Preferred Capital Securities, LLC

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition
December 31, 2016

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business

Preferred Capital Securities, LLC (the Company), a wholly owned subsidiary of Nell Partners, Inc. (the Parent), is a Georgia limited liability company that was formed on September 17, 2013, with minimal operations until February 2, 2015 (date approved for membership by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA)). The Company is a broker-dealer registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member firm of FINRA. The Company's primary operating focuses are to identify capital sources, conduct due diligence, underwrite and manage the selling of security offerings, and address regulatory and compliance matters. The Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities.

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements are presented on the accrual basis of accounting and are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) as promulgated by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC).

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reported period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company holds substantially all of its cash at one bank. Cash in the bank account is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). The Company maintains cash and cash equivalents in accounts with financial institutions that from time to time exceed the FDIC insured limit. At December 31, 2016, the Company's uninsured cash balances totaled $1,761,434. The Company places its cash and cash equivalents with high-credit-quality institutions and minimizes its credit risk with formal credit policies and monitoring procedures.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Furniture, Fixtures and Equipment, Net

Furniture, fixtures and equipment, net is stated at cost. Depreciation for financial reporting purposes is based on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets (see Note 2).

Prepaid Expenses and Other Assets

Prepaid expenses and other assets primarily consist of prepaid insurance, prepaid FINRA licensing fees and prepaid broker-dealer sponsorships.

Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company, and as such, is not subject to income taxes. Rather, all items of taxable income, deductions and tax credits are passed through and are reported by the Parent on its respective tax return. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements.

U.S. GAAP requires management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Company and recognize a tax liability if the Company has taken an uncertain tax position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by relevant taxing authorities. The Company has analyzed its tax positions taken and has concluded that as of December 31, 2016 there are no uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken. The Company has recognized no interest or penalties related to uncertain tax positions. The Company and its Parent are subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

The Company is exempt from SEC Rule 15c3-3 under provisions (k)(2)(i).

NOTE 4 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Expense Sharing Agreement

The Company has an expense sharing agreement with an affiliate of the Parent which is updated annually. Under the agreement, the Company reimburses the affiliate for office rent, utilities, office equipment, phone costs and other miscellaneous reimbursable expenses. The Company also reimburses the affiliate for accounting, legal and human resource services.

As of December 31, 2016, shared expenses of $51,980 are payable and included in due to related party in the Statement of Financial Condition.

NOTE 5 - CONCENTRATIONS

For the year ended December 31, 2016, all of the Company's distribution fee revenues were earned under a wholesaler agreement with a dealer manager in which the Company marketed and assisted with the offering and sale of securities of an affiliate of the Parent. In December 2016, the Company entered into an agreement with the affiliate of the Parent to act as the exclusive dealer manager for certain securities offering. The sale of such securities commenced in February 2017.

NOTE 6 – COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

In the normal course of operations, the Company may become involved with claims and disputes, and is subject to periodic examinations by regulatory agencies. At December 31, 2016, the Company is not involved with or aware of any claims, disputes, or examinations that would have a material effect on the Company's financial position.

NOTE 7 – GOING CONCERN AND PARENT SUPPORT

During the year ended December 31, 2016, the Company's operating deficit was funded by capital contributions from the Parent. The Company expects that it will require additional capital contributions from the Parent to support its operations for the year ended December 31, 2017, and the Parent has stated it will continue to provide such support to the Company for the foreseeable future. Having considered this information and the Parent's ability to continue to support the Company's operations, management continues using the going concern basis in preparing the Company's financial statements, which assumes that the Company will continue in operation for the foreseeable future.

NOTE 8 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through February 24, 2017 the date these financials were available for issuance. Management has concluded that there were no significant events requiring recognition and/or disclosure in the financial statements, except for the following:
