ARTICLE I OFFICES

Section 1.01 Location of Offices. The corporation may maintain such offices within or without the State of Nevada as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate or require.

Section 1.02 Principal Office. The address of the principal office of the corporation will be at the address of the registered office of the corporation as so designated in the office of the Secretary of State of the state of incorporation, or at such other address as the Board of Directors will from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.01 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of the shareholders for the purpose of electing directors and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting will be held at a time designated by the Board of Directors and provided for in the notice of the meeting, but under no circumstance will this date occur later than the last day of December. If the election of directors will not be held on the day designated for the annual meeting of the shareholders, or at any adjournment thereof, the Board of Directors will cause the election to be held at a special meeting of the shareholders as soon thereafter as may be convenient.

Section 2.02 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called at any time by the Chairman of the Board, the President, or by the Board of Directors, or in their absence or disability, by any Vice President; and will be called by the President or, in his or her absence or disability, by a Vice President or by the Secretary upon the written request of the holders of not less than 15% of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting, such written request to state the purpose or purposes of the meeting and to be delivered to the President, each Vice President, or Secretary. In case of failure to call such meeting within 60 days after such request, such shareholder or shareholders may call the same.

Section 2.03 Place of Meetings. The Board of Directors may designate any place, either within or without the state of incorporation, as the place of meeting for any annual meeting or for any special meeting called by the Board of Directors. A waiver of notice signed by all shareholders entitled to vote at a meeting may designate any place, either within or without the state of incorporation, as the place for the holding of such meeting. If no designation is made, or if the special meeting be otherwise called, the place of meeting will be at the principal office of the corporation.

Section 2.04 Notice of Meetings. The Secretary or Assistant Secretary, if any, will cause notice of the time, place, and purpose or purposes of all meetings of the shareholders (whether annual or special), to be mailed at least 10 days, but not more than 60 days, prior to the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote.

Section 2.05 Waiver of Notice. Any shareholder may waive notice of any meeting of shareholders (however called or noticed, whether or not called or noticed and whether before, during, or after the meeting), by signing a written waiver of notice or a consent to the holding of such meeting, or an approval of the minutes thereof. Attendance at a meeting, in person or by proxy, will constitute waiver of all defects of call or notice regardless of whether waiver, consent, or approval is signed or any objections are made. All such waivers, consents, or approvals will be made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

Section 2.06 Fixing Record Date. For the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any annual meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or shareholders entitled to receive payment of any dividend or in order to make a determination of shareholders for any other proper purpose, the Board of Directors of the corporation may provide that the share transfer books will be closed, for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at such meeting, but not for a period exceeding 60 days. If the share transfer books are closed for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at such meeting, such books will be closed for at least 10 days immediately preceding such meeting.

In lieu of closing the share transfer books, the Board of Directors may fix in advance a date as the record date for any such determination of shareholders, such date in any case to be not more than 60 days and, in case of a meeting of shareholders, not less than 10 days prior to the date on which the particular action requiring such determination of shareholders is to be taken. If the share transfer books are not closed and no record date is fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting or to receive payment of a dividend, the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed or the date on which the resolution of the Board of Directors declaring such dividend is adopted, as the case may be, will be the record date for such determination of shareholders. When a determination of shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting of shareholders has been made as provided in this Section, such determination will apply to any adjournment thereof. Failure to comply with this Section will not affect the validity of any action taken at a meeting of shareholders.

Section 2.07 Voting Lists. The officer or agent of the corporation having charge of the share transfer books for shares of the corporation will make, at least 10 days before each meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof, arranged in alphabetical order, with the address of, and the number of shares held by each, which list, for a period of 10 days prior to such meeting, will be kept on file at the registered office of the corporation and will be subject to inspection by any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting. The original share transfer book will be prima facie evidence as to the shareholders who are entitled to examine such list or transfer books, or to vote at any meeting of shareholders.

Section 2.08 Quorum. A majority of the total voting power of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the voting power represented by shares at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject will constitute action by the shareholders, unless the vote of a greater number or voting by classes is required by the laws of the state of incorporation of the corporation or the Articles of Incorporation. If less than a majority of the outstanding voting power is represented at a meeting, a majority of the voting power represented by shares so present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum will be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. Notwithstanding Section 78.330(1) of the Nevada Revised Statutes, the directors of the corporation will be elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders by a majority of the votes cast at the election.

Section 2.09 Voting of Shares. Each outstanding share of the corporation entitled to vote will be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to vote at a meeting of shareholders, except to the extent that the voting rights of the shares of any class or series of stock are determined and specified as greater or lesser than one vote per share in the manner provided by the Articles of Incorporation.

