TRUTORO (VERITAS INDEPENDENT PARTNERS, LLC)

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2023

NOTE 1- ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization and Business

Trutoro (Veritas Independent Partners, LLC) (the “Company”) is an Arkansas limited liability company formed on September 9, 2013. The Company is affiliated with Cardinal Investment Group (“Cardinal”), a registered branch office of the Company and Tartan Properties through common ownership. The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and licensed by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (FINRA). The Company operates as a securities broker-dealer for mutual funds, variable annuities, and investment advisory services.

15c3-3 Exemption

The Company carries no customer funds or securities and therefore is exempt from the reserve and possession or control requirements under Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(i) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Company identified the provisions of Footnote 74 under which the Company is not required to claim an exemption from 17 C.F.R. 240.15c3-3.

Revenue Recognition

The Company’s main source of revenue is mutual funds, variable annuities, and investment advisory services, which are accounted for as contracts with customers. Under the guidance for contracts with customers, the Company is required to (a) identify the contract(s) with a customer, (b) identify the performance obligations in the contract, (c) determine the transaction price, (d) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and (e) recognize revenue when (or as) the Company satisfies its performance obligation.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers investments with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Income Taxes

The Company is not a taxable entity and thus the financial statements do not include a provision for income taxes. The Company’s members are taxed on their respective share of the Company’s earnings.

The Company is required to determine whether a tax position is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, including resolution of any tax related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. The Company files an income tax return in the U.S. federal jurisdiction, and may file income tax returns in various U.S. states. The Company is not subject to income tax return examinations by major taxing authorities for years before 2020. The tax benefit recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that has a greater than fifty percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. De-recognition of a tax benefit previously recognized results in the Company recording a tax liability that reduces net assets. However, the Company’s conclusions regarding this policy may be subject to review and adjustment at a later date based on factors including, but not limited to, on-going analyses of and changes to tax laws, regulations and interpretations thereof. The Company recognizes interest accrued related to unrecognized tax benefits and penalties related unrecognized tax benefits in income taxes payable, if assessed. No interest expense or penalties have been recognized as of and for the year ended December 31, 2023.

- (2) Company stated that it is filing the Exemption Report relying on Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5 because the company limits its business activities exclusively to Mutual fund retailer (application way), Broker selling variable life insurance or annuities, Investment advisory services and Municipal securities retailer- 529 plans only and the Company 1) did not directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers 2) did not carry accounts of, or for, customers; and 3) did not carry PAB accounts (as defined in Rule 15c3-3) throughout the most recent fiscal year ended December 31, 2023, without exception.
