6. Please revise this section to minimize or eliminate duplicative disclosures. In this regard, we note that the disclosure in the “Business Strategies” and “Risk Factors” sections of your prospectus summary are substantially similar to disclosures made elsewhere in your prospectus. Your summary should provide a brief overview of the key aspects of the offering and should avoid disclosure repeated in different sections that does not enhance the quality of the information. Refer to Section II.A.3.c of Securities Act Release No. 33-6900, Item 503(a) of Regulation S-K and Note 4 to Rule 412(b) under the Securities Act.

8. We note your statement at the top of page 2 that you “believe that Tallgrass Development may offer [you] the opportunity to acquire substantially all of [Tallgrass Development’s] remaining assets . . . .” Please disclose the anticipated timeframe in which you expect Tallgrass Development to offer you the opportunity to acquire additional assets of Tallgrass Development, or state explicitly that you currently do not know when you will be provided with any such opportunity. Please make similar revisions throughout your prospectus, as applicable.

Please also remove the description of assets held by Tallgrass Development beginning on page 133.

20. Please revise your table to present a separate line for each item impacting the change in pro forma net tangible book value including the amount of the (decrease) increase in your pro forma net tangible book value per unit attributable to the cash payments made by purchasers of the units being offered. See Item 506 of Regulation S-K.
21. Reference is made to footnote (3). Please explain why the payment to Tallgrass Development as reimbursement for certain capital expenditures made in connection with the contributed assets is not reflected as an adjustment to the book value of net assets contributed or revise your disclosure accordingly.

Our Cash Distribution Policy and Restrictions on Distributions, page 66

Limitations on Cash Distributions and Our Ability to Change Our Cash Distribution Policy, page 66

22. Please disclose in this section, and quantify to the extent possible, the direct and indirect expenses to which your general partner will be entitled to reimbursement prior to determining the amount of cash you have available for distributions. Please also quantify this amount in the "Distributions and Payments to Our General Partner and Its Affiliates" section on page 162.

Unaudited Adjusted Pro Forma Cash Available for Distribution, page 71

23. We note your disclosure on page 69 that pro forma net income as reflected in your table on page 71 was adjusted for $2.5 million of estimated incremental general and administrative expenses expected to be incurred as a result of becoming a publicly traded partnership. Please revise your table to begin with pro forma net income as reflected in your unaudited pro forma financial statements on page F-6 as it relates to the year ended December 31, 2011. A separate line reflecting your adjustment to pro forma net income for the estimated general and administrative expenses should be reflected for both periods presented.
24. Please tell us what consideration you gave to including a presentation at the end of your table of the percentage of the minimum quarterly distributions payable to common and subordinated unit holders.

Estimated Cash Available for Distribution for the Twelve-Month Period Ending June 30, 2014, page 72

25. We note the most recent period of historical financial statements you have included in this filing is for the nine months ended September 30, 2012. Please explain why you believe it is meaningful for your forward looking calculation of Estimated Cash Available for Distribution to encompass the twelve-month period ending June 30, 2014. The period of forecast should encompass the closest immediately proceeding 4 quarters in which distributions are expected to be made. If you anticipate that the first four quarterly distributions investors will be entitled to receive following the closing of your offering coincides with the twelve-months ending June 30, 2014, please advise. Please also advise whether you believe there is any seasonality associated with cash inflows over a 12 month period such that some quarterly distributions are more likely to be made or missed than others. If our understanding on this last point is incorrect, please clarify.

Assumptions and Considerations, page 75

Pony Express Abandonment Adjustments, page 76

26. We note your disclosure that, as a part of the Pony Express PSA, Tallgrass Development will reimburse you for, among other things, annual payments for costs you incur in obtaining gas pipeline transportation services for existing customers from other interstate pipelines for a minimum period of five years, and up to 10 years. Please describe this reimbursement in more detail, including when Tallgrass Development will be obligated to reimburse you beyond the minimum five-year period, whether this reimbursement applies to contracts you execute after the contribution date and before the Pony Express Abandonment, and whether you will be entitled to this reimbursement if existing customers renew.

Commodity Price Assumptions and Sensitivity Analysis, page 78

27. Please revise the second sentence to reflect the time period for which two-thirds of your processing revenues are exposed to direct commodity price risk.

Gas Transportation and Storage Segment Revenues, page 79

28. We note your disclosure that a substantial majority of the revenues generated relate to existing firm contracted capacity with existing customers or renewals of that capacity in the forecast period with an immaterial amount attributable to new contracts. Please revise to provide investors with more insight into your contract profile and forecasted revenues by segregating within the amount of firm transportation and storage capacity/volumes, for example in your table on page 77, amounts included that are under contract through June 30, 2014, the amounts included based on assumed renewals or roll-overs, and amounts included based on new contracts.

