Notes to the Statement of Financial Condition

As of December 31, 2023

Note 1- Organization and Nature of Business

HGI (USA) Investments LLC, (the "Company") is a wholly owned subsidiary of Harvest Global Investments Limited (the Parent) and a Limited Liability Company formed under the laws of the State of Delaware on August 20, 2012. The Company is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and was approved on May 23, 2013 as a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). The Company is principally engaged in marketing an intermediate mutual bond fund consisting of fixed income securities of companies and issuers in China and Hong Kong.

Note 2- Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP").

Commissions Receivable

Commissions receivable are carried at the amounts billed to customers, net of an allowance for credit losses, which is an estimate for credit losses based on a review of all outstanding amounts.

Allowance for credit losses

Effective January 1, 2020, the Company adopted ASC Topic 326, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses ("ASC 326"). ASC 326 impacts the impairment model for certain financial assets measured at amortized cost by requiring a current expected credit loss ("CECL") methodology to estimate expected credit losses over the entire life of the financial asset, recorded at inception or purchase. Under the accounting update, the Company has the ability to determine there are no expected credit losses in certain circumstances.

The Company identified fees receivable carried at amortized cost as impacted by the new guidance. ASC 326 specifies that the Company adopt the new guidance prospectively by means of a cumulative-effect adjustment to the opening retained earnings as of the beginning of the first reporting period effective. The Company believes there is no impact to opening member's equity upon adoption of ASC 326.

The allowance for credit losses is based on the Company's expectation of the collectability of financial instruments carried at amortized cost, including fees receivable utilizing the CECL framework. The Company considers factors such as historical experience, credit quality, age of balances and current and future economic conditions that may affect the Company's expectation of the collectability in determining the allowance for credit losses. The Company's expectation is that the credit risk associated with fees receivables is not significant until they are 90 days past due on the contractual arrangement and expectation of collection in accordance with industry standards. Management does not believe that an allowance is required as of December 31, 2023.

Commission Income and Revenue Recognition

Commission income related to the service and maintenance of accounts held with mutual fund companies is recognized daily at the point in which they are earned based on a rate of the basis points of the amount of assets under management. These commissions are attributable to the Company's placement and sales activities.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Lease Accounting

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases ("ASU 2016-02"). This update requires all leases with a term greater than 12 months to be recognized on the balance sheet through a right of use asset and a lease liability and the disclosure of key information pertaining to leasing arrangements. This new guidance is effective for years beginning after December 15, 2018, with early adoption permitted, and is effective for the Company as of January 1, 2019. Management has determined that the Company had no lease obligations that would require financial statement recognition. This determination will always be subject to ongoing reevaluation as facts and circumstances may require.

Note 3- Net Capital and Minimum Capital Requirements

Pursuant to the net capital provisions of rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital, as defined under such provisions. At December 31, 2023, the Company had net capital $404,121 which exceeded the required minimum net capital of $5,000 by $399,121. The Company's net capital ratio (aggregate indebtedness to net capital) was 0.06 to 1. According to rule 15c3-1, the Company's net capital ratio shall not exceed 15 to 1.

Note 4- Liabilities Subordinated to Claims of General Creditors

There were no liabilities subordinated to claims of general creditors at December 31, 2023.

Note 5- Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company currently is not providing services to any mutual fund companies. The Company has some management and strategy changes that they believe will lead to new business revenue.

HGI (USA) INVESTMENTS LLC

Notes to the Statement of Financial Condition

December 31, 2023

Note 5- Concentration of Credit Risk (Continued)

The Company maintains cash balances at one financial institution that at times may exceed the amount covered by insurance provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. At December 31, 2023 the Company's balances exceeded the insured limit by $177,227.

Note 6 - Financial Instruments, Off-Balance Sheet Risks and Uncertainties

The Company's financial instruments, including cash, receivables, other assets and payables are carried at amounts that approximate fair value due to the short-term nature of those instruments.

The mutual fund pays the Company fee-based commission based on the net asset value of the underlying mutual fund. In the event the Company does not satisfy its terms, the agreement may result in termination.

There exists an investment risk that revenues may be significantly influenced by market conditions, such as volatility, resulting in investor-placed funds losing value. If the markets should move against positions held by the mutual fund, and if the mutual fund is not able to offset such losses, the mutual fund could lose all of its assets. The Company would, therefore, lose its sole source of income.

Note 7- Commitments and Contingencies

The Company may from time to time be involved in various legal actions arising in the normal course of business. In the opinion of management, the Company's liability, if any, in these pending actions would not have a material adverse effect on the financial positions of the Company. The Company's general and administrative expenses would include amounts incurred to resolve claims made against the Company. For the year ended and as of December 31, 2023, the Company is not involved in any legal actions, arbitration claims or guarantees that might result in a loss or future obligation

The Company leases its office space in New York City. The lease was automatically renewed in February 2023 for another 12 months.

Note 8 – Income taxes

The Company is a single member limited liability company and as such, is treated as a disregarded entity for tax purposes. The Company's parent entity submits a local tax return that includes the taxable results of the Company and other entities of the parent entity. The parent entity assumes the liability for the Company's local income tax. Payment of this tax is remitted directly by the parent entity.

Notes to the Statement of Financial Condition

December 31, 2023

Note 8 – Income taxes (Continued)

Tax years since 2019 remain open to examination by the major taxing jurisdictions to which the Company is subject.

Uncertain tax positions - The Company adopted the provisions of "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes" which prescribes recognition thresholds that must be met before a tax position is recognized in the financial statements and provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure, and transition. Under Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, an entity may only recognize or continue to recognize tax positions that meet a "more likely than not" threshold. The Company has evaluated its tax positions for the year ended December 31, 2023, and does not expect a material adjustment to be made. The Company is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits in progress.

Note 9 - Related Party Transactions

The Company has entered into an agreement with the Parent whereby certain expenses such as 100% of salaries and payroll related expenses are allocated from the Parent to the Company.

The Company receives a monthly fee-based commission, which is their portion of the management fee based on the net asset value of the underlying mutual fund. This fee is paid to the Company by the Parent. Commission receivable earned by the Company from the Parent of $0 remained as receivable at December 31, 2023.

Note 10 – Financial Condition

In the current period, the Company has continued to see significant operating losses. Liquidity needs of the Company have been met through capital contributions by its Parent Company. The Company's future liquidity and capital requirements will be influenced by numerous factors, including its ability to increase revenue and reduce expenses. The Company may need to continue raising additional capital and obtain financing to meet its needs. The Company has the ability to do so through future capital contributions from its Parent Company. The Company is continuing its efforts to increase revenue and reduce expenses.

Note 11 – Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events for potential recognition and/or disclosure through date of the audit report, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
