ARK GLOBAL LLC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2019

1. ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF BUSINESS

ARK Global LLC (the “Company”) was organized as a Limited Liability Company in 2007. The Company was granted membership in the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”) on March 18, 2015. It is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), and is a member of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (“SIPC”).

The Company acts as an intermediary in the marketing of investment strategies for its Asset Manager clients to prospective institutional investors through registered investment advisors, consultants and/or third parties and directly to plan sponsors. The Company does not hold accounts or process transactions for customers.

Investors usually consist of institutional investors, pension plans and other legal entities meeting the regulatory definition of Qualified or Accredited investors.

Recent Issued Accounting Pronouncements

The Company does not believe that the adoption of any recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting standards will have a material effect on its financial position and results of operations.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in conformity with U.S generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”) and the rules and regulations of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”). It is management's opinion, that all material adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) have been made which are necessary for a fair financial statement presentation.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents. Cash equivalents are carried at cost, which approximates market value.

Accounting basis

The Company uses the accrual basis of accounting for financial statement and income tax reporting. Accordingly revenues are recognized when services are rendered and expenses realized when the obligation is incurred.

Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company, taxed as a partnership for federal income tax purposes, and, thus, no federal income tax expense has been recorded in the financial statements. Taxable income of the Company is passed through to the members and reported on their individual tax returns.

Pursuant to accounting guidance concerning provision for uncertain income tax provisions contained in Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 740-10, there are no uncertain income tax positions. The federal and state income tax returns are subject to examination by the IRS and state taxing authorities, generally for three years after they were filed.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and disclosure of contingent assets, and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

The Company accounts for revenue in accordance with ASC Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The Company's revenues are from consulting fees, fixed retainer fees, and a percentage of the Asset Manager's money management fee. Accordingly, the Company recognizes retainer fees and consulting fees in the period earned, with separate revenue recognition when the performance obligations have been satisfied.

Consulting agreements with Asset Managers are multi-year contracts. Consulting fees are accrued when earned. They are generally paid in arrears on or about the last day of each calendar quarter.

Marketing and sales fee contracts are also for multiple years. The Company is compensated by a percentage of the Asset Manager's money management fee. These fees are paid in arrears to the Asset Manager, usually within 45 days, after the end of each calendar quarter or month depending on the payment time frame of the particular strategy. The Company is then paid within 30 days after such fees are received by the Asset Manager.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable is recorded at the amount the Company expects to collect on balances outstanding at year-end. The members closely monitor outstanding balances and write off, as of year-end, all balances over a year old that have not been collected by the time the financial statements are issued.

Fair Values of Financial Instruments

Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 825, "Financial Instruments," requires the Company to disclose estimated fair values for its financial instruments. Fair value estimates, methods, and assumptions are set forth below for the Company's financial instruments: The carrying amount of cash, accounts receivable, prepaid expenses and accounts payable and accrued expenses, approximate fair value because of the short maturity of those instruments.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company places its cash with a high credit quality financial institution. The Company's account at this institution is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") up to $250,000. To reduce its risk associated with the failure of such financial institution, the Company evaluates at least annually the rating of the financial institution in which it holds deposits.

The rule also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn, cash dividends paid or the Company's operations expanded, if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2019, the Company had net capital of $48,280, which was $43,280 in excess of the FINRA minimum net capital requirement of $5,000.

4. RELATED PARTIES

The Company has a Market Service Agreement with Noble Ark Ventures LLC, a related party through common ownership, (the "Affiliate"), for administrative expense and marketing support provided by the Company.