29. To increase comparability between periods, please revise the graphic at the bottom of page 80 to also include a pie chart for the twelve-months ended December 31, 2011. Please make a similar revision on the top of page 82.

Processing Segment Revenues, page 81

32. We note you define Adjusted EBITDA as net income before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization, non-cash income or loss related to derivative instruments and non-cash long-term compensation expense. Please explain how your reconciliation of Adjusted EBITDA considers non-cash income or loss related to derivative instruments and non-cash long-term compensation expense.

U.S. Natural Gas Supply and Demand Dynamics, page 108

33. We note references in this section and throughout your prospectus to third-party sources, including to the U.S. Energy Information Administration and to Baker Hughes, for statistical, qualitative and comparative statements contained in your prospectus. Please provide copies of these source materials to us, appropriately marked to highlight the sections relied upon. Please also disclose whether you commissioned any of the materials to which you refer and file the consent of any party who conducted any of the studies to which you refer, or confirm that these studies are widely available to the public. Growth in Production from Niobara Shale Play, page 109

34. Please disclose whether the following statements are based upon management's belief, industry data, reports or articles, or any other source. If the statement is based upon management's belief, please indicate that this is the case and include an explanation of the basis of such belief. Please revise any similar statements in the Industry Overview and Business sections of your prospectus.

- “For example, in recent years, well-capitalized producers have leased large acreage positions in the Niobara Shale. To help fund their drilling program in this area a number of producers have also entered into joint venture arrangements with large international operators and private equity sponsors.” (page 109)
- “Due to this recent activity in the liquids-rich Niobara shale play, the production in the play is expected to grow substantially . . . .” (page 109)
- “Another important contributor to energy consumption is the industrial sector, with total consumption in this sector expected to grow to 28.7 quadrillion Btu in 2040.” (page 126).

Growth Associated with Acquisitions and Expansion Projects, page 109

35. We note your potential growth through acquisitions from Tallgrass Development and from third parties. Please discuss in this section any of your current plans in this regard, with a view to providing investors with a description of your planned operations.

36. We note you have included the line item Adjusted EBITDA in your table under Statements of Income Data. Please revise to include the non-GAAP measure under a separate heading such as “Other Financial Data.” In addition, please revise to provide the disclosures required by Item 10(e) of Regulation S-K or provide a footnote with a cross reference to your definition and reconciliation of Adjusted EBITDA for each period presented to its most directly comparable financial measures calculated and presented in accordance with GAAP.

Nine-Month Period Ended September 30, 2012 Compared to Nine-Month Period Ended September 30, 2011, page 114

37. We note your statement that you believe that your transportation revenues have largely stabilized. Please state, if true, that you do not expect any further decline in the number of your Transportation and Storage Customers to materially impact revenues in your Gas Transportation and Storage segment. We may have further comment after reviewing your response.

Liquidity and Capital Resources, page 117

New Credit Facility, page 117

38. If you will have information on the terms of your new credit facility prior to the closing of this offering, please update this section to include the material terms of the agreement, including the financial covenants you must satisfy prior to making cash distributions.

Historical Cash Flow, page 118

39. We note your discussion of operating activities focuses on changes in the non-GAAP measure adjusted EBITDA. The discussion here should be driven by a discussion of your GAAP historical financial statements as required by Item 303(a) of Regulation S-K. Please revise your disclosure to include a discussion on a GAAP basis as required with any discussion referencing non-GAAP measures included as a supplement.
40. Please expand your discussion of operating activities to provide a more informative analysis of changes in cash flows. For instance we note operating activities for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2012 were impacted by a reduction in gas imbalances and routine changes in working capital items, in addition to other factors. Where you identify more than once cause of change please quantify the effect and fully identify the reasons underlying the change to your cash flows.
41. We note your disclosure that for the year ended December 31, 2011, cash flows provided by operating activities decreased primarily due to a $14.4 million decrease in adjusted EBITDA. Please disclose the reasons underlying the decrease in adjusted EBITDA.

42. We note your disclosure that the purchase accounting adjustments related to the Tallgrass Development acquisition will impact the assets acquired and liabilities assumed applicable to the contributed businesses however you have not reflected those adjustments, other than the assumption of the portion of debt and related debt costs, applicable to such assets. While such adjustments will be included in the historical financial statements upon consummation of the acquisition, they should be included in the pro forma financial statements as an adjustment to the assets and liabilities affected. Please revise or advise.

Alternatively, please explain how adjustment (f) giving effect to borrowings under the anticipated revolving credit facility is factually supportable given the new credit facility has not been executed.
45. With regards to footnote (h), please disclose the nature of the remaining accrued taxes in light of the fact the partnership will not be subject to this tax. For our understanding, please advise whether the state in which the entity is organized has any impact on the applicability of the Texas Margin Tax as the location of the operations has remained the same.
