of the tax attributes subject to the tax receivable agreements,” we note a change of control could impact your obligations under the tax receivable agreements. Given your risk factor on page 24 titled, “We expect a change of control of our company to occur approximately one year after the completion of this offering . . . ,” please expand your disclosures to discuss the potential impact of such a change in control on your accounting for the tax receivable agreement.

Unaudited Pro Forma Consolidated Statements of Operation, pages 82 and 83

22. We note Artisan Partners Holdings’ intention to distribute retained profits to its pre-offering partners and your pro forma balance sheet adjustment for this distribution. Please address the need to provide a pro forma statement of operations adjustment to reflect compensation expense for any distribution to your employee-partners.

Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition . . . , page 94

Distribution and Marketing, page 104

23. Please revise to clarify the “significant portion” of Artisan Funds’ shares that are held by investors through intermediaries.

Results of Operations, page 107

Operating Expenses, page 108

24. We note that the changes in value of your Class B liability awards fluctuated significantly from the six month period ended June 30, 2012 to the years ended December 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010. Please revise your disclosure to more clearly discuss the factors contributing to significant changes in the value of your class B liability awards. In this regard, we note your disclosure on page 112 that the increase in value during 2010 was due to the increase in your assets under management and improved revenues. We also note that your average assets under management and revenues have increased further in 2011, however there was a decrease in the fair value of you Class B liability awards. Please explain the underlying factors that drove this decrease.

Liquidity and Capital Resources, page 119

25. Notwithstanding the numerous factors affecting your obligations to make payments under the tax receivable agreements, please expand your disclosure to provide quantitative disclosures similar to what you have provided on pages 40 and 41. Also disclose how you intend to fund the required payments.
26. With reference to your risk factor on page 42 titled, “We may be required to make a cash payment to the H&F holders in 2016, or earlier upon a change of control,” please expand your disclosures to quantify the maximum aggregate payment under your agreement with H&F holders and how you intend to fund that payment.

Certain Contractual Obligations, page 123

27. Please include disclosure for the tax receivable agreements and your payment obligation to H&F holders as part of your contractual obligations table. To the extent that you are unable to estimate the payments and/or timing of the payments, please disclose these obligations as a footnote to the contractual obligations table.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates, page 124

Equity-Based Compensation, page 126

28. We note that subsequent to April 6, 2011, to estimate the fair value of each of Class B limited partnership interest, you first determine the value of the business based on the probability weighted expected return method. Please revise your disclosure to discuss how you considered the value of your GP units, Class A common units, and redeemable preferred units in your calculation of the fair value of Class B limited partnership interest.

Business, page 130

Investment Strategies and Performance, page 136

29. We note your disclosure on page 139 of assets under management in Non-U.S. Growth, Non-U.S. Small-Cap Growth and Global Equity strategies. We also note that these strategies invest primarily in stocks of non-U.S. companies, diversified by country, industry and issuer. Board Oversight of Risk Management, page 160

30. Please expand your disclosure in this section to address the following:

Description of Capital Stock, page 184

34. You may not qualify this section by reference to the Delaware General Corporation Law. Please revise.
