JLT CAPITAL PARTNERS, LLC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2019

1. ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF BUSINESS

JLT Capital Partners LLC (the “Company”) was organized as a Limited Liability Company on May 6, 2011, in the state of Delaware. The Company was granted membership in the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”) on January 23, 2012. It is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), and is a member of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (“SIPC”).

The Company serves as a marketing and solicitation agent for investment managers and investment advisors. The Company is subject to the regulations of certain federal and state agencies and undergoes periodic examinations by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

The Company operates pursuant to paragraph (k)(2)(i) of SEC Rule 15c3-3 under which the Company claims an exemption from SEC Rule 15c3-3.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The Company’s financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents. Cash equivalents are carried at cost, which approximates market value.

Accounting basis

The Company uses the accrual basis of accounting for financial statement and income tax reporting. Accordingly revenues are recognized when services are rendered and expenses realized when the obligation is incurred.

Revenue recognition

The Company accounts for revenue in accordance with ASC Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The principal source of operating revenue is placement fees in the form of revenue sharing for services related to soliciting and obtaining suitable investors for certain client investment Funds. The Company’s revenue is recognized on an accrued basis once prospective investors commit investment funds at a client Fund’s closing event at the point of which all obligations have been met.

Significant judgement

Significant judgement is required to determine whether performance obligations are satisfied at a point in time or over time; how to allocate transaction prices where multiple performance obligations are identified; when to recognize revenue on the appropriate measure of the Company’s progress under the contract; and whether constraints on variable consideration should be applied due to uncertain future events.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and disclosure of contingent assets, and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company, taxed as a partnership for federal income tax purposes, and, thus, no federal income tax expense has been recorded in the financial statements. Taxable income of the Company is passed through to the member and reported on their individual tax return.

Pursuant to accounting guidance concerning provision for uncertain income tax provisions contained in Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 740-10, there are no uncertain income tax positions. The federal and state income tax returns are subject to examination by the IRS and state taxing authorities, generally for three years after they were filed.

The Company is subject to New Hampshire business profits and business enterprise tax.

Fair Values of Financial Instruments

Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 825, "Financial Instruments," requires the Company to disclose estimated fair values for its financial instruments. Fair value estimates, methods, and assumptions are set forth below for the Company's financial instruments: The carrying amount of cash, accounts receivable, prepaid expenses and accounts payable and accrued expenses, approximate fair value because of the short maturity of those instruments.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company places its cash with a high credit quality financial institution. The Company's account at this institution is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") up to $250,000. To reduce its risk associated with the failure of such financial institution, the Company evaluates at least annually the rating of the financial institution in which it holds deposits.

Fixed Assets

The Company capitalizes major capital expenditures. Depreciation is based on straight line method over the following useful lives:

Computer equipment	3 years
Furniture and fixtures	7 years

Depreciation expense for the year ended December 31, 2019 was $2,419.

Accounts Receivable

The determination of the amount of uncollectible accounts is based on the length of time each receivable has been outstanding, and a reasonable assessment of the capacity of the debtor to pay the receivable. The allowance for uncollectible amounts reflects the amount of loss that can be reasonably estimated by management. As of December 31, 2019, the Company has not recorded an allowance for any potential non-collection.

Recent Issued Accounting Pronouncements

The Company does not believe that the adoption of any recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting standards will have a material effect on its financial position and results of operations.

3. NET CAPITAL

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital of $5,000, and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, not exceed 15 to 1. The rule also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn, cash dividends paid or the Company's operations expanded, if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2019, the Company had net capital of $11,115, which was $6,115 in excess of the FINRA minimum net capital requirement of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital as of December 31, 2019 was 1.35 to 1.

4. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS
