REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Member of Campfire Capital

Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Campfire Capital as of December 31, 2018, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the “financial statement”). In our opinion, the statement of financial condition presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Campfire Capital as of December 31, 2018 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of Campfire Capital’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on Campfire Capital’s financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to Campfire Capital in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Note 1

Description of the Company

SWCD LLC dba Campfire Capital (the “Company”) formed on June 19, 2008, is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company engages in the private placement of securities, mergers & acquisitions advisory services, corporate finance & development services, and investment banking advisory services. The Company received its FINRA approval for membership on April 29, 2014. The Company is exempt from rule 15c3-3 of the SEC under paragraph (k)(2)(i) of that rule.

Note 2

Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Cash and Cash Equivalents:

The Company considers all money market accounts, time deposits and certificate of deposits purchased with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents. At December 31, 2018, there were no cash equivalents.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost and depreciated using straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets.

Revenue Recognition

Effective January 1, 2018, the Company adopted ASC Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (“ASC Topic 606”). The new revenue recognition guidance requires that an entity recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The guidance requires an entity to follow a five-step model to (a) identify the contract(s) with a customer, (b) identify the performance obligations in the contract, (c) determine the transaction price, (d) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and (e) recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation. In determining the transaction price, an entity may include variable consideration only to the extent that it is probable that a significant reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognized would not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is resolved.

Revenue from contracts with customers includes fees from investment banking and financial advisory services. The recognition and measurement of revenue is based on the assessment of individual contract terms. Significant judgement is required to determine whether performance obligations are satisfied at a point in time or over time; how to allocate transaction prices where multiple performance obligations are identified; when to recognize revenue based on the appropriate measure of the Company’s progress under the contract; and whether constraints on variable consideration should be applied due to uncertain future events.

Revenue from investment banking success fees are generally recognized at the point in time that performance under the arrangement is completed (the closing date of the transaction). Revenue from financial advisory retainer fees are generally recognized over time in which the performance obligations are simultaneously provided by the Company and consumed by the customer.

Revenue from financial advisory valuation fees are generally recognized at the point in time that performance under the arrangement is completed. Retainers and other fees received from customers prior to recognizing revenue are reflected as contract liabilities. At December 31, 2018, contract liabilities were $0. Disaggregation can be found on statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2018.

Accounts Receivable

An allowance for doubtful accounts is maintained based on management's assessment of the collectability of accounts receivable. The Company includes accounts receivable balances that are determined to be uncollectible, along with a general reserve, in the overall allowances for doubtful accounts. After all attempts to collect a receivable have failed, the receivable is written off against the allowance. Based on the information available, the Company believes no allowance for doubtful accounts is necessary as of December 31, 2018.

Income Taxes

The sole member of the Company has elected to have the Company taxed as a single member LLC. Accordingly, the Company is not subject to federal or state income taxes. All taxable income or loss and tax credits are reflected on the income tax returns of the member. Tax periods from December 31, 2015 are subject to audit.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with United States of America generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reported period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Note 3

Related Party Transactions

The Company utilizes office space owned by the sole member. No rent was charged to the Company during the 12 months ended December 31, 2018.
