Dear Mr. Connolly:

We have limited our review of your filing to your contacts with countries that have been identified as state sponsors of terrorism, and we have the following comment. Please respond to the comment within ten business days by providing the requested information or advise us as soon as possible when you will respond. If you do not believe our comment applies to your facts and circumstances, please tell us why in your response.

We may be unable to ensure compliance with international trade restrictions and economic sanctions laws..., page 30

1. You disclose that you do not conduct business in countries including Syria and North Korea, but state that there can be no assurance that you have been at all times in the past, or will be at all times in the future, in full compliance with sanctions regarding those countries. We note that the Foreign Economic Boycotts section of the Business Conduct and Ethics Policy on your website states that employees involved in transactions with Syria and other identified countries must be on alert for requests regarding the Israeli boycott. Also, Section 7.21 of the February 11, 2015 Amendment Agreement filed as Exhibit 2.3 to your Form 8-K of the same date states that, following the closing of the acquisition of Arysta LifeScience Ltd., the provision requiring termination of business and operations in countries including Syria and Sudan will not be applicable to business carried out pursuant to certain exemptions, exceptions, licenses or authorizations.

North Korea, Sudan and Syria are designated by the State Department as state sponsors of terrorism, and are subject to U.S. economic sanctions and/or export controls. Please describe to us the nature and extent of any past, current or anticipated contacts with North Korea, Sudan and/or Syria, including contacts with their governments, whether through subsidiaries, affiliates, distributors or other direct or indirect arrangements.

We remind you that the company and its management are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of their disclosures, notwithstanding any review, comments, action or absence of action by the staff.

You may contact Jennifer Hardy, Special Counsel, at (202) 551-3767 or me at (202) 551-3470 if you have any questions about the comments or our review.

Sincerely,

/s/ Cecilia Blye
