- r) DRLLC shall have full access to all data and information supplied by such 'feasibility study' at all times.

- t) The parties agree to work together for the exploration and development of these mineral lease claims for the benefit of all parties.
- u) The parties shall advise each other, in advance, of any public statement, which is proposed to be made in respect to any transaction, provided that no party shall be prevented from making any disclosure statement, which is required to be made by any regulatory policy. If upon the execution of this Agreement any party is required or wishes to issue a press release, each of the parties shall have the ability to review, comment and approve upon the content of such press release prior to issuance.
- v) This Agreement shall terminate at 12:01 pm on the 14th (fourteenth) business day following any non payment by EMAC to DRLLC in the event the cash payments on the schedule listed in paragraph c) of this agreement are not met, and/or the delivery of the stock required is not delivered on a timely basis or any alternative payment acceptable to DRLLC has not been agreed to and paid to DRLLC by EMAC.
- w) In the event that EMAC allows the payments to lapse, or DRLLC is given notice by EMAC, and EMAC determines to terminate this agreement, EMAC shall give DRLLC a 30 day written notice prior to the expected termination date for the benefit of DRLLC to maintain the Asset. In any event of a termination, DRLLC shall keep the 1,100,000 shares issued from CGCC and all cash payments to the date of such termination, provided however if the properties are considered not viable to be put into production, based on a professional report, the above shares shall be cancelled and returned to treasury.
- x) Each party shall bear its own legal costs and expenses with respect to this transaction.

- y) From the date hereof until the date of termination, the parties shall carry on their respective businesses in the ordinary course and will not, without the prior written consent of the each other enter into any material contracts or obligations not in the ordinary course of business regards to these claims