Section 2.10 Proxies. At each meeting of the shareholders, each shareholder entitled to vote will be entitled to vote in person or by proxy; provided, however, that the right to vote by proxy will exist only in case the instrument authorizing such proxy to act will have been executed in writing by the registered holder or holders of such shares, as the case may be, as shown on the share transfer of the corporation or by his or her or her attorney thereunto duly authorized in writing. Such instrument authorizing a proxy to act will be delivered at the beginning of such meeting to the Secretary of the corporation or to such other officer or person who may, in the absence of the Secretary, be acting as Secretary of the meeting. In the event that any such instrument will designate two or more persons to act as proxies, a majority of such persons present at the meeting, or if only one be present, that one will (unless the instrument will otherwise provide) have all of the powers conferred by the instrument on all persons so designated. Persons holding stock in a fiduciary capacity will be entitled to vote the shares so held and the persons whose shares are pledged will be entitled to vote, unless in the transfer by the pledge or on the books of the corporation he or she will have expressly empowered the pledgee to vote thereon, in which case the pledgee, or his or her or her proxy, may represent such shares and vote thereon.

Section 2.11 Written Consent to Action by Shareholders. Any action required to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, or any other action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, will be signed by shareholders holding at least a majority of the shares entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof, except that if a different proportion of voting power is required for such an action at a meeting, then that proportion of written consents is required..

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 3.01 General Powers. The property, affairs, and business of the corporation will be managed by its Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may exercise all the powers of the corporation whether derived from law or the Articles of Incorporation, except such powers as are by statute, by the Articles of Incorporation or by these By-Laws, vested solely in the shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.02 Number, Term, and Qualifications. The Board of Directors will consist of one to seven persons. Increases or decreases to said number may be made, within the numbers authorized by the Articles of Incorporation, as the Board of Directors will from time to time determine by amendment to these By-Laws. An increase or a decrease in the number of the members of the Board of Directors may also be had upon amendment to these By-Laws by a majority vote of all of the shareholders, and the number of directors to be so increased or decreased will be fixed upon a majority vote of all of the shareholders of the corporation. Each director will hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation and until his or her successor will have been elected and will have qualified. Directors need not be residents of the state of incorporation or shareholders of the corporation.

Section 3.03 Classification of Directors. In lieu of electing the entire number of directors annually, the Board of Directors may provide that the directors be divided into either two or three classes, each class to be as nearly equal in number as possible, the term of office of the directors of the first class to expire at the first annual meeting of shareholders after their election, that of the second class to expire at the second annual meeting after their election, and that of the third class, if any, to expire at the third annual meeting after their election. At each annual meeting after such classification, the number of directors equal to the number of the class whose term expires at the time of such meeting will be elected to hold office until the second succeeding annual meeting, if there be two classes, or until the third succeeding annual meeting, if there be three classes.

Section 3.04 Regular Meetings. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors will be held without other notice than this By-Law immediately following, and at the same place as, the annual meeting of shareholders. The Board of Directors may provide by resolution the time and place, either within or without the state of incorporation, for the holding of additional regular meetings without other notice than such resolution.

Section 3.05 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the President, Vice President, or any two directors. The person or persons authorized to call special meetings of the Board of Directors may fix any place, either within or without the state of incorporation, as the place for holding any special meeting of the Board of Directors called by them.

Section 3.06 Meetings by Telephone Conference Call. Members of the Board of Directors may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee of the Board of Directors by means of conference telephone or similar communication equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section will constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 3.07 Notice. Notice of any special meeting will be given at least two (2) days prior thereto by written notice delivered personally or sent by U.S. mail to each director at his or her regular business address or residence, or sent by telegram or electronic mail. A mailed notice will be deemed to be delivered when received by the addressee. If notice be given by telegram or electronic mail, such notice will be deemed to be delivered when the telegram is delivered to the telegraph company or when the electronic mailed is properly transmitted. Any director may waive notice of any meeting. Attendance of a director at a meeting will constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting solely for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 3.08 Quorum. A majority of the number of directors will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors, but if less than a majority is present at a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

Section 3.09 Manner of Acting. The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present will be the act of the Board of Directors, and the individual directors will have no power as such.

Section 3.10 Vacancies and Newly Created Directorship. If any vacancies will occur in the Board of Directors by reason of death, resignation or otherwise, or if the number of directors will be increased, the directors then in office will continue to act and such vacancies or newly created directorships will be filled by a vote of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum, in any way approved by the meeting. Any directorship to be filled by reason of removal of one or more directors by the shareholders may be filled by election by the shareholders at the meeting at which the director or directors are removed.

Section 3.11 Compensation. By resolution of the Board of Directors, the directors may be paid their expenses, if any of attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors, and may be paid a fixed sum for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors or a stated salary as director. No such payment will preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 3.12 Presumption of Assent. A director of the corporation who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken will be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his or her or her dissent will be entered in the minutes of the meeting, unless he or she will file his or her or her written dissent to such action with the person acting as the Secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof, or will forward such dissent by registered or certified mail to the Secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent will not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

Section 3.13 Resignations. A director may resign at any time by delivering a written resignation to either the President, a Vice President, the Secretary, or Assistant Secretary, if any. The resignation will become effective on its acceptance by the Board of Directors; provided, that if the Board has not acted thereon within 10 days from the date presented, the resignation will be deemed accepted.

Section 3.14 Written Consent to Action by Directors. Any action required to be taken at a meeting of the directors of the corporation or any other action which may be taken at a meeting of the directors or of a committee, may be taken without a meeting, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, will be signed by all of the directors, or all of the members of the committee, as the case may be. Such consent will have the same legal effect as a unanimous vote of all the directors or members of the committee.

Section 3.15 Removal. At a meeting of shareholders expressly called for that purpose, one or more directors may be removed by a vote of stockholders representing not less than two-thirds of the voting power of outstanding stock of the corporation entitled to vote at an election of directors.

No certificate for shares will be valid until countersigned by a transfer agent, if at the date appearing thereon the corporation had a transfer agent for such shares, and until registered by a registrar, if at such date the corporation had a registrar for such shares.

Section 6.06 Closing of Transfer Books and Fixing of Record Date.

(a) The Board of Directors will have power to close the share books of the corporation for a period of not to exceed 10 days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders, or the date for payment of any dividend, or the date the allotment of rights, or capital shares will go into effect, or a date in connection with obtaining the consent of shareholders for any purpose.

(b) In lieu of closing the share transfer books as aforesaid, the Board of Directors may fix in advance a date, not exceeding 60 days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders, or the date for the payment of any dividend, or the date for the allotment of rights, or the date when any change or conversion or exchange of capital shares will go into effect, or a date in connection with obtaining any such consent, as a record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to a notice of, and to vote at, any such meeting and any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any such dividend, or to any such allotment of rights, or to exercise the rights in respect of any such change, conversion or exchange of capital stock, or to give such consent.

(c) If the share transfer books will be closed or a record date set for the purpose of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, such books will be closed for, or such record date will be, at least 10 days immediately preceding such meeting.

Section 6.07 Lost or Destroyed Certificates. The corporation may issue a new certificate for shares of the corporation of any certificate theretofore issued by it, alleged to have been lost or destroyed, and the Board of Directors may, in its discretion, require the owner of the lost or destroyed certificate or his or her legal representatives, to give the corporation a bond in such form and amount as the Board of Directors may direct, and with such surety or sureties as may be satisfactory to the board, to indemnify the corporation and its transfer agents and registrars, if any, against any claims that may be made against it or any such transfer agent or registrar on account of the issuance of such new certificate. A new certificate may be issued without requiring any bond when, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, it is proper to do so.

Section 6.08 No Limitation on Voting Rights; Limitation on Dissenter's Rights. To the extent permissible under the applicable law of any jurisdiction to which the corporation may become subject by reason of the conduct of business, the ownership of assets, the residence of shareholders, the location of offices or facilities, or any other item, the corporation elects not to be governed by the provisions of any statute that (i) limits, restricts, modifies, suspends, terminates, or otherwise affects the rights of any shareholder to cast one vote for each share of common stock registered in the name of such shareholder on the books of the corporation, without regard to whether such shares were acquired directly from the corporation or from any other person and without regard to whether such shareholder has the power to exercise or direct the exercise of voting power over any specific fraction of the shares of common stock of the corporation issued and outstanding or (ii) grants to any shareholder the right to have his or her stock redeemed or purchased by the corporation or any other shareholder on the acquisition by any person or group of persons of shares of the corporation. In particular, to the extent permitted under the laws of the state of incorporation, the corporation elects not to be governed by any such provision, including the provisions of the Nevada Control Share Acquisitions Act, Sections 78.378 to 78.3793, inclusive, of the Nevada Revised Statutes, or any statute of similar effect.

ARTICLE VII EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND OTHER COMMITTEES

Section 7.01 How Constituted. The Board of Directors may designate and executive committee and such other committees as the Board of Directors may deem appropriate, each of which committees will consist of two or more directors. Members of the executive committee and of any such other committees will be designated annually at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors; provided, however, that at any time the Board of Directors may abolish or reconstitute the executive committee or any other committee. Each member of the executive committee and of any other committee will hold office until his or her resignation or removal in the manner provided in these By-Laws.

Section 7.02 Powers. During the intervals between meetings of the Board of Directors, the executive committee will have and may exercise all powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation, except for such powers as by law may not be delegated by the Board of Directors to an executive committee.

Section 7.03 Proceedings. The executive committee, and such other committees as may be designated hereunder by the Board of Directors, may fix its own presiding and recording officer or officers, and may meet at such place or places, at such time or times and on such notice (or without notice) as it will determine from time to time. It will keep a record of its proceedings and will report such proceedings to the Board of Directors at the meeting of the Board of Directors next following.

Section 7.04 Quorum and Manner of Acting. At all meetings of the executive committee, and of such other committees as may be determined hereunder by the Board of Directors, the presence of members constituting a majority of the total authorized membership of the committee will be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the members present at any meeting at which a quorum is present will be the act of such committee. The members of the executive committee, and of such other committees as may be designated hereunder by the Board of Directors, will act only as a committee and the individual members thereof will have no powers as such.

Section 7.05 Resignations. Any member of the executive committee, and of such other committees as may be designated hereunder by the Board of Directors, may resign at any time by delivering a written resignation to either the President, the Secretary, or Assistant Secretary, or to the presiding officer of the committee of which he or she is a member, if any will have been appointed and will be in office. Unless otherwise specified herein, such resignation will take effect on delivery.

Section 7.06 Removal. The Board of Directors may at any time remove any member of the executive committee or of any other committee designated by it hereunder either for or without cause.

Section 7.07 Vacancies. If any vacancies will occur in the executive committee or of any other committee designated by the Board of Directors hereunder, by reason of disqualification, death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, the remaining members will, until the filling of such vacancy, constitute the then total authorized membership of the committee and, provided that two or more members are remaining, continue to act. Such vacancy may be filled at any meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 7.08 Compensation. The Board of Directors may allow a fixed sum and expenses of attendance to any member of the executive committee, or of any other committee designated by it hereunder, who is not an active salaried employee of the corporation for attendance at each meeting of said committee.

ARTICLE VIII
INDEMNIFICATION, INSURANCE, AND
OFFICER AND DIRECTOR CONTRACTS

Section 8.01 Indemnification: Third Party Actions. The corporation will have the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with any such action, suit or proceeding, if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, will not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he or she had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 8.02 Indemnification: Corporate Actions. The corporation will have the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit, if be or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification will be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such a person will have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought will determine on application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

Section 8.03 Determination. To the extent that a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation has been successful on the merits or other-wise in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in Sections 8.01 and 8.02 hereof, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he or she will be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection therewith. Any other indemnification under Sections 8.01 and 8.02 hereof, will be made by the corporation upon a determination that indemnification of the officer, director, employee, or assent is proper in the circumstances because be or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Sections 8.01 and 8.02 hereof. Such determination will be made either (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit, or proceeding; or (ii) by independent legal counsel on a written opinion; or (iii) by the shareholders by a majority vote of a quorum at any meeting duly called for such purpose.

Section 8.04 General Indemnification. The indemnification provided by this Section will not be deemed exclusive of any other indemnification granted under any provision of any statute, in the corporation's Articles of Incorporation, these By-Laws, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in his or her official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and will continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, or agent, and will inure to the benefit of the heirs and legal representatives of such a person.

Section 8.05 Advances. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding as contemplated in this Section may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit, or proceeding upon a majority vote of a quorum of the Board of Directors and upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officers, employee, or agent to repay such amount or amounts unless if it is ultimately determined that he or she is to agent to indemnified by the corporation as authorized by this Section.

Section 8.06 Scope of Indemnification. The indemnification authorized by this Section will apply to all present and future directors, officers, employees, and agents of the corporation and will continue as to such persons who ceases to be directors, officers, employees, or agents of the corporation, and will inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of all such persons and will be in addition to all other indemnification permitted by law.

Section 8.07 Insurance. The corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in any such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against any such liability and under the laws of the state of incorporation, as the same may hereafter be amended or modified.

ARTICLE IX FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the corporation will be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE X DIVIDENDS

The Board of Directors may from time to time declare, and the corporation may pay, dividends on its outstanding shares in the manner and on the terms and conditions provided by the Articles of Incorporation and these By-Laws.

ARTICLE XI AMENDMENTS

These By-Laws may be altered or repealed at any regular meeting of the stockholders or of the Board of Directors, or at any special meeting of the stockholders or Board of Directors if notice of such alteration or repeal be contained in the notice of such special meeting. These By-Laws will be subject to amendment, alteration, or repeal and new By-Laws may be made, except that:

(a) No By-Laws adopted or amended by the shareholders will be altered or repealed by the Board of Directors.

(b) No By-Laws will be adopted by the Board of Directors which will require more than a majority of the voting shares for a quorum at a meeting of shareholders, or more than a majority of the votes cast to constitute action, by the shareholders, except where higher percentages are required by law; provided, however, that (i) if any By-Law regulating an impending election of directors is adopted, amended or repealed by the Board of Directors, there will be set forth in the notice of the next meeting of shareholders for the election of directors, the By-Laws so adopted, amended or repealed, together with a concise statement of the changes made; and (ii) no amendment, alteration or repeal of this Article XI will be made except by the shareholders.
