

Crescent Point Receives Notification of Continued Listing Standard from NYSE

May 15, 2020 Calgary, AB

Crescent Point Energy Corp. ("Crescent Point" or the "Company") (TSX and NYSE: CPG) received notice from the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") on April 20, 2020, that the Company's common stock was not in compliance with the NYSE's continued listing standard requiring the average closing price of its common shares be at least US$1.00 over a consecutive 30-day trading period.

Under NYSE rules, Crescent Point can regain compliance at any time during the granted cure period ending December 29, 2020, by having a closing share price and a 30 trading-day average closing share price of at least US$1.00 on the last trading day of any calendar month. Failure to regain compliance could lead to delisting. The Company's shares will continue to be listed and traded on the NYSE during the cure period subject to compliance with other continued listing requirements. The NYSE will assign a ".BC" suffix to the Company symbol "CPG" throughout the cure period representing Crescent Point as below compliance of the NYSE price listing standard.

This notice does not impact Crescent Point's ongoing business operations, its reporting requirements to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission or the continued listing and trading of the Company's common shares on the Toronto Stock Exchange. The notification is not discretionary and is sent by the NYSE when a listed company's share price falls below the continued listing standard requirement.
