7. Limitation of Directors' Liability

Except to the extent that the North Carolina General Statutes prohibit such limitation or elimination of liability of directors for breaches of duty, no director of the Corporation shall be liable to the Corporation or to any of its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of duty as a director. The Corporation hereby indemnifies the directors for all costs and expenses incurred by any director in connection with the defense of any action or response to any complaint or legal advice concerning any claim brought against a director or directors collectively, or individually by reason of his being or having been a director of the Corporation.

No amendment to or repeal of this provision or adoption of a provision inconsistent herewith shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any director of the Corporation for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such director occurring prior to such amendment or repeal of adoption of an inconsistent provision. The provisions of this Article shall not be deemed to limit or preclude indemnification of a director by the Corporation for any liability that has not been eliminated by the provisions of this Article.

8. Self Dealing

No contract or other transaction between the Corporation and any other corporation or other party, in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that one or more directors have an interest in a contract or transaction or are directors or officers of said other corporation, or are in any way connected with such a person or his firm or corporation, and any director or directors, individually or jointly, may be party to such contract or transaction and each and every person who may become a director of the Corporation is hereby relieved of any liability that might otherwise exist from this contracting with the Corporation for the benefit of himself or any firm, association or corporation or subsidiary in which he may be interested. Any director may vote upon any transaction with the Corporation without regard to the fact that he is also a director or officer of any such other firm, association, corporation or subsidiary.

9. Meetings

Provided that the Corporation is not a public corporation at the time of the taking of such action, any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take the action at a meeting at which all shareholders entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. A shareholder's consent to action taken without meeting may be made by electronic mail or any other electronic form and delivered by electronic means. Prior notice of any action to be taken without meeting by the shareholders shall not be required to be given to any shareholder.

10. Communications

To the extent permitted by the North Carolina General Statutes, the Corporation may conduct any transaction or take any action by electronic mail or any other electronic means.

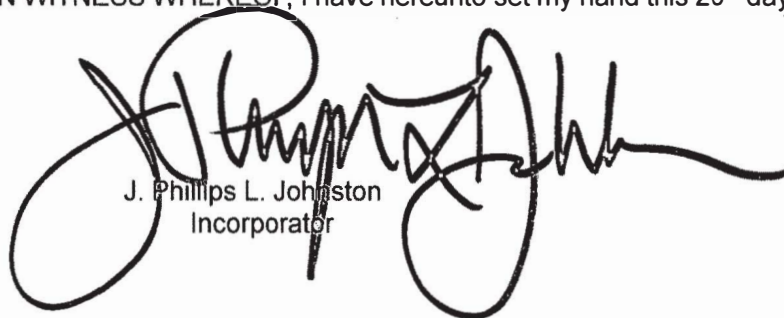

11. By Laws

The Board of Directors may from time to time make, amend, supplement or repeal the By Laws of the Corporation.

12. Date of Incorporation

These Articles of Incorporation will be effective upon filing.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 20th day of July, 2013.
