FIRST HILL SECURITIES, LLC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2023

A. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

First Hill Securities, LLC (the Company) is a Colorado limited liability company organized on January 11, 2013, to facilitate mergers and acquisitions, as well as debt, mezzanine debt, and preferred equity financings. The Company's business is national in scope.

The Company is registered as a broker-dealer in securities with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulation Authority ("FINRA"). The Company does not carry customer accounts or clear customer transactions, nor does it plan to hold any customers' securities or funds. The Firm is not claiming an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3. The Firm is filing the exemption report in reliance on footnote 74 of the 2013 SEC Release 34-70073.

The Company is wholly owned by First Hill Partners, LLC ("Partners"). Accordingly, this affiliation should be taken into consideration in reviewing the accompanying financial statements.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly-liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less on the purchase date to be cash equivalents.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentration of credit risk consist primarily of temporary cash investments. The Company restricts temporary cash investments to financial institutions with high credit standing. Such temporary cash investments are often in excess of the FDIC insurance limit.

Significant Judgments

Revenue from contracts with customer includes advisory fees from investment banking. The recognition and measurement of revenue is based on the assessment of individual contract terms. Significant judgment is required to determine whether performance obligations are satisfied at a point in time or over time; how to allocate transaction prices where multiple performance obligations are identified; when to recognize revenue based on the appropriate measure of the Company's progress under the contract; whether revenue should be presented gross or net of certain costs; and whether constraints on variable consideration should be applied due to uncertain future events.

Revenue Recognition

The Company receives advisory fee income for providing marketing advisory services. Revenue is recognized in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 606 as services are rendered and the contracts identified performance obligations have been satisfied. There were no unsatisfied performance obligations at December 31, 2023.

Income Taxes

The Company is not a taxpaying entity for federal or state income tax purposes. Accordingly, no income tax expense has been recorded in the financial statements. Income of the Company is taxed in the member's income tax return.

The Company records a liability for uncertain tax positions when it is more likely than not that a tax position would not be sustained if examined by the taxing authority. The Company continually evaluates expiring statutes of limitations, audits, proposed settlements, changes in tax law and new authoritative rulings. The Company's evaluation on December 31, 2023 revealed no uncertain tax positions that would have a material impact on the financial statements. The 2020 through 2022 tax years remain subject to examination by the IRS. The Company does not believe that any reasonably possibility changes will occur within the next twelve months that will have a material impact on the financial statements.

Interest and penalties associated with the Company's tax positions are reflected as other expense in the financial statements. There were no interest or penalties incurred during the year ended December 31, 2023.

A. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

B. Transactions with Related Entities

The Company has a cost-sharing agreement with a related entity. The Company pays $250 a month for personal property, utilities, and office space to the related party. The Company feels that this amount represents a reasonably approximate valuation of the personal property, utilities and office space provided. Overhead charges paid to this related entity were $3,000 for the year ended December 31, 2023. There is $250 due to this related entity at December 31, 2023.

C. Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events through the date of the auditors' report, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

D. Statutory Requirements

Pursuant to Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Company is required to maintain minimum net capital as defined under such rule. At December 31, 2021, the Company's net capital was $16,135 and the required net capital was $5,000.

The Firm is not claiming an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3. The Firm is filing the exemption report in reliance on footnote 74 of the 2013 SEC Release 34-70073. As a Non-Covered Firm that does not claim an exemption under paragraph (k) of Rule 15c3-3 (i.e., paragraph (k)(1), (k)(2)(i) or (k)(2)(ii)), during the reporting period the Firm affirms that it (1) does not directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers, other than money or other consideration received and promptly transmitted in compliance with paragraph (a) or (b)(2) of Exchange Act Rule 15c2-4 ("Rule 15c2-4"); (2) does not carry accounts of or for customers; and (3) does not carry PAB accounts (as defined in Rule 15c3-3). These conditions were met throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception.
