Strike called at Driefontein by AMCU, declared unprotected by Labour Court

Westonaria, 30 January 2014: Sibanye Gold (JSE: SGL & NYSE: SBGL) is pleased to advise stakeholders that the South African Labour Court has ruled that a strike called at its Driefontein Operation, by the Association of Mineworkers and Construction Union (AMCU) on Monday 20 January 2014, would be unprotected and instructed employees to continue to report for work. AMCU is required by the Court to show, by 14 March 2014, why a final, permanent order should not be granted.

Attendance has been normal at all of Sibanye Gold's operations.
