Please respond to this letter by amending your registration statement and providing the requested information. If you do not believe our comments apply to your facts and circumstances or do not believe an amendment is appropriate, please tell us why in your response.

After reviewing any amendment to your registration statement and the information you provide in response to these comments, we may have additional comments.

4. On page 54, you disclose that PennyMac Financial Services, Inc. will consolidate the financial results of Private National Mortgage Acceptance Company, LLC. Please provide us an accounting analysis that supports this assertion citing supporting accounting guidance.

7. Please ensure that your pro forma footnotes as disclosed here and beginning on page 60 show precisely how you arrived at each adjustment amount with a discussion of any significant assumptions and estimates used to arrive at the adjustment amounts. This should include the specific components that are included in the adjustments.

Risk Factors

8. Some of your Risk Factors state that you cannot assure a certain outcome when the real risk is not your inability to give assurance, but the underlying facts. Please revise to eliminate this and similar language.
9. We note that you have referenced your lack of “legacy portfolios” as an advantage. Please include a risk factor that addresses the lack of seasoned loans in your portfolios and the difficulty investors may have comparing your business to others that have weathered the economic difficulties in your industry over the last several years.
10. We note your disclosure regarding the advantages of your seasoned management team, including your CEO who was previously President, CFO, and COO of Countrywide Financial Corporation and several other former senior managers of Countrywide. Please tell us what consideration you have given to including a risk factor that addresses the failures of Countrywide while under the management of these individuals, including but not limited to recent and ongoing litigation.

Consolidated Financial Statements - Private National Mortgage Acceptance Company, LLC
Note 3 – Significant Accounting Policies

Mortgage Loans Held for Sale at Fair Value, page F-13

20. Please revise to disclose the reasons you have elected the fair value option for mortgage loans held for sale. Refer to ASC 825-10-50-28a.

Mortgage Servicing Rights (“MSRs”), page F-15

21. We note your disclosure that the Company recognizes MSRs initially at their estimated fair value, either as proceeds from sales of mortgage loans where the Company assumes the obligation to service the loan in the sale transaction, or from the purchase of MSRs. Please revise your disclosure describing your initial accounting treatment for these MSRs to discuss how you considered the nature of the assets being serviced (i.e., MSR-backed by distressed mortgage loans versus all other MSRs) as a factor in determining the fair value of the servicing asset. Refer to ASC 860-50-30-7.

22. We note your subsequent accounting for MSRs is based on two classes: MSRs backed by mortgage loans with initial interest rates of less than or equal to 4.5%, which are accounted for using the amortization method and MSRs backed by mortgage loans with initial interest rates of more than 4.5%, which are accounted for at fair value with changes in fair value reported in current period earnings. We further note your disclosure that you distinguish between these classes of MSRs due to their differing sensitivities to change in value as the result of the effect that changes in market interest rates have on mortgage prepayment speeds within the servicing portfolio. Please tell us in detail how you determined that identifying your classes of servicing assets in comparison to a fixed 4.5% interest rate was appropriate. Also, tell us if you believe your policy will be appropriate if interest rates increase in the future and how your policies may change. Additionally, tell us how you considered whether the interest rate on the loan was variable in determining your classes.

Note 8 – Fair Value

Fair Value Accounting Elections, page F-29

23. We note your disclosure that your classes of servicing assets require a different risk management approach. Please revise to discuss the instruments used to mitigate the income statement effect of changes in fair value of the servicing assets. Please refer to ASC 860-50-50-2b.

Mortgage Servicing Rights, page F-37

24. We note that your disclosure summarizing the key inputs used in the valuation of the Company's MSRs at year end and the effect on the estimated fair value from adverse changes in those assumptions are presented for two categories: purchased MSRs backed by distressed mortgage loans and all other MSRs. Please revise your table to include the UPB at period end for each of these categories.

Note 10 – Mortgage Servicing Rights, page F-41

25. Please consider the need to revise your MSR roll-forwards to disaggregate the line item "due to changes in valuation inputs or assumptions used in valuation model" to provide the information by each of the key assumptions from your sensitivity disclosures, particularly when the drivers may be offsetting in value.
26. Please revise to disclose the amount of contractually specified servicing fees, late fees, and ancillary fees earned for each period for which results of operations are presented, including a description of where each amount is reported in the statement of income or tell us where this information is disclosed. Refer to ASC 860-50-50-2c.

Interim Financial Statements

Note 7 – Fair Value Mortgage Servicing Rights, page F-81

27. Considering that MSR's accounted for at amortized costs appear to have less prepayment risk and lower costs due to lower delinquencies on the underlying loans relative to MSR's accounted for at fair value, please explain to us the underlying causes for the following:

- a. Why the weighted average pricing spread for MSR's accounted for at fair value is lower than the pricing spread for MSR's accounted for at amortized cost at September 30, 2012.
- b. Why the weighted average cost of servicing for MSR's accounted for at fair value is lower than the weighted average cost of servicing for MSR's accounted for at amortized cost at September 30, 2012.

Additionally, please explain to us the underlying causes for the following:

- c. Why the weighted average pricing spread for MSR's accounted for at fair value decreased from 11.9% at September 30, 2011 to 8.4% at September 30, 2012.
- d. Why the weighted average cost of servicing for MSR's accounted for at amortized cost increased from September 30, 2011 to September 30, 2012 while the same metric decreased for MSR's accounted for at fair value.

Note 25 – Subsequent Events, page F-102

28. Please revise to describe how changes to your contracts will impact future financial results and operating metrics.
