1. We note your response to comment three and that you update the fair value estimate of each property at least every 180 days by obtaining a new BPO. Upon acquisition of real estate, please tell us if there are situations where you do not have an earlier BPO to use for comparison and tell us how often these situations have occurred. To the extent this situation does occur, please revise your disclosure to address how you validate the brokers' valuation of real estate. Please provide an example of your proposed disclosure, if applicable.
